Selected Poems 1956 1994:

Collected Poems : 1956-1994, 1996      Time Waits Martin Matz, 1994      Selected Poems, 1956-1994, 1995 This selection has been made by the poet himself from his eleven collections published from 1959 in Australia and then since 1980 by Oxford University Press up to the most recent title Rungs of Time He has chosen poems that still work for his readers and which bear witness to past selves      In Other Words Barbara Williams, 2022-04-11 Sixteen of Australia's foremost poets are featured in this volume They talk candidly about their lives and work of the craft the rigour the pangs and pleasures of their calling of winged moments caught however fleetingly on the page These writers also speak of transformation and transcendence the creative process their individual modes and methods of writing and the act of writing itself The interviews provide valuable insights on such topics as gender and writing landscape the function of poetry and the poet's social role influences embraced and withstood literary personal local regional national international The writers and their poetry are discussed from both within and beyond Australian borders This collection offers a broad range of Australian poets most of whom are now in the middle to later years of their career These poets have contributed significantly to the life and quality of poetry in Australia over recent decades and continue to play pivotal roles in Australia's cultural domain today as the country moves towards the threshold of a new century      Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide      The Poetic Economists of England and Ireland 1912-2000 D. Johnston, 2001-08-08 Although modern English and Irish poetry arises from the different cultures of the two countries these poets have shared throughout this century the same editors and publishers competed for the same prizes and been judged ostensibly by the same standards This book examines contexts for these exchanges over four decades tracing the lineages of Yeats and Hardy from their meeting in 1912 through WWI the 30s the 60s and the 90s to see what influences and ideas are exchanged and how poetic value accrues      Irish Poetry Since 1950 John Goodby, 2000-12-15 Irish Poetry since 1950 is a survey of poetry from Northern Ireland the Republic Britain and the US covering the 1950s the 1960s the early period of the Troubles up to 1976 the 1980s and the 1990s      Collected Poems, 1956-1994 Thomas Kinsella, 1996      The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Poetry Jahan Ramazani, 2017-02-27 This Companion is the first to explore postcolonial poetry through regional historical political formal textual and gender approaches      International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets      A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense      Poetry & Geography Neal Alexander, David Cooper, 2013-05-22

Collected critical essays examine contemporary poetry in terms of cultural geography Key themes are place and identity literary cartographies walking as trope and spatial practice the poetics of edges margins and peripheries landscape language and form Irish Poetry W. J. McCormack, 2002-04 In this avowedly interpretative anthology of Irish verse W J McCormack traces creativity of contradiction through several centuries finding poets productively at odds with their forebears their contemporaries even with themselves From Yeats's tragic laughter to the quieter ironies of Seamus Heaney from the rambunctious narratives of Merriman and Joyce to the pathos of Wilde's Reading Gaol the same sparring spirit is found

Light, Freedom and Song David Pierce, 2005-01-01 In this absorbing analysis of modern Irish writing an acknowledged expert considers the hybrid character of modern Irish writing to show how language culture and history have been affected by the colonial encounter between Ireland and Britain Examining the great themes of loss and struggle David Pierce traces the impact on Irish writing of the Great Famine and cultural nationalism and considers the way the work of Ireland's two leading writers W B Yeats and James Joyce complicate and elucidate our view of the harp and the crown The book draws a contrast between the West of Ireland in the 1930s when the new Irish State enjoyed its first full independent decade and the North of Ireland in the 1980s when the spectre of British imperialism threatened the stability of Ireland Pierce then surveys contemporary Irish writing and reflects on the legacy of the colonial encounter and on the passage to a postmodern or postnationalist Ireland in the work of such crucial living writers as John Banville Derek Mahon and John McGahern

International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen, 1999 Donald Allen's prophetic anthology had an electrifying effect on two generations at least of American poets and readers More than the repetition of familiar names and ideas that most anthologies seem to be about here was the declaration of a collective intelligent and thoroughly visionary work in progress the primary example for its time of the anthology as manifesto Its republication today complete with poems statements on poetics and autobiographical projections provides us again with a model of how a contemporary anthology can and should be shaped In these essentials it remains as fresh and useful a guide as it was in 1960 Jerome Rothenberg editor of Poems for the Millennium The New American Poetry is a crucial cultural document central to defining the poetics and the broader cultural dynamics of a particular historical moment Alan Golding author of From Outlaw to Classic Canons in American Poetry

The Sea of Disappointment Andrew Fitzsimons, 2008 Considered to be one of the most inventive of the contemporary Irish poets Thomas Kinsella is credited with bringing modernism to Irish verse Kinsella uses sensitive language to deal with primal aspects of the human experience His early writing Poems 1956 and Another September 1958 established him as a new voice in Irish poetry The peak of Kinsella's success came with the founding of the Peppercanister Press and the publication of Butcher's Dozen in 1972 Despite such early successes however Kinsella seems to have faded into the background of the Irish poetic stage In The Sea of Disappointment Andrew Fitzsimons offers us a chronological journey through the structural and thematic development of Kinsella's poetic writing Fitzsimons demonstrates that Kinsella has had a career that has risen to a high public profile where he followed conventional stanzaic forms to a position where he began to reject inherited forms and thus began a gradual critical disengagement from his work We see in the early chapters that isolation quintessentially part of the modern condition is a theme that is regularly touched upon by the poet and further developed in relation to the Irish condition Disappointment also pervades Kinsella's poetry Although Fitzsimons emphasises the importance of the context of Kinsella's dismal upbringing in 1940s-50s Ireland he avoids reducing his poetry down to a mere response to the poet's social and historical background and thus he manages to maintain a sense of the irreducible integrity of his poetry This well researched and comprehensive book draws on illuminating manuscript sources and previously unpublished material as well as on Kinsella's own assistance Considering Kinsella's work from its beginnings until his most recent publications Fitzsimons shows that his poetry is driven despite the apparent rift between its early and late styles by a consistent impulse and deliberate aesthetic of growth The Sea of Disappointment will offer a fresh insight into the poetic work of one of the most innovative poets of contemporary Ireland

Poetry Today Anthony Thwaite, 2016-04-15 This is the most authoritative and up to date survey of contemporary British poetry 1960-1995 It is the third version but second edition published by Longman of a successful survey that first appeared 30 years ago and provides a succinct and accessible overview of British poets movements and themes ideal for English courses and the general reader alike

International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters

Fishing by Obstinate

Isles Keith Tuma, 1998 This text investigates modern British poetry and the death of that poetry in American critical circles It explores the relations of British and American poetries challenging reductive American views of British poetry
