Selected Poems And Reflections Of The Art Of Poetry:

Selected Poems and Reflections of the Art of Poetry Jules Supervielle, 1985      The Cambridge Companion to English Poets Claude Rawson, 2011-01-27 This volume provides lively and authoritative introductions to twenty nine of the most important British and Irish poets from Geoffrey Chaucer to Philip Larkin The list includes among others Shakespeare Donne Milton Wordsworth Browning Yeats and T S Eliot and represents the tradition of English poetry at its best Each contributor offers a new assessment of a single poet s achievement and importance with readings of the most important poems The essays written by leading experts are personal responses written in clear vivid language free of academic jargon and aim to inform arouse interest and deepen understanding      Selected Poems William Wordsworth, 2004-07-29 One of the major poets of Romanticism Wordsworth epitomized the spirit of his age with his celebration of the natural world and the spontaneous expression of feeling This volume contains a rich selection from the most creative phase of his life including extracts from his masterpiece The Prelude and the best loved of his shorter poems such as Composed Upon Westminster Bridge Tintern Abbey I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud Lucy Gray and Michael Together these poems demonstrate not only Wordsworth s astonishing range and power but the sustained and coherent vision that informed his work      Essential Essays: Culture, Politics, and the Art of Poetry Adrienne Rich, 2018-08-28 A New York Times Critics Pick A career spanning selection of the lucid courageous and boldly political prose of National Book Award winner Adrienne Rich Demonstrating the lasting brilliance of her voice and her prophetic vision Essential Essays showcases Adrienne Rich s singular ability to unite the political personal and poetical The essays selected here by feminist scholar Sandra M Gilbert range from the 1960s to 2006 emphasizing Rich s lifelong intellectual engagement and fearless prose exploration of feminism social justice poetry race homosexuality and identity      Book Review Index , 1987 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation      The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry      Why Write Poetry? Jeannine Johnson, 2007 Poets have long been defending poetry in prose and essays by Sidney Shelley and others are a familiar and important part of the Anglo American literary tradition This book identifies and examines a related genre the verse defense of poetry which shares the same impulse that has led to the composition of prose essays namely the desire to protect poetry from its detractors and to promote its value as a vital human endeavor In the last century or so this impulse to engage questions of poetry s value in poems has become increasingly widespread and it has dominated the careers of at least five poets H D Wallace Stevens W H Auden Adrienne Rich and Geoffrey Hill Though these poets espouse very different aesthetic principles they like many of their contemporaries have repeatedly turned to apology in their verse At first glance this seems an odd gesture given that the readers and writers of poetry are those who least need convincing of poetry's worthiness. But questioning poetry in verse is a form of lyric introspection that is productive and well suited for a modern poet characterized as one of indifference. Defense helps these authors make a claim for poetry's cultural relevance as well as for its private profit. Jeannine Johnson is a Preceptor in Expository Writing at Harvard University.

Who's Who in Twentieth Century World Poetry Alan Parker, Mark Willhardt, 2005-12-05. Publicity Title. Foreword by Andrew Motion. Poet Laureate. 900 entries by 75 international contributors, all experts in their field. Covers both canonical and lesser-known contemporary poets. Very broad range of coverage, taking in poets from all over the world. The only book of its kind to look at non-English language poets in such detail.

The Art of Restraint Richard Hoffpauir, 1991. Richard Hoffpauir argues that the works of the best poets have found ways of not capitulating to contemporary reality and outlines the terms of the debate by setting the weaknesses of Yeats against the strengths of Hardy. Subsequent chapters discuss the nature poetry of Edward Thomas, the war poetry of Graves, Blunden, and Gurney, the love poetry of Bridges, Lawrence, and Graves, and the political and social verse of Rickword, Deryush, Betjeman, and Larkin.

The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet Elizabeth Caroline Dodd, 1992. In The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet, Elizabeth Dodd explores the lives and work of four women poets of the twentieth century: H.D., Louise Bogan, Elizabeth Bishop, and Louise Glück. Dodd argues that sexist and male-dominated cultural forces in their personal and professional lives challenged these women to find a unique mode of expression in their poetry, a practice Dodd defines as personal classicism. Dodd uses the term personal classicism to examine modern and contemporary poetry that appears torn between two major modes of poetic sensibility: the Romantic and the Classical. While the four poets she addresses exhibit a poetic sensibility that is primarily Romantic, valuing Wordsworth's spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings, adopting a natural spoken tone, and relying on personal subject matter, they have nonetheless employed masking and controlling strategies that are more nearly Classical. Combining feminist theory and biographical studies with close readings of individual poems, Dodd moves historically from H.D., one of the best-known Imagists, through the Confessional movement to the major contemporary poet Louise Glück. In the final chapter, Dodd brings us to the present, where she finds women writers still struggling with the recent Confessional legacy of such highly anthologized poets as Anne Sexton and Sylvia Plath. The Veiled Mirror and the Woman Poet combines thoughtful consideration of both formal and theoretical issues in a graceful prose that reaffirms poetry as an art vitally connected to life. It will be of significant interest to students of modern and contemporary poetry as well as to those concerned with women's studies.

Who's who in Twentieth-century World Poetry Mark Willhardt, Alan Michael Parker, 2002. Global in perspective, this comprehensive volume provides biographical information on the greatest poets of the 20th century and critical accounts of their work. It features 900 entries by 75 international contributors.

Postscript Andrea Andersson, 2018-01-01. Postscript is the first collection of writings on the subject of conceptual writing by a diverse field of scholars in the realms of art, literature, media, as well as the artists themselves.

Technomodern Poetics Todd F.

Tietchen, 2018-10-01 After the second World War the term technology came to signify both the anxieties of possible annihilation in a rapidly changing world and the exhilaration of accelerating cultural change Technomodern Poetics examines how some of the most well known writers of the era described the tensions between technical literary and media cultures at the dawn of the Digital Age Poets and writers such as Allen Ginsberg Charles Olson Jack Kerouac and Frank O'Hara among others anthologized in Donald Allen's iconic The New American Poetry 1945-1960 provided a canon of work that has proven increasingly relevant to our technological present Elaborating on the theories of contemporaneous technologists such as Norbert Wiener Claude Shannon J.C.R. Licklider and a host of noteworthy others these artists express the anxieties and avant garde impulses they wrestled with as they came to terms with a complex array of issues raised by the dawning of the nuclear age computer based automation and the expansive reach of electronic media As author Todd Tietchen reveals even as these writers were generating novel forms and concerns they often continued to question whether such technological changes were inherently progressive or destructive With an undeniable timeliness Tietchen's book is sure to appeal to courses in modern English literature and American studies as well as among fans of Beat writers and early Cold War culture

Poetry, Poets, Readers Peter Robinson, 2002 Poetry Poets Readers is a defence of poetry against the protective moves which claim that poets never lie because they never affirm or that their poems exist in a separate world These much reiterated manoeuvres for safe guarding poetry by banishing it from an active role in life can paradoxically go hand in hand with a poet's yearning for the authority of a legislator Through detailed considerations of poetry by Shakespeare Keats Yeats Auden Elizabeth Bishop and Paul Muldoon along with sustained meditations on question forms in poems the role of fact in fictions the nature of literary value speech acts and performative utterances issued by poets the book sets out a fresh model for relationships between poetry poets and readers one which allows the historical fact of poems having made things happen to be itself happening Peter Robinson himself an award winning poet explores what we do by imagining when we read or write poems In describing how poetry poets and readers make things happen the poet offers us an invitation and implies a promise Taking up the one we find out how to keep the other

Reflections Philip Gordon, 2011-11-30 Selected Poems and Photographs Written and Photographed by Philip Gordon

A Companion to Modernist Poetry David E. Chinitz, Gail McDonald, 2014-03-31 A COMPANION TO MODERNIST POETRY A Companion to Modernist Poetry A Companion to Modernist Poetry presents contemporary approaches to modernist poetry in a uniquely in depth and accessible text The first section of the volume reflects the attention to historical and cultural context that has been especially fruitful in recent scholarship The second section focuses on various movements and groupings of poets placing writers in literary history and indicating the currents and countercurrents whose interaction generated the category of modernism as it is now broadly conceived The third section traces the arcs of twenty one poets careers illustrated by analyses of key works The Companion thus offers breadth in its presentation of historical and literary contexts and depth in its attention to individual poets it brings recent scholarship to bear on the subject of modernist poetry while also providing guidance on poets who are historically important and who are likely to appear on syllabi and to attract critical interest for many years to come Edited by two highly respected and notable critics in the field A Companion to Modernist Poetry boasts a varied list of contributors who have produced an intense focused study of modernist poetry Select Poems of Thomas Gray. Edited, with Notes, by William J. Rolfe, Etc Thomas Gray,1876 Reframing Yeats Charles I. Armstrong,2013-08-29 Reframing Yeats the first critical study of its kind uses a focus on genre and allusion to engage with a broad range of W B Yeats s writings examining instances of his poetry autobiographical writings criticism and drama Identifying a schism in recent Yeatsian criticism between biographical and formalist methodologies Armstrong s study combines an historicist perspective with close attention to literary form The result is a flexible approach that casts new light on how Yeats s texts interact with their interpretative frameworks Cognizant of both literary and political history this book presents new interpretations of Yeats s work Not only does it provide fresh readings of texts such as The Municipal Gallery Re visited Among School Children and The Resurrection but it also raises important new questions concerning Yeats s relationship to Modernism and literary genre Thinking Through Poetry Marjorie Levinson,2018-07-04 Thinking through Poetry Field Reports on Romantic Lyric pursues two goals The title signals the contribution to debates about reading Do we think through by means of with poems sympathetically elaborating their surfaces Is this compatible with a second meaning thinking through poems to their end solving a problem getting to its root its deep truth Third can we square these surface and depth readings with a speculative philosophical criticism to which the poem carries us where through denotes a going beyond All three meanings of through are in play throughout The subtitle applies field first to Romantic studies since the 1980s a field that this project reflects upon from beginning to end Examples are drawn especially from Wordsworth but also from Coleridge and in assessing Romanticism s afterlife from Stevens Field also characterizes the shift from a unitary to a field concept of form during that time span a shift pursued through prolonged engagement with Spinoza Field thus underscores the synthesis of form and history the importance of analytic scale to that synthesis and the displacement of entity text by relation as the object of investigation While the book historically connects early nineteenth century intellectual trends to twentieth and twenty first century scientific revolutions its focuses on introducing new models to literary criticism Unlike accounts of the influence of science on literature or various literature X approaches literature and ecology literature and cognitive science it constructs its object of inquiry in a way cognate with work in non humanities disciplines thus highlighting a certain unity to human knowledge The claim is that specialists in literature should think the way distinguished scientists think and vice versa Select Poems of Thomas Gray Thomas Gray,1876
