Selected Prose 19532003:

Selected Prose John Ashbery, 2004-01-01 Selected Prose 1953 2003 presents for the first time in one volume many essays on authors who have influenced John Ashbery's development as a major voice in poetry. They are arranged chronologically to assist the reader in following the development of Ashbery as a poet. These critical works are as essential to the cultural and literary history of twentieth century poetry as are the critical prose of T S Eliot and W H Auden. They vividly portray a literary sensibility which is one of the most important in the development of poetry in English over the last century and equally influential on poetry and art in the twenty first century. What it Means to Write About Art Jarrett Earnest, 2018-11-27

The most comprehensive portrait of art criticism ever assembled as told by the leading writers of our time. In the last fifty years art criticism has flourished as never before. Moving from niche to mainstream it is now widely taught at universities, practiced in newspapers, magazines and online and has become the subject of debate by readers, writers and artists worldwide. Equal parts oral history and analysis of craft, What It Means to Write About Art offers an unprecedented overview of American art writing. These thirty in depth conversations chart the role of the critic as it has evolved from the 1960s to today, providing an invaluable resource for aspiring artists and writers alike. John Ashbery recalls finding Rimbaud's poetry through his first gay crush at sixteen. Rosalind Krauss remembers stealing the design of October from Massimo Vignelli. Paul Chaat Smith details his early days with Jimmy Durham in the American Indian Movement. Dave Hickey talks about writing country songs with Waylon Jennings. Michele Wallace relives her late night and early morning interviews with James Baldwin. Lucy Lippard describes confronting Clement Greenberg at a lecture. Eileen Myles asserts her belief that her negative review incited the Women's Action Coalition and Fred Moten recounts falling in love with Renoir while at Harvard. Jarrett Earnest's wide ranging conversations with critics, historians, journalists, novelists, poets and theorists, each of whom approach the subject from unique positions, illustrate different ways of writing, thinking and looking at art. Interviews with Hilton Als, John Ashbery, Bill Berkson, Yve Alain Bois, Huey Copeland, Holland Cotter, Douglas Crimp, Darby English, Hal Foster, Michael Fried, Thyrza Nichols Goodeve, Dave Hickey, Siri Hustvedt, Kellie Jones, Chris Kraus, Rosalind Krauss, Lucy Lippard, Fred Moten, Eileen Myles, Molly Nesbit, Jed Perl, Barbara Rose, Jerry Saltz, Peter Schjeldahl, Barry Schwabsky, Paul Chaat Smith, Roberta Smith, Lynne Tillman, Michele Wallace and John Yau. On a Bat's Wing Michael Baron, 2007. Including poems from Emily Dickinson, John Clare, D H Lawrence, Stevie Smith, Seamus Heaney and many more, this collection of poems about bats is a source of inspiration and mythology flitting in and out of human experience in some unexpected ways.

Feminist Encounters with Legal Philosophy Maria Drakopoulou, 2013-12-17 Presenting feminist readings of texts from the legal philosophical and jurisprudential canon the papers collected here offer an interdisciplinary and critical challenge to established modes of reading law Feminist approaches to law usually take the form of either critical engagements with legal doctrine legal concepts and ideas or critical assessments of the effects that specific areas of law have upon the lives of women This collection however although rooted in feminist legal scholarship takes the established canon of legal texts as the object of inquiry Taking as their common starting point the fact that legal texts are plural and open to multiple readings all the contributions in this collection offer subversive but supplementary interpretations of the legal canon In this respect however they do not merely sustain an array of feminist styles and theories of reading revealing and re appropriating the plural space of legal interpretation they seek to open a hitherto unexplored arena for a feminist politics of law Feminist Encounters with Legal Philosophy is a thoroughly researched interdisciplinary collection that will interest students and scholars of Law Philosophy and Feminism

It interrelates the man and his national cultural background by defining in detail the Welshness of his poetic temperament and critical attitudes as both man and poet. At the same time, it illustrates Thomas's wide knowledge of and impact on the long and varied tradition of poetry in English. In that connection, it delineates and delimits Thomas's relationship to surrealism, compares and contrasts his work with that of other poets of the 1930s and 1940s, and shows how his power survives his early death in 1953 in the decade of the Movement poets and beyond. A major aspect of this book is the close textual analysis of the works quoted; it explores anew the recognition due to the man who wrote the work and helps us to separate the intrinsic achievement of the work from the foisted perceptions of the legend. International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up-to-date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets.
