Selected Reprints In Software:

Selected Reprints in Software Marvin V. Zelkowitz, 1980 While the computer hardware is a physical reality software is hard to describe It cannot be touched tasted or seen but it must be built and maintained It ages becomes obsolete and often breaks but not in the sense that a transistor or a disk drive fails It is this realization that separates the current view of software from that of 30 years ago What is software The Computer articles reprinted in this volume explore some of the answers to that question The articles selected address four topics programming languages software creation data bases and applications

Selected Reprints on VLSI Technologies and Computer Graphics, 1983 Compilation of reprints intended for professionals interested in the intersection of the relationship between computer graphics VLSI Includes a section on CAD systems related graphics issues
