Self Contradictions Of The Bible:

Self-Contradictions of the Bible William Henry Burr, 1887-09 Fundamentalism the belief that the Bible is the inspired inerrant and literally true word of God thrives on ignorance not just of a general sort but an ignorance of the Bible itself The ability to perceive contradictions in a written text to appreciate the nuances of historical and literary context or the intentions that ancient writers hide beneath their words are hard acquired skills in the best of times Fundamentalism presupposes none of them Rather it marks a return to the rote memorization of tropes and verses that stood at the beginning of the demystifying process When a fundamentalist says he knows the Bible he means only that he can repeat its content selectively often citing the Old Testament as though it were little more than a prelude to the New Self Contradictions of the Bible is an ingenious response to fundamentalism Compiled in 1859 by William Henry Burr and published anonymously this work made modest inroads to public opinion but then went quickly out of print in 1890 long before the famous Scopes trial In it Burr answers text with text proposition with proposition and doctrine with doctrine a tactic that infuriated his evangelical opponents Here in its original 1860 format the reader can come to appreciate a classic of nineteenth century religious liberation Bible Contradictions and Their Resolutions John Teller, 2021-02-22 Skeptics atheists and agnostics have long argued that the Bible is riddled with self contradictions that render it unreliable They point to many purported contradictions that undermine the Bible's claim to being the Word of God Who carried Jesus' cross Simon as reported in the Gospel of Luke or Jesus as reported in the Gospel of John Did a centurion plead with Jesus to heal his servant as Matthew reports or did he send elders of the Jews to plead with Jesus as Luke reports Did 40 000 horsemen die in battle with David as 2 Samuel reports or did 40 000 foot soldiers die as 1 Chronicles reports Did both thieves mock Jesus on the cross as narrated by the Gospel of Matthew or did only one thief mock him as narrated by the Gospel of Mark Many students of the Bible upon reading these passages throw their hands up in frustration and conclude that the Bible cannot be divinely inspired Some Christians unable to explain these difficulties walk away from the faith Others when pressed concede that they do not have explanations but believe reasonable explanations exist though they cannot articulate any Muslims and Mormons use the apparent contradictions of the Bible to support their claims that the Bible in its current form is a corruption of the original message of God Now there is a response to these claims This book defends the divine inspiration of the Bible and demonstrates with clarity that the so called contradictions of the Bible are not contradictions at all A careful study of the Scriptures in their original context and in light of the nuances in which they were originally written vindicates the Bible from claims of errancy This book examines the contradictions most frequently cited by the detractors of Christianity and offers reasoned explanations Armed with this book Christians can respond to their critics and rest assured that their faith is not incompatible with logic There are in fact reasonable responses to the claims made by Christianity's detractors and logical arguments in support of the Bible's inerrancy Self-Contradictions of the Bible ...
