Philosophical Shakespeares John Joughin, 2003-09-02 Shakespeare continues to articulate the central problems of our intellectual inheritance The plays of a Renaissance playwright still seem to be fundamental to our understanding and experience of modernity Key philosophical questions concerning value meaning and justice continue to resonate in Shakespeare's work In the course of rethinking these issues Philosophical Shakespeares actively encourages the growing dissolution of boundaries between literature and philosophy The approach throughout is interdisciplinary and ranges from problem centred readings of particular plays to more general elaborations of the significance of Shakespeare in relation to individual thinkers or philosophical traditions

Creating Eartheaven in Your Life Profound Transformation of Your Soul David H. Fastiggi, 2014-05-17 Creating Eartheaven in Your Life is unique and it is innate in all human beings Humanity's quest for a wholesome peaceful life goes unabated Our search for our better self that identifies with the reality of the world we live in all too often filled with grief and stress is juxtaposed with faith and hope for change or a miracle Do we just have faith expecting God will deliver humanity from the ills we have caused Should we just buckle down and be practical seeking solution with our rational self What kind of God do we actually know or are we seeking a relationship with an image of God taught to us What is the divine matrix and does a personal God speak to us Science stands for one view of creation and faith stands for another Is there a joining point of the two Has our species Homo sapiens stalled out in evolutionary development Is the world becoming a village of cooperation and mutual peace seeking Can we continue the way we have been and survive our own arrogance What is the future of faith religion and spirituality The author in a comprehensive way takes us on a journey to explore answers to these questions and much more Eartheaven is a paradigm of integration between the soul's development and our biological body and by extension all creation He delves into scientific reality while preserving in the beginning God created Creating Eartheaven in Your life is a deep exploratory of the soul's life in the experience of hurt and suffering and the potential for there to be personal divine human embodiment and therefore earth peace Through ten fundamental teaching combining Jesus words of two thousand years ago an Aramaic understanding the author's revelatory experience in an apparition of Jesus his 44 years life experience psychology and science your reading and learning experience will be a challenge and liberation of the soul Profound transformation is needed and this codex offers the leverage needed to shift our life course towards personal awakening and transformation as well as providing a blue print for future generations Creating Eartheaven in Your Life brings us into universal principles of life a meeting for humanity without walls This volume of two addresses specifically transformation of the soul heaven unfolding Volume two addresses transformation of the body representing the earth and thus eartheaven Granted this book is not an easy read but proves to be a strong mirror reflecting back to us our lives and what we can become fulfilling humanitys evolutionary life potential and perhaps vital to our survival as a people Arts-Based Research Across Textual Media in Education Jason DeHart, Peaches Hash, 2023-11-06 In company with its sister volume Arts Based Research Across Textual Media in Education explores arts based approaches to research across media including film and comics related material from a variety of geographic locations and across a range of subdisciplines within the field of education This first volume takes a textual focus capturing process poetic and dramaturgical approaches The authors aim to highlight some of the approaches that are not always centered in arts based research The contributors represent a variety of arts based practices and methods and they weave this marrying of artistic and scientific expertise and experience into the fabric of the chapters themselves Authors from international contexts speak to the importance of utilizing artistic approaches for research processes From multimodal field notes to poetic forms to the dramaturgical chapters in this book represent steps forward in educational inquiry to bringing together both the creative and credible The book includes multiple images and rich descriptions shared from the field This first volume covers amongst other topics co created narratives creative fiction in research analytic portraits dramatic representation and critical poetic inquiry It would be suitable for graduate students and scholars interested in qualitative inquiry and arts based methods in education and the social sciences The Knowledge-creating Company Ikujiro Nonaka, Hirotaka Takeuchi, 1995 The authors contend that Japanese firms are successful because they are innovative and not merely masters of imitation as some think and because they create new knowledge and use it to produce successful products and technologies Illustrations Irony Claire Colebrook, 2003-09-18 In this handy volume Claire Colebrook offers an overview of the history and structure of irony from Socrates to the present Students will welcome this clear concise guide which traces the use of the concept through history from Greek times to the Romantic period and on to the postmodern era looks closely at the work of Socrates and the more contemporary theorists Jacques Derrida and Gilles Deleuze explores the philosophical literary and political dimensions of irony applies theories of irony to literary texts Making even the most difficult debates accessible and clear this is the ideal student introduction to the many theories of irony richer more meaningful life "A Good Man is Hard to Find" Flannery O'Connor, 1993 Presents a chronology of the life of author Flannery O'Connor comments and letters by the author about the story and a series of ten critical essays by noted authors about her work Creating a Sustainable Ecology Using Technology-Driven Solutions Carayannis, Elias G., 2013-03-31 As advancements in technology continue to influence all facets of society its aspects have been utilized in order to find solutions to emerging ecological issues Creating a Sustainable Ecology Using Technology Driven Solutions highlights matters that relate to technology driven solutions towards the combination of social ecology and sustainable development This publication addresses the issues of development in advancing and transitioning economies through creating new ideas and solutions making it useful for researchers practitioners and policy makers in the socioeconomic sectors Mind, Brain and the Elusive Soul Mark Graves, 2008 Does science argue against the existence of the human soul Many scientists and scholars believe the whole is more than the sum of the parts This book uses information and systems theory to describe the more that does not reduce to the parts One sees this in the synapses or apparently empty gaps between the neurons in one's brain where informative relationships give rise to human mind culture and spirituality Drawing upon the disciplines of cognitive science computer science neuroscience general systems theory pragmatic philosophy and Christian theology Mark Graves reinterprets the traditional doctrine of the soul as form of the body to frame contemporary scientific study of the human soul Self in Relationships Astri Johnsen, Rolf Sundet, Vigdis Wie Torsteinsson, 2018-04-24 Inspired by Daniel Stern's work on self development the authors suggest that by combining systemic therapy with a psychoanalytical aspect family therapy can reach new depths They argue that this will enrich our understanding of the relationships between parents and children and between siblings There have been changes within psychoanalysis and family therapy which we believe can enrich both these theoretical fields The idea is not to integrate but rather to bring about a mutual curiosity in these two areas which may result in dialogues with each other and create reservoirs for ideas and practices which have been found to be useful Sign Languages Joseph C. Hill, Diane C. Lillo-Martin, Sandra K. Wood, 2018-12-12 Sign Languages Structures and Contexts provides a succinct summary of major findings in the linguistic study of natural sign languages Focusing on American Sign Language ASL this book offers a comprehensive introduction to the basic grammatical components of phonology morphology and syntax with examples and illustrations demonstrates how sign languages are acquired by Deaf children with varying degrees of input during early development including no input where children create a language of their own discusses the contexts of sign languages including how different varieties are formed and used attitudes towards sign languages and how language planning affects language use is accompanied by e resources which host links to video clips Offering an engaging and accessible introduction to sign languages this book is essential reading for students studying this topic for the first time with little or no background in linguistics The Grotesque in Art and Literature James Luther Adams, Wilson Yates, 1997 The authors focus on the religious and theological significance of grotesque imagery in art and literature exploring the religious meaning of the grotesque and its importance as a subject for theological inquiry Philosophy Reborn Part I: Purpose Shawn Alli, The disingenuous life is not worth living Do you think that people in Western European countries live in a democracy Do you think that science represents objective knowledge Do you think that the brain is the mind Do you think that human nature defines you If you answered yes to any of these questions then you re in for a rude awakening What is the purpose of life Can we create a real ethical democracy What is the mechanism of evolution Do your genes have intentionality How does innate knowledge exist Where do your ideas come from How do we create a fair justice system How do we create a better education system You ll find the answers to all of these questions in Part I

Embracing the Track of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Selfcreating Language

In some sort of taken by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast communication, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the written word frequently diminish in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of Selfcreating Language a marvelous literary value full of natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful musician of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of the moving analysis, we will investigate the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing model, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
