Selfhood And Authenticity:

Selfhood and Authenticity Corey Anton, 2001-02-22 Winner of the 2004 Erving Goffman Award for Outstanding Scholarship in the Ecology of Social Interaction presented by the Media Ecology Association Drawing upon numerous influential thinkers of the twentieth century including Heidegger Bakhtin Merleau Ponty Sartre Goffman Schrag and Taylor Selfhood and Authenticity articulates the phenomenological constitution by which social construction is a real possibility Anton brings phenomenology and existential philosophy to wider audiences and makes complex insights refreshingly lucid by systematically radicalizing and integrating the notions of embodiment sociality symbolicity and temporality Selfhood and Authenticity Corey Anton, 2001-02-22 Explores the notion of selfhood in the wake of the post structuralist debates

Authenticity Godehard Brüntrup, Michael Reder, Liselotte Gierstl, 2020-09-14 Today authenticity is considered an essential part of manifold interpersonal relationships actions and agreements Authenticity's association with sincerity honesty and reliability not only normatively charges the term in the context of social coexistence but also makes it a demand which we impose on ourselves The success of our lives is measured decisively by whether we live in harmony with our own convictions wishes and needs In philosophy authenticity has also become the focus of interest both in the context of the mechanisms of self knowledge as well as of personal development The anthology aims to expand the cooperation across disciplines in order to develop a comprehensive and profound understanding of authenticity not by over simplifying the highly complex subject but by approaching the underlying concept from different scientific perspectives The Literature of Reconstruction Wolfgang Funk, 2017-03-23 Winner of the 2016 ESSE Junior Scholar Book Award in Literatures in the English Language The Literature of Reconstruction argues for the term and concept of postmillennial reconstruction to fill the gap left by the decline of postmodernism and deconstruction as useful cultural and literary categories Wolfgang Funk shows how this notion emerges from the theoretical and philosophical development that led to the demise of postmodernism by relating it to the idea of authenticity immediate experience that eludes direct representation In addition he provides a clear formal framework with which to identify and classify the features of reconstructive literature by updating the narratological category of metafiction originally established in the 1980s Based on Werner Wolf's observation of a metareferential turn in contemporary arts and media he illustrates how the specific use of metareference results in a renegotiation of the specific patterns of literary communication and claims that this renegotiation can be profitably described with the concept of reconstruction To substantiate this claim in the second half of the book Funk discusses narrative texts that illustrate this transition from postmodern deconstruction to postmillennial reconstruction The analyses take in distinguished and prize winning writers such as Dave Eggers Julian Barnes Jennifer Egan and Jasper Fforde The broad scope of authors featuring writers from the US as well as the UK underlines the fact that the reconstructive tendencies and strategies Funk diagnoses are of universal significance for the intellectual and cultural self image of the global North Authenticity in Culture, Self,

and Society Phillip Vannini, J. Patrick Williams, 2009 Authenticity in Culture Self and Society addresses the problems surrounding the concept of authenticity by offering its first sociological analysis Compiled by a team of experts from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds it provides readers with a survey of original empirical studies focused on its experience negotiation and social relevance at the levels of self culture and specific social settings Essays in Honor of Hubert L. Dreyfus: Heidegger, authenticity, and modernity Mark A. Wrathall, Jeff Malpas, 2000 These essays focus on the dialogue with the continental philosophical tradition in particular the work of Heidegger that has played a foundational role in Dreyfus's thinking The Language and Imagery of Coma and Brain Injury Matthew Colbeck, 2021-04-22 What occurs within coma What does the coma patient experience How does the patient perceive the world outside of coma if at all The simple answer to these questions is that we don't know Yet the sheer volume of literary and media texts would have us believe that we do Examining representations of coma and brain injury across a variety of texts this book investigates common tropes and linguistic devices used to portray the medical condition of coma giving rise to universal mythologies and misconceptions in the public domain Matthew Colbeck looks at how these texts represent or fail to represent long term brain injury drawing on narratives of coma survivors that have been produced and curated through writing groups he has run over the last 10 years Discussing a diverse range of cultural works including novels by Irvine Welsh Stephen King Tom McCarthy and Douglas Coupland as well as film and media texts such as The Sopranos Kill Bill Coma and The Walking Dead Colbeck provides an explanation for our fascination with coma With a proliferation of misleading stories of survival in the media and in literature this book explores the potential impact these have upon our own understanding of coma and its victims The Theological Imperative to Authenticity Christy Capper, 2022-11-04 From a theological viewpoint this book explores the junction between the philosophical existential idea of the authentic self and its cultural appropriation The text builds on the theology of John Macquarrie and the narrative formation of identity to construct a theological definition of authentic selfhood It then contrasts this definition with the common idea that authenticity in the moral sense can be used to justify any action The author argues that this is not genuine authenticity Instead they consider that authenticity rests upon loyalty to something greater than oneself and for Christians this is the character of the God in whose image they are created and are being formed This book is illuminating reading for students and scholars of theological anthropology pastoral theology ethics and moral philosophy

Horizons of Authenticity in Phenomenology, Existentialism, and Moral Psychology Hans Pedersen, Megan Altman, 2014-11-10 This volume centers on the exploration of the ways in which the canonical texts and thinkers of the phenomenological and existential tradition can be utilized to address contemporary concrete philosophical issues In particular the included essays address the key facets of the work of Charles Guignon and as such honor and extend his thought and approach to philosophy To this end the four main sections of the volume deal with the question of authenticity i.e. what it means to be an authentic person the ways in which the phenomenological and existential traditions can impact the sciences how best to understand the fact of human mortality and finally the ways philosophical reflection can help address current questions of value The volume is designed primarily to serve as a secondary resource for students and specialists interested in rediscovering the practical application of existential and phenomenological thought The collection of scholarly essays then could be used in conjunction with some of the more recent scholarship concerning the practical value of philosophy Along with contributing to previous scholarship the essays in this proposed volume attempt to update and expand the scope of phenomenological and existential inquiry

Heidegger, Authenticity and the Self

Denis McManus, 2014-09-25 Though Heidegger's Being and Time is often cited as one of the most important philosophical works of the last hundred years its Division Two has received relatively little attention This outstanding collection corrects that by examining some of the central themes of Division Two and their wide ranging and challenging implications An international team of leading philosophers explore the crucial notions that articulate Heidegger's concept of authenticity including death anxiety conscience guilt resolution and temporality In doing so they clarify the bearing of Division Two's reflections on our understanding of intentionality normativity responsibility autonomy and selfhood These discussions raise important questions about how we may need to rethink the morals of Division One of Being and Time the broader project to which that book was devoted the shaping influence of figures such as Aristotle and Kierkegaard as well as Heidegger's relationship with his contemporaries and successors Essential reading for students and scholars of Heidegger's thought and anyone interested in key debates in phenomenology ethics metaphilosophy and philosophy of mind Contributors William Blattner Clare Carlisle Taylor Carman Steven Galt Crowell Daniel O Dahlstrom Sophia Dandelet Hubert Dreyfus Charles Guignon Jeffrey Haynes Stephan Kufferl Denis McManus Stephen Mulhall George Pattison Peter Poellner Katherine Withy Mark A Wrathall

Martyrdom and Identity Michael P. Jensen, 2010-05-13 This book addresses the need for an account of Christian discipleship which addresses matters of selfhood and identity in the contemporary context It will help its readers perform Christian scripture more ably in the light of the witness of Christian martyrs

In Search of Authenticity

Jacob Golomb, 2012-11-12 Great philosophers such as Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Sartre have clearly been preoccupied by the possibility of authenticity In this study Jacob Golomb looks closely at the literature and writings of these philosophers in his analysis of their ethics Golomb's writings shows his passionate commitment to the quest for the authenticity particularly in our climate of post modern scepticism He argues that existentialism is all the more pertinent and relevant today when set against the general disillusionment which characterises the late twentieth century This book is invaluable reading for those who have been fascinated by figures like Camus's Meursault Sartre's Matthieu and Nietzsche's Zarathustra

Specters of

Liberation Martin J. Beck Matustik, Martin Beck Matuštík, 1998-03-19 Advocates a new existential and political coalition among critical and postmodern social theorists and among critical gender race and class theorists in dissent from the New World Order to raise specters of liberation and empower radical democratic change

Authenticity as an Ethical Ideal

Somogy Varga,2013-03-01 Authenticity has become a widespread ethical ideal that represents a way of dealing with normative gaps in contemporary life This ideal suggests that one should be true to oneself and lead a life expressive of what one takes oneself to be However many contemporary thinkers have pointed out that the ideal of authenticity has increasingly turned into a kind of aestheticism and egoistic self indulgence In his book Varga systematically constructs a critical concept of authenticity that takes into account the reciprocal shaping of capitalism and the ideal of authenticity Drawing on different traditions in critical social theory moral philosophy and phenomenology Varga builds a concept of authenticity that can make intelligible various problematic and potentially exhausting practices of the self Sartre's Ethics of Engagement T. Storm Heter,2009-06-15 A refreshing alternative to the longstanding view that Sartre is an extreme individualist placing him instead at the centre of the debate over civic virtue and democratic participation Transformative Education through International Service-Learning Philip Bamber,2016-03-22 Transformative learning is a compelling approach to learning that is becoming increasingly popular in a diverse range of educational settings and encounters This book reconceptualises transformative learning through an investigation of the learning process and outcomes of International Service Learning ISL a pedagogical approach that blends student learning with community engagement overseas and the development of a more just society Drawing upon key philosophers and theorists Bamber offers an integrated multi dimensional approach linking transformative learning to the development of the authentic self and analysing the aesthetic moral and relational dimensions of ISL in an increasingly globalized world Chapters explore rich empirical data to provide a timely framework and ethical ecology of transformative learning detailing the challenges facing the approach and how it can be embedded at the levels of practice institutional ethos and partnership Transformative Learning through International Service Learning will appeal to academics researchers teachers instructors and leaders in the fields of service learning international education character education and in adult learning and education It will also be of interest to practitioners working in international education development education volunteering service learning and community engagement Rousseau and the Politics of Ambiguity Mira Morgenstern,2010-11-01 Violence and Meaning Lode Lauwaert,Laura Katherine Smith,Christian Sternad,2019-11-23 This edited collection explores the problem of violence from the vantage point of meaning Taking up the ambiguity of the word meaning the chapters analyse the manner in which violence affects and in some cases constitutes the meaningful structure of our lifeworld on individual social religious and conceptual levels The relationship between violence and meaning is multifaceted and is thus investigated from a variety of different perspectives within the continental tradition of philosophy including phenomenology post structuralism critical theory and psychoanalysis Divided into four parts the volume explores diverging meanings of the concept of violence as well as transcendent or religious violence a form of violence that takes place between humanity and the divine world Going on to investigate instances of immanent and secular violence which occur at the level of the group community or society the book concludes with an exploration of violence and meaning on the individual level violence at the level of the self or between particular persons With its focus on the manifold of relations between violence and meaning as well as its four part focus on conceptual transcendent immanent and individual violence the book is both multi directional and multi layered

Philosophy of Communication Ethics Ronald C. Arnett,Patricia Arneson,2014-10-08 Philosophy of Communication Ethics is a unique and timely contribution to the study of communication ethics This series of essays articulates unequivocally the intimate connection between philosophy of communication and communication ethics This scholarly volume assumes that there is a multiplicity of communication ethics What distinguishes one communication ethic from another is the philosophy of communication in which a particular ethic is grounded Philosophy of communication is the core ingredient for understanding the importance of and the difference between and among communication ethics The position assumed by this collection is consistent with Alasdair MacIntyre s insights on ethics In A Short History of Ethics he begins with one principal assertion philosophy is subversive If one cannot think philosophically one cannot question taken for granted assumptions In the case of communication ethics to fail to think philosophically is to miss the bias prejudice and assumptions that constitute a given communication ethic
