Selling All Commitment Consecrated Celibacy And Community In Catholic Religious Life:

Selling All Sandra Marie Schneiders, 2001 An examination of the internal reality of contemporary religious life particularly that of ministerial women religious in the first world setting through the focusing lenses of commitment consecrated celibacy and community      Religious life in a new millennium. Vol.2 : Selling all Sandra M. Schneiders, 2001      Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live      The Transformation of the Christian Churches in Western Europe Leo Kenis, Patrick Pasture, 2010 KADOC Studies on Religion Culture and Society Volume 6 Research continues to show that the Christian religion is gradually disappearing from the public cultural and social spheres in Western Europe Even on the individual level institutionalized religion is becoming increasingly marginalized New forms of religious life and community however may point toward a resurgence of Christian churches in postmodern Europe This book focuses on the complex transformations Christian churches in Western Europe have undergone since World War II In English and French      Reluctant Prophet Mike Deeb, Philippe Denis, Mark James, 2023-07-01 This book is a collection of essays in honour of Albert Nolan OP who died in October 2022 at the age of 88 Awarded the Order of Luthuli in Silver by then President Thabo Mbeki in 2003 for his life long dedication to the struggle for democracy human rights and justice and for challenging the religious dogma especially the theological justification for apartheid Nolan inspired a generation of Christian activists and theologians From 1973 1980 he served as national chaplain for the National Catholic Federation of Students NCFS and also until 1980 for the Catholic Students Association CASA which was formed in 1976 after black students began organising themselves into separate formations as Black Consciousness flourished In 1977 Nolan was instrumental in establishing Young Christian Students movement YCS in South Africa The contributions in this volume come from people around the world who knew him or worked with him over the years The contributions deal with his family life his time with the student movements his life as Dominican his periods as Dominican Provincial in Southern Africa his involvement with the ANC his work as a writer a publisher of a journal and life in his later years There are over 65 contributions along with a Foreword by Timothy Radcliffe OP a former Master General of the Dominicans Exploring Christian Spirituality Bruce H. Lescher, Elizabeth Liebert, 2006 Sandra Schneiders commands respect as one of the most significant and influential figures in the emergence of the study of Christian spirituality as an academic discipline as the focused and disciplined exploration of religious experience This book honors her contributions to the field by addressing issues that are emerging at the creative edges of the discipline In this volume colleagues and students of Dr Schneiders and other collaborators in the academic discipline of Christian spirituality examine crucial issues from their various disciplinary and methodological perspectives Questions of methodology address the status of spirituality as a discipline interdisciplinarity and self implication Other essays explore the edges of Christian spirituality and biblical spirituality gender studies the natural sciences nature writing the social sciences and interfaith issues This collection of essays will provoke students and scholars of Christian spirituality as well as practitioners to continue critically thinking discussing writing and practicing it Embracing Solitude Bernadette Flanagan, Beverly Lanzetta, 2013-11-12 Embracing Solitude focuses on the interior turn of monasticism and scans the Christian tradition for women who have made this turn in various epochs and circumstances New Monasticism is a movement assuming diverse forms in response to the turn to classical spiritual sources for guidance about living spiritual commitment with integrity and authenticity today Genuine spiritual seeking requires the cultivation of an inner disposition to return to the room of the heart The lessons explored in this book from women spiritual entrepreneurs across the centuries will benefit contemporary New Monastics both women and men The accounts will inspire challenge and guide those who follow in the footsteps of the renowned spiritual innovators profiled here Buying the Field Sandra Marie Schneiders, 2013 Habits of Change Carole G. Rogers, 2011-06 A collection of oral histories of American nuns capturing their experiences over the past fifty years Brings together women from more than forty different religious communities most of whom entered religious life before Vatican II Female Faith Practices Nicola Slee, Dawn Llewellyn, Kim Wasey, Lindsey Taylor-Guthartz, 2023-08-01 This book explores female faith practices drawing on qualitative research to consider how women navigate and create spiritual and religious practices The chapters cover Christian Muslim Jewish and Buddhist contexts as well as newer spiritual movements The contributors examine prayer and ritual practices and familial educational and ritual spaces and relationships in a variety of cultural settings The volume reflects on the ways in which women subvert traditional or patriarchal religious practices and spaces both problematising and expanding existing notions of religious practice It also touches on research itself as a form of spiritual and academic practice considering ways in which women challenge androcentric modes of research as well as ways in which the subject of research in this case female faith may challenge the researcher's convictions and practice Blending case studies with empirical research this book will be an outstanding resource to theologians and researchers interested in Practical Theology Gender Studies Sociology of Religion and Anthropology Suffering and the Vulnerable Rule of God Kathleen McManus, OP, 2022-04-25 How is the reign of God revealed through the suffering experience of women and the marginalized That is the question Kathleen McManus seeks to answer She employs the Lukan image of the bent over woman standing up straight as the paradigm for all who are marginalized because of gender sexual orientation or race Her viewpoint arises from encounters with individuals and communities who suffer exclusion negation diminishment and violence in relation to a patriarchal church in a still patriarchal world Engaging Edward Schillebeeckx's method of negative contrast experience McManus explores what may be known in the space of encounter between the institutional church and these suffering others and draws out latent possibilities for mutual conversion and transformation She reflects on the meaning of Schillebeeckx's insight into the superior power of God's defenseless vulnerability in creation and on the cross and asks what it might mean for the church to embody the vulnerable rule of God in its own structures doctrines symbols and rituals

Reinterpreting the Eucharist Anne F. Elvey, Carol Hogan, Kim Power, Claire Renkin, 2014-10-14 The Eucharist continues to be central to contemporary Christian religious tradition and to be the focus for a wide range of assumptions and disputes Chief amongst these disputes is the role of women in the theology and the ritual of the Eucharist Reinterpreting the Eucharist brings together a diverse range of voices with each using their own marginalized experience to explore other ways indigenous culture medieval and contemporary art social history and environmental ethics of engaging with the Eucharist Presenting new forms of theological and ethical engagement the book responds to the challenge of reconsidering the meaning of the Eucharist today Sacred Silence Donald B. Cozzens, 2004 Sacred Silence is a book about failed leadership in the Catholic Church Donald Cozzens looks at various challenges and the scandal gripping the Church and offers an historical overview of our church leadership He explains how the misplaced loyalties of those in leadership positions created the current crisis Cozzens clarifies why bishops and church authorities think the way they do and why the ecclesiastical system might be the real villain in the abuse scandal With compassion and understanding Cozzens answers the why of the present and past leadership failures and proposes a new direction Chapters in Part One Masks of Denial are Sacred Silence and Forms of Denial Chapters in Part Two Faces of Denial are Sacred Oaths Sacred Promises Voices of Women Religious Life and the Priesthood Abuse of Our Children Clerical Culture Gay Men in the Priesthood and Ministry and Leadership The chapter in Part Three Beyond Denial is Sacred Silence Sacred Speech Donald Cozzens PhD a priest and writer is author of two award winning titles Sacred Silence and The Changing Face of the Priesthood and editor of The Spirituality of the Diocesan Priest all published by Liturgical Press He is writer in residence at John Carroll University where he teaches in the religious studies department The Vows of Religious Life in a Secular Society Judith A. Merkle, 2025-08-21 This book investigates religious vows shedding light on the type of faith that can sustain humanity in secular times It examines the personal impact of religious life as well as its potential to foster a sense of completeness within society at large. Unbelief in today's society can be partially rooted in the shallowness of the sort of religion that the secular can abandon. Such a religion characterized as magical, shallow, illusory or rooted solely in external rituals lacks the depth required to thrive in a secular society. It fails to address the profound aspects of human existence: the authentic freedom of the spirit and the enduring obedience of faith. This study of religious vows uncovers their deeper meanings in light of these challenges. It invites us to consider whether religious life despite contemporary criticisms can be seen as touching wholeness. This book does not only delve into the theological foundations of these vows but also key areas which impact their understanding and living in new contexts. It surveys sociological landscapes and goes beyond to encompass shifts in science, psychology, theology. Religious life in this sense is part of the renewal of the church as well as an agent in it. By focusing briefly on each vow, Judith A. Merkle illustrates how religious life serves as a bridge connecting the secular and the sacred. It is a life focused on love of God and service of others which is a witness to the coming of Kingdom of God and values which truly matter in contemporary society.

Gold Tested in Fire Ronald D. Witherup, 2012-02-01. The recent Year for Priests focused considerable attention on the priesthood resulting in many books, articles, retreats, conferences and symposia. In Gold Tested in Fire, Ronald D. Witherup SS makes an important new contribution. Intersecting scriptural and theological context with lived pastoral insight, Witherup explores both classic and contemporary understandings of the priesthood, offers insights into the four pillars suggested for priestly formation, and looks at the charism of priests and the need for ongoing formation across a life span. Having engaged in priestly formation in seminaries for a number of years, Witherup moves beyond overly idealized or pietistic approaches to the presbyteral life to offer key insights on the challenges and rewards inherent in contemporary priestly ministry. Underlying his approach is the firm conviction that the present testing in the priesthood is a profound summons to a new Pentecost: an opportunity for the priesthood to be cleansed and remade and ultimately stronger.

Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence Rachel Starr, 2018-04-17. Domestic violence is a significant threat to women's survival. But Christian understandings of marriage often prevent women from resisting abusive relationships. Can the Church's teaching on marriage be reshaped so that it helps women to survive rather than encourage them to submit to their husband, bear their cross or sacrifice themselves for the sake of their marriage? Focusing on everyday practices of marriage in two very different contexts, Argentina and England, Reimagining Theologies of Marriage in Contexts of Domestic Violence considers how Christian understandings of marriage as a covenant or sacrament relate to the lived experience of marriage. Drawing on Augustine's notion of the goods of marriage and on belief in the saving power of marriage, this book suggests that only when the wellbeing of bodies is central to a marriage can it have the power to save.

New Feminist Christianity Mary E. Hunt, Diann L. Neu, 2012-01-01. Powerful insights from ministers, theologians, activists, leaders, artists and liturgists who are shaping the future. Christianity has been a source of the oppression of women as well as a resource for unleashing women's full humanity Feminist analysis and practice have recognized this Feminist Christianity is reshaping religious institutions and religious life in more holistic inclusive and justice focused ways from the Introduction Feminism has brought many changes to Christian religious practice From inclusive language and imagery about the Divine to an increase in the number of women ministers Christian worship will never be the same Yet even now there is a lack of substantive structural change in many churches and complacency within denominations The contributors to this book are the thought leaders who are shaping and being shaped by the emerging directions of feminist Christianity They speak from across the denominational spectrum and from the many diverse groups that make up the Christian community as it finds its place in a religiously pluralistic world Taken together their voices offer a starting point for building new models of religious life and worship Topics covered include feminist Theological Visions Scriptural Insights Ethical Agendas Liturgical and Artistic Frontiers Ministerial Challenges

Veiled Desires Maureen Sabine, 2013-08 Veiled Desires is the first full length study of the film nun to trace the shifting features of her screen representation in twelve or more postwar films that span a sixty year period It not only situates them within the changing history of modern women religious but employs an inter disciplinary perspective to argue that the film nun projects a complex and often vexed portrait of both traditional religious and modern female desires For Love of the Broken Body Julia Walsh, 2024-03-26 Julia Walsh gives me hope for a future with religious women changing the world She tells a story all her own but I felt her doubts questions and passion each step of the way Highly recommended Sister Helen Prejean author of Dead Man Walking and River of Fire A questioning novice nun s coming of age story Readers will be moved to reflect on the universal human experiences of being broken and the pull to be part of something bigger than themselves At the age of 25 just a month into her novitiate as a Franciscan Sister Julia Walsh fell from a cliff and became disfigured While working toward healing she felt pulled to religious community life but also toward unresolved feelings regarding her own sexuality identity and injustice For Love of the Broken Body is a story of pain questioning recovery and discovery What does it mean to exist as a broken body Why would a young woman dedicate herself to the Catholic Church to a life as a Franciscan Sister while others are leaving churches in droves The number of women choosing to enter religious life across the U S is shrinking rapidly so Walsh encounters a lot of curiosity about her choice In this memoir she writes honestly about feeling drawn to men and to sex as well as what it means in this age of self discovery and hook ups for a young woman physically broken and still very much attracted to the world to join a celibate religious community Conscience and Calling Anne E. Patrick, 2013-07-18 This volume probes the meaning and ethical implications of the powerful symbol of vocation from the vantage of contemporary Catholic women with particular attention to the experiences of women religious Intended as a follow up to Liberating Conscience Feminist Explorations in Catholic Moral Theology the new book will benefit many readers including Catholic leaders laity and religious as well as persons interested in Christian ethics and American religious history more generally The work treats twentieth century history and more recent developments including tensions between the

Vatican and progressive Catholics the development of lay ministries and the movement to ordain women deacons priests and bishops
