What Every Economics Student Needs to Know and Doesn't Get in the Usual Principles Text John Komlos, 2015-07-17 This short book explores a core group of 40 topics that tend to go unexplored in an Introductory Economics course Though not a replacement for an introductory text the work is intended as a supplement to provoke further thought and discussion by juxtaposing blackboard models of the economy with empirical observations Each chapter starts with a short refresher of standard neoclassical economic modelling before getting into real world economic life Komlos shows how misleading it can be to mechanically apply the perfect competition model in an oligopolistic environment where only an insignificant share of economic activity takes place in perfectly competitive conditions Most economics texts introduce the notion of oligopoly and differentiate it from the perfect competition model with its focus on price takers Komlos contends that oligopolies are price makers like monopolies and cause consumers and economies nearly as much harm Likewise most textbook authors eschew any distortions of market pricing by government but there is usually little discussion of the real impact of minimum wages which Komlos corrects The book is an affordable supplement for all basic economics courses or for anyone who wants to review the basic ideas of economics with clear eyes Israel in Comparative Perspective Michael N. Barnett, 2012-02-01 Because Israel is unique in many dimensions many social scientists consider it a historical peculiarity Neither East nor West developed nor undeveloped capitalist nor socialist Third World nor First World Israel has little in common with other countries and their historical experiences This book of original essays challenges the image of Israeli uniqueness and the status of the Israeli case and at the same time corrects some common misperceptions about the comparative method in general and case selection in particular At the same time it compares Israeli and Arab experiences and addresses critical issues in Middle Eastern studies To challenge the image of Israeli uniqueness the authors situate Israel's history in comparative context employ macrohistorical concepts both to reexamine the Israeli case and to build bridges between Israel and other historical experiences and use the Israeli case to reconsider existing social science theories Articles by Michael Barnett Yehezkal Dror Rebecca Kook Ian Lustick Joel Migdal Gershon Shafir Gabriel Sheffer Shibley Telhami and Mark Tessler and Ina Warriner Israel in Comparative Perspective demonstrates how our understanding of the region can be enriched by using models and theories developed in other regions to reexamine Israeli history

Serving Vulnerable and Marginalized Populations in Social and Educational Contexts Anies Al-Hroub, Sally Reis, Joseph Madaus, Itab Shuayb, 2024-04-26 There is evidence that the global COVID 19 crisis is exacerbating existing inequalities and marginalization of vulnerable groups including exceptional learners stateless street migrant and refugee children and youths and the limited use of frameworks of emergency planning with and for marginalized and at risk individuals These challenges are multi sectoral and intersecting and they require multi and interdisciplinary interventions to inform inclusive responses These issues include being at a greater risk of excluding vulnerable learners from gaining access to equitable education online remote and blended education Intersecting forms of discrimination such as gender socioeconomic and legal status further exacerbate the problem This has alerted us to examine the living conditions of marginalized and vulnerable populations around the globe and to reveal their experiences problems and needs from an educational perspective thus bringing insights into their vulnerabilities during the pandemic The Power of Experience Linda K. Wagner, 2012-10-12 The Power of Experience Principals Talk about School Improvement is a guide for principals both aspiring and established who hope to make a measurable difference in the achievement of all students and who strive to create a positive safe and student centered learning environment in their schools Gleaned from interviews with more than fifty principals who have been either instrumental in bringing a school to US Department of Education National Blue Ribbon status or who were identified as National Distinguished Principals by the National Association of Elementary School Principals this critical source draws on the wisdom and experience of school leaders from across the nation and from select locations around the world From Kenya to California Alaska to Wisconsin these principals reflect great diversity but unity of purpose reaching and teaching all children by building exceptional schools through exemplary leadership Whether new to the field or a veteran principal readers will benefit from the collective wisdom insight and experience of principals who have built remarkable schools designed to promote student achievement

Student Misconceptions and Errors in Physics and Mathematics Teresa Neidorf,Alka Arora,Ebru Erberber,Yemurai Tsokodayi,Thanh Mai,2019-10-30 This open access report explores the nature and extent of students misconceptions and misunderstandings related to core concepts in physics and mathematics and physics across grades four eight and 12 Twenty years of data from the IEA s Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study TIMSS and TIMSS Advanced assessments are analyzed specifically for five countries Italy Norway Russian Federation Slovenia and the United States who participated in all or almost all TIMSS and TIMSS Advanced assessments between 1995 and 2015 The report focuses on students understandings related to gravitational force in physics and linear equations in mathematics It identifies some specific misconceptions errors and misunderstandings demonstrated by the TIMSS Advanced grade 12 students for these core concepts and shows how these can be traced back to poor foundational development of these concepts in earlier grades Patterns in misconceptions and misunderstandings are reported by grade country and gender In addition specific misconceptions and misunderstandings are tracked over time using trend items administered in multiple assessment cycles The study and associated methodology may enable education systems to help identify specific needs in the curriculum improve inform instruction across grades and also raise possibilities for future TIMSS assessment design and reporting that may provide more diagnostic outcomes

Little Green Men, Meowing Nuns and Head-Hunting Panics Robert E. Bartholomew,2001-06-06 For a two week period in 1956 residents in the vicinity of Taipei Taiwan lived in fear that they would be the next victims of a crazed villain who was prowling the streets and slashing people at random with a razor or similar weapon At least 21 victims were reported during this period mostly women and children of low income and education A thorough investigation revealed however that five slashings were innocent false reports seven were self inflicted cuts eight were due to cuts rather than razors and one was complete fantasy This is one example of many cases of what has traditionally been called mass hysteria that are examined in this comprehensive study of human beings fear of the unknown Beginning with a concise history of mass hysteria and social delusions the author differentiates between the two and investigates mass hysteria in closed settings such as work and school and mass hysteria in communities with incidents such as gassings Pokemon illnesses in Japan and medieval dance crazes Also examined are collective delusions with information on five major types immediate threat symbolic scare mass wish fulfillment urban legends and mass panics The book ends with a discussion of major issues in the area of mass hysteria and a look toward the future of this intriguing subject
