Sickness W. Gallois, 2008-09-24 This book is the first comprehensive study of French medicine in nineteenth century Algeria It argues that the medicalization was a priority for colonial regimes but this goal was thwarted by ineffectual French medicine institutional rivalries and the manner in which medicine became a focus for the resistance of French domination and rule The Female Suffering Body Abir Hamdar, 2014-12-17 Although there is a history of rich complex and variegated representations of female illness in Western literature over the last two centuries the sick female body has traditionally remained outside the Arab literary imagination Hamdar takes on this historical absence in The Female Suffering Body by exploring how both literary and cultural perspectives on female physical illness and disability in the Arab world have transformed in the modern period In doing so she examines a range of both canonical and hitherto marginalized Arab writers including Mahmoud Taymur Yusuf al Sibai Ghassan Kanafani Naguib Mahfouz Ziyad Qassim Colette Khoury Hanan al Shaykh Alia Mamdouh Salwa Bakr Hassan Daoud and Betool Khedair Hamdar finds that over the course of sixty years female physical illness and disability has moved from the margins of Arabic literature where it was largely the subject of shame disgust or revulsion to the center as a new wave of female writers have sought to give voice to the female suffering body

Soft Force Ellen Anne McLarney, 2015-05-26 The unheralded contribution of women to Egypt's Islamist movement and how they talk about women's rights in Islamic terms In the decades leading up to the Arab Spring in 2011 when Hosni Mubarak's authoritarian regime was swept from power in Egypt Muslim women took a leading role in developing a robust Islamist presence in the country's public sphere Soft Force examines the writings and activism of these women including scholars preachers journalists critics actors and public intellectuals who envisioned an Islamic awakening in which women's rights and the family equality and emancipation were at the center Challenging Western conceptions of Muslim women as being oppressed by Islam Ellen McLarney shows how women used soft force a women's jihad characterized by nonviolent protest to oppose secular dictatorship and articulate a public sphere that was both Islamic and democratic McLarney draws on memoirs political essays sermons newspaper articles and other writings to explore how these women imagined the home and the family as sites of the free practice of religion in a climate where Islamists were under siege by the secular state While they seem to reinforce women's traditional roles in a male dominated society these Islamist writers also reoriented Islamist politics in domains coded as feminine putting women at the very forefront in imagining an Islamic polity Bold and insightful Soft Force transforms our understanding of women's rights women's liberation and women's equality in Egypt's Islamic revival

Covering key theoretical approaches and focusing on its style and language, Leaman introduces the Qur'an as an aesthetic object and as an organization. The book discusses the influence of the Qur'an on culture and covers its numerous interpreters from the modernizers and popularizers to the radicals. He presents a close reading of the Qur'an carefully and clearly, presenting a variety of philosophical interpretations verse by verse. Explaining what the philosopher is arguing, relating the argument to a particular verse, and providing the reader with the means to be part of the discussion, this section includes translated extracts from the text. A range of national backgrounds and different cultural and historic contexts spanning the classical and modern period, the Middle East, Europe, and North America. Philosophical interpretations ranging from the most Islamophobic to the extreme apologist. A variety of schools of thought and philosophers such as Peripatetic, Illuminist, and Sufi. Written with clarity and authority and showing the distinct ways a variety of thinkers have sought to understand the text. The Qur'an: A Philosophical Guide introduces readers to the value of interpreting the Qur'an philosophically.

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29. Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary, as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator, and figure, or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age, where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits, and autofiction, as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects, and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self-representation in non-Western cultures and on inter- and transcultural perspectives of the genre. The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross-references. The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies, students, as well as non-academic readers.

Islamism and Cultural Expression in the Arab World Abir Hamdar, Lindsey Moore, 2015-04-10. Whereas most studies of Islamism focus on politics and religious ideology, this book analyses the ways in which Islamism in the Arab world is defined, reflected, transmitted, and contested in a variety of creative and other cultural forms. It covers a range of contexts of production and reception from the early twentieth century to the present and with reference to cultural production in and/or about Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Egypt, Yemen, the Gulf, Lebanon, and Israel/Palestine. The material engaged with is produced in Arabic, English, and French and includes fiction, autobiography, feature films, television series, television reportage, the press, rap music, and video games. Throughout the book, highlights the multiple forms and contested interpretations of Islamism in the Arab world exploring trends and tensions in the ways Islamism is represented to primarily Arab audiences and complicating simplistic perspectives on this phenomenon The book considers repeated and idiosyncratic themes modes of characterisation motifs structures of feeling and forms of engagement in the context of an ongoing struggle for symbolic power in the region

Autobiographical Identities in Contemporary Arab Culture Valerie Anishchenkova, 2014-07-16 Over the last 40 years autobiography in Arab societies has moved away from exemplary life narratives and toward more unorthodox techniques such as erotic memoir writing postmodernist self fragmentation cinematographic self projection and blogging Valerie Anishchenkova argues that the Arabic autobiographical genre has evolved into a mobile unrestricted category arming authors with narrative tools to articulate their selfhood Reading works from Arab nations such as Egypt Iraq Morocco Syria and Lebanon Anishchenkova connects the century s rapid political and ideological developments to increasing autobiographical experimentation in Arabic works The immense scope of her study also forces consideration of film and online forms of self representation and offers a novel theoretical framework to these various modes of autobiographical cultural production

Religion, Mysticism and Modern Arabic Literature Reuven Snir, 2006 One of the significant phenomena in modern Arabic literature since the 1960s has been the use of mystical concepts figures and motifs for the expression of contemporary experiences philosophies and ideologies The book investigates this phenomenon mainly with regard to the creative poetic process and the use of literary masks It also deals with the complicated relationship between Arabic literature and Islam as well as with the literary activities by religious traditional circles In a welter of publications committed Muslim authors try to prove that there is no inherent contradiction between art and Islam and at the same time to lay the theoretical foundations for an Islamist poetics encompassing the various branches of literary production Within the secular canonical circles however these activities and texts are considered extremely marginal and none of the authors concerned has gained any canonical status The growing number of cases in which attempts at censorship on religious and moral grounds have been challenged prove also that Arabic literature has become more and more secular

The Arabian Nights and Orientalism Tetsuo Nishio, Yuriko Yamanaka, 2006-03-31 The Arabian Nights and Orientalism in Resonance was especially commissioned to celebrate the tercentenary of the first Western edition of The Arabian Nights This volume marries Western and Japanese perspectives on The Arabian Nights to provide a fascinating study of how this literary phenomenon brought about a unique and rich cross cultural fertilization The volume is divided into three sections the first part deals with narrative motifs and styles the second part examines the Nights from a comparative point of view and the third part unfolds the relationship between the written text and its pictorial representation Extensively illustrated throughout The Arabian Nights and Orientalism in Resonance will be of interest to scholars of the Middle East as well as anyone who has ever fallen under the spell of Scheherazade s stories
