Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Facing the Past Ann Beaglehole, 2015-12-16 In her first book A Small Price to Pay Ann Beaglehole traced the experiences of European refugees to New Zealand in the 1930s In Facing the Past she focuses on the lives of a younger generation the children of those wartime immigrants whose perceptions and experiences of both the old and the new world were very different from their parents At school in the neighbourhood or on the sportsfield many of them were painfully aware of being outsiders in a society unused to cultural diversity Yet their need to belong was frequently complicated by loyalty to the very different ideals and expectations of their parents As one of them comments I was getting two messages the always remember message and the start from now message Based on a wide range of interviews as well as documentary evidence from second generation refugees worldwide this is a fascinating account of the lives of immigrant children growing up in the decades between the 1940s and 1960s Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1951 Includes Part 1A Books and Part 1B Pamphlets Serials and Contributions to Periodicals The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry Blake Hobby, Alessandro Porco, Joseph Bathanti, 2025-02-05 Founded in 1933 near Asheville North Carolina Black Mountain College fostered experimentation and interdisciplinary learning placing the arts at the heart of its curriculum As such the college was home to and served as inspiration for many modern and postmodern American poets Some of them including Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Denise Levertov appeared in Donald Allen s groundbreaking New American Poetry anthology published in 1960 later becoming part of the American poetry canon However many writers affiliated with Black Mountain College have been overlooked The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry features over fifty poets selected with an expansive historical and critical lens including those not typically considered as poets such as composer John Cage architect Buckminster Fuller and visual artist Josef Albers Many years in the making this book presents the clearest picture of the poetry and poetics of Black Mountain College yet Fragments of Rationality Lester Faigley, 2014-07-12 In an insightful assessment of the study and teaching of writing against the larger theoretical political

International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets All in Our Places Carla Washburne Rensenbrink,2001 Through its rich and absorbing case studies this book portrays three elementary classrooms from a feminist perspective These classrooms demonstrate to readers the complexity of issues that teachers face over the challenges of gender and identity issues Life stories of the three teachers who are all feminists enrich the analysis and present diverse perspectives One teacher is white one is African American and one is a lesbian who has come out to her students and colleagues In different ways the three teachers face the challenges of teaching establishing rules developing relationships and working to transform the curriculum Their classrooms provide a context for the rethinking of contemporary issues complex educational problems and promising ideas for teaching practice Both experienced teachers and student teachers will find these studies sources for reflection and inspiration The Who's

Who of Nobel Prize Winners, 1901-2000 Louise S. Sherby,2001-12-30 The Who's Who of Nobel Prize Winners is a one stop source of detailed information on the men and women who earned the Nobel Prize during the 20th century Organized chronologically by prize each extensive article contains in depth information on the laureate's life and career as well as a selected list of his or her publications and biographical resources on the individual A concise commentary explains why the laureate received the award and summarizes the individual's other important achievements This completely updated edition also contains a history of the prize Four indexes distinguish this title from similar biographical references and enable researchers to search by name education nationality or citizenship and religion Encyclopedia of the New York School

Poets Terence Diggory,2009 An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School including John Ashbery who is often considered America's greatest living poet Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years Mother Reader Moyra Davey,2001-05-01 The intersection of motherhood and creative life is explored in these writings on mothering that turn the spotlight from the child to the mother herself Here in memoirs testimonials diaries essays and fiction mothers describe first hand the changes brought to their lives by pregnancy childbirth and mothering Many of the writers articulate difficult and socially unsanctioned maternal anger and ambivalence In Mother Reader motherhood is scrutinized for all its painful and illuminating subtleties and addressed with unconventional wisdom and candor What emerges is a sense of a community of writers speaking to and about each other out of a common experience and a compilation of extraordinary literature never before assembled in a single volume Feminist Literary Criticism Mary Eagleton,2014-06-06 Looks at the work of a range of critics including Elaine Showalter Kate Millett Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and the French feminists The critical approaches encompass Marxist feminism and contemporary critical theory as

R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Feminist Literacies, 1968-75 Kathryn Thoms Flannery,2010-10-01 In the late 1960s and early 1970s ordinary women affiliated with the women s movement were responsible for a veritable explosion of periodicals poetry and manifestos as well as performances designed to support do it yourself education and consciousness raising Kathryn Thoms Flannery discusses this outpouring and the group education brainstorming and creative activism it fostered as the manifestation of a feminist literacy quite separate from women s studies programs at universities or the large scale political workings of second wave feminism Seeking to break down traditional barriers such as the dichotomies of writer reader or student teacher these new works also forged polemical alternatives to the forms of argumentation traditionally used to silence women creating a space for fresh voices Feminist Literacies explores these truly radical feminist literary practices and pedagogies that flourished during a brief era of volatility and hope Marianne Moore and the Archives Jeff Westover,2024-05-09 Marianne Moore and the Archives features new archival research to explore the work of a major American modernist poet providing innovative approaches to Moore s career as it is documented in her archives in Philadelphia This volume is also the first that draws upon the Marianne Moore Digital Archive MMDA Scheming Women Cynthia Hogue,1995-09-14 Scheming Women charts a trajectory of American female poetic speakers from within a heterosexual lyric framework to bisexual and lesbian subjects outside that pervasive frame In close readings of Dickinson Moore H D and Rich the author makes a new argument about the division that permeates their poetic speaking subjects Postulating a revolutionary female subject she extends Julia Kristeva s theory of poetic language through an intertextual approach and shows that these relatively advantaged female poets destructure the very poetic power they are able to assert Hogue concludes that in not reproducing positions of dominance and privilege indicative of larger cultural trends these key poets exemplify important alternatives to class race and gender hierarchies persuasively demonstrating the promise of what she terms an ethical feminist poetic practice Roots and Routes: Poetics at New College of California Patrick James Dunagan,Marina Lazzara,Nicholas James Whittington,2020-10-06 Roots and Routes gathers essays talks interviews statements notes and other prose writings by poets who studied and or taught at the New College of California s Masters in

Poetics program over the course of its nearly 30 year existence The collection evokes a much needed anti hierarchical even anarchic pedagogy in poetry poetics and the literary arts and is part of a general reevaluation of standard higher education models on Creative Writing As such it will appeal to a wide range of students and scholars interested in America s recent literary history as well as to poets outside the academy and the general reader interested in US poetry and poetics

Gender and the Poetics of Excess Karen Jackson Ford, 2011-02-25 The argument posed in this analysis is that the poetic excesses of several major female poets excesses that have been typically regarded as flaws in their work are strategies for escaping the inhibiting and sometimes inimical conventions too often imposed on women writers The forms of excess vary with each poet but by conceiving of poetic excess in relation to literary decorum this study establishes a shared motivation for such a strategy Literary decorum is one instrument a culture employs to constrain its writers Perhaps it is the most effective because it is the least definable The excesses discussed here like the criteria of decorum against which they are perceived cannot be itemized as an immutable set of traits Though decorum and excess shift over time and in different cultures their relationship to one another remains strikingly stable Thus nineteenth century standards for women s writing and late twentieth century standards bear almost no relation Emily Dickinson s do not anticipate Gertrude Stein s or Sylvia Plath s or Ntozake Shange s Yet the charges of indecorousness leveled at these women poets repeat a fixed set of abstract grievances Dickinson Stein Plath Jayne Cortez and Shange all engage in a poetics of excess as a means of rejecting the limitations and conventions of female writing that the larger culture imposes on them In resisting conventions for feminine writing these poets developed radical new poetics yet their work was typically criticized or dismissed as excessive Thus Dickinson s form is classified as hysterical and her figures tortured Stein s works are called repetitive and nonsensical Plath s tone is accused of being at once virulent and confessional Cortez s poems violent and vulgar Shange s work vengeful and self righteous The publishing history of these poets demonstrates both the opposition to such an aesthetic and the necessity for it
