Comprehensive Multicultural Education in the 21st Century Brandi Hinnant-Crawford, C. Spencer Platt, Christopher Newman, Adriel A. Hilton, 2019-04-01 Multicultural education has become its own discipline developed on the shoulders of the work of giants who argued its merit during the attacks of opponents who believed assimilation was the purpose of state sponsored education In an age of rising populism and nationalism throughout the Western world again questioned is the merit of multicultural education In the shadows of Brexit and an America First agenda where migration patterns across the world have led to demographic shifts it is evident even in the richest countries in the world that gaps in opportunity and subsequently achievement still exist Disparities in achievement lead some to question whether multicultural education works and others to revert to old notions that ethnically and linguistically marginalized students are in fact deficient The scholars here believe in the untapped potential of all children and illuminate how educational structures have muffled the cultivation of that potential Contributors argue the goals of multicultural education have not been achieved in part due to the piecemeal application of its tenants The scholarship in this volume illustrates the state of multicultural education and articulates what educators committed to equity inclusion and a more just society must do to ensure the goals of multicultural education survive in the current age The authors of these chapters bridge foundational knowledge with contemporary understandings making the work both accessible for novices and beneficial for the authorities on multicultural education With the diverse cast of contributors and topics ranging from mathematics instruction to discipline practices this volume provides thoughtful discourse on issues of access access to curricular content access to opportunities to learn as well as impediments to access

Containing chapters that speak to discipline specific pedagogical practices the structures of schooling teacher education and research methodologies the collected work encourages scholars and practitioners to not be discouraged in the age of retrenchment

Challenges to Multicultural Education in the 21st Century Sigrid Luchtenberg,2003

Multiculturalism in Higher Education C. Spencer Platt,Adriel A. Hilton,Christopher Newman,Brandi Hinnant-Crawford,2020-03-01

As the educational landscape of America continues to evolve and diversify college faculty and administrators must be cutting edge in their approaches to create a variety of educational experiences with a greater level of multicultural cognizance Unlike in previous generations higher education in the 21st Century is no longer a luxury reserved for the elite and wealthy but is an increasing necessity for access to labor markets Community colleges and universities are working hard to respond to the demands of the labor market by attempting to provide skills for jobs that may not yet exist Colleges and universities should aim to make all of their students feel welcome and a part of the campus being committed to celebrating differences Additionally filling faculty seats with varied races cultures perspectives and identities will aid in providing mentors and role models everyone can relate to These are some of the vital steps toward building a campus community that helps students develop a sense of belonging that allows them to persist and thrive in college The scholarship in this volume illustrates the state of multicultural education on college and university campuses The authors bridge foundational knowledge with contemporary understandings making the work both accessible for novices and beneficial for the authorities on multicultural education This volume provides thoughtful discourse on issues ranging from the racial and ethnic diversity of the student and faculty bodies and important topics like disability issues to different educational contexts such as community colleges HBCUs and HSI institutions

The Promise of Multiculturalism George N. Katsiaficas,Teodros Kiros,1998

In personal narratives pedagogical interpretations and global and philosophical perspectives scholars from a broad range of disciplines and countries examine the concept of multiculturalism and it applies to autonomy identity and education Rather than portray a single version of the concept they provide an example of the rich debate among its proponents Some of the 16 papers which are not indexed comprised a special issue of New Political Science which is not identified
