Creating the Arabian Gulf Paul John Rich,2009-01-01 Whether called Arabian or Persian the Gulf is one of the most politically important regions of the world and its history is necessary in understanding the contemporary Middle East Paul Rich draws on previously closed archives to document the actual heritage of the area and dispel the myths showing that the influences of Britain and India are far deeper than commonly acknowledged and that the sheikhs are actually the creation of the British Raj The Arabian Frontier of the British Raj James Onley,2007-11-22 The Arabian Frontier of the British Raj tells the story behind one of the British Indian Empire s most forbidding frontiers Eastern Arabia Taking the shaikhdom of Bahrain as a case study James Onley reveals how heavily Britain s informal empire in the Gulf and other regions surrounding British India depended upon the assistance and support of local elites Postal Markings of Glasgow 1800 to 1900 - a postal history exhibit Alastair J. Gunn,2019-10-10 This book is mainly showing a FIP Vermeil award winning exhibit on the postal markings of Glasgow 1800 to 1900 It is designed to encourage the study of Glasgow postal history but it also provides a successful example of a postal exhibit which a reader should find useful as an example of how to write up their own exhibit

British Post Boxes Jack A. Gunn,Alastair J. Gunn, The Edinburgh and District Penny Post Alastair J. Gunn,Jack A. Gunn,2014 The Edinburgh and District Penny Post has basically been ignored in print since the work of Auckland and Bonar in 1972 This book provides a detailed award winning exhibit showcasing this area of long ignored British Scottish postal history it is the example to go with the theory of the Auckland Bonar text This book is important for those wanting to know more about the Edinburgh and District Penny Post and for those wishing to examine how an award winning exhibit is displayed Maximaphily of Ajman, Dubai, Fujeira, Ras al Khaima, Sharjah and Umm al Qiwain Alastair Gunn,

Mubarak Al-Sabah Souad M. Al-Sabah, 2014-05-15 Amidst political upheaval and the decline of the Ottoman Empire the State of Kuwait emerged as an independent country under British protection in 1899 with Sheikh Mubarak Al Sabah widely accredited as the instrument of its foundation But the path to power for Mubarak was not a simple or smooth one The author here presents an original perspective on the difficulties and controversies surrounding Mubarak's ascension With unparalleled insights and access to original sources she reveals the life personality and politics of a man who determined to secure a distinctive Kuwaiti state helped to shape the modern Middle East This biography provides a comprehensive overview of a time of significant political and social change in the Gulf when development diplomacy economics finance and trade were both routes to political independence and the perpetuation of British domination Remembered for his unyielding determination to boost the profile and wealth of Kuwait and establish his leadership at a turbulent time of regional war Mubarak engineered major change for Kuwait From the negotiations of the 1899 Anglo Kuwait Agreement during which Mubarak sought to outfox Lord Curzon and other British officials to his ambitions to tame tribal politics the author here presents a unique portrait of the man who transformed Kuwait from an Ottoman sub province to an independent state An

Archival Journey through the Qatar Peninsula Sue-Ann Harding, 2022-09-05 This book retrieves from the archives people places and perspectives normally overlooked to tell an original and expansive history of the Qatar Peninsula paying close attention to landscape and the natural world The arc of the book moves geographically through the landscape and chronologically through selected sources drawing on digitised maps manuscripts hydrographic surveys government records traveller accounts early photographs archaeological and ethnographic reports While these are standard sources recruited by Qatar to tell its own singular streamlined history this book is a subversive reading of those sources It braids together elusive and precarious stories difficult to find at risk of being lost and never before brought together into a single volume to write a more complicated story of place Through them we can reimagine a place that like many in the world works hard to control a limited set of stories about itself Readers who know something about Qatar will be surprised by the book's nuances and details Readers who know little or nothing will be drawn in to discover that even in the most out of the way and inhospitable places deserts are never empty Bahrain Through The Ages Shaikh Abdullah bin Khalid Al-Khalifa, Michael

Rice, 2014-10-17 First Published in 1993 This volume is based on the papers delivered at the historical sessions of the conference Bahrain Through the Ages organised in Bahrain on the initiative of the Government of the State of Bahrain in December 1983 The papers are substantially the texts of those delivered at the Conference adapted to printed form This volume is the companion to Bahrain Through the Ages the Archaeology World Insurance Peter Borscheid, Niels Viggo Haueter, 2012-08-23 Since the end of the eighteenth century the insurance industry has cast a safety net around the world first in the British Isles and then further afield irrespective of cultural political and ideological divides Unlike previous publications on insurance history which tend to discuss the development of national markets or individual companies this book focuses on the creation of networks across borders from the end of the eighteenth century to the present day Distinguished international economic historians draw upon examples from twenty countries across the continents to demonstrate how what was called the British system of risk management spread out in waves and describes the forces that made this possible first among them migration from Europe and international trade The book explores the economic political religious and cultural obstacles that blocked the path of this European invention not only religious law and traditional practices but above all protectionism inflation and political ideologies It examines the process of transformation through which modern insurance supplanted traditional forms of protection against perils and risks and was able to keep on offering new ways of dealing with the risks of modern life As well as discussing primary insurance it also considers the role played by reinsurance without which the losses arising out of today's natural and man made disasters would be immeasurably greater Finally taking modern day disaster scenarios as examples the book shows just what the limits of insurability are and what risks worldwide networks entail Gulf Post Mahbub Jamal Zahedi, 1994 Library Catalogue: Title index University of London.
