Praying for the Lost Sheep: Sheep Without a Shepherd Mikró Arnáki, 2023-06-29 How many people who are spiritually dead choose to accept Christ as their Lord and Savior How can people who have sin inscribed on their hearts seek after God How can people who have proud hearts humble themselves to confess their sins and ask forgiveness It is impossible for mankind but all things are possible for God This treatise on prayer for the lost addresses their great plight and how to offer fervently effective prayer with great confidence in the LORD God He alone can change hard hearts and draw them inexorably to Jesus Christ The key is praying through and claiming verses God has given regarding His changing of hearts Being born again is not by the will of the flesh nor the efforts of men Only by the will of God can lost people become found Christ said that sinful people do not seek for Him or choose Him but He seeks them and chooses them Discover the benefits of praying according to God s will and claiming His promises God uses the prayers of His loving and caring saints to work in the hearts of lost sheep Child of God be challenged to radically change your prayer life Within this work additional books on prayer are recommended to enlarge your sphere of influence and broaden your understanding of God's world. Be more in tune with God's heart for lost souls as you pray for all men. Be assured that God hears the fervent effectual prayers of His righteous people. Be greatly encouraged.

Beyond the Academy David Thang Moe, 2024-10-11 The term public theology was introduced by Martin E Marty in a 1974 article. Since then, scholarly discussions on public theology have become more popular in academic circles. This book, however, is about the invitation for moving beyond the academy. It provides two reasons for doing so. First, an overtly academic public theology is in crisis today. Although public theology may be flourishing in the academy, its relevance for real life is limited. Second, there is the ecclesial flourishing among grassroots Christian communities across Asia who witness to their lived faith in public and hidden life. Their voices are largely unheard due to the gaps between the academy and the church. This volume argues that we should consider their voices as key sources for developing a relevant lived Asian public theology. The author makes the case for reimagining the paradigm shifts in lived Asian public theology of religions and for bridging the unhappy gaps between the academic and grassroots voices.

THE PARABLES OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST John Sandbek, 2018-06-12 The parables of Jesus should not be studied as individual homilies or proverbs but instead as a series of prophetic installments wherein each parable reveals an aspect of his coming millennial kingdom. The focus of all his parables was the kingdom and encompassed four areas of revelation. Jesus was sent by his Father to reveal to man eternal truths, to redeem the lost sheep of the house of Israel, to expound on the prophets and the Law, and to preach of the gospel of the Kingdom. With these four anointings, Jesus assumed the three offices of Prophet, Priest, and King and used parables to conceal his message from those who would not listen or sought to destroy his ministry. As Prophet, he foretold of events imminent to his time and the destruction of Jerusalem. He became our High Priest to redeem his people and instruct them in righteousness. As King, his parables reveal to us the grandeur of his coming kingdom heretofore kept secret from man and set the metrics for ruling and reigning with him. The Parables of the Lord Jesus Christ: Prophet, Priest, King examines Jesus's parabolic teaching from these three ordinations and how each relates to Christ's future kingdom. Each parable is placed in context with surrounding events and the customs of the day and its imagery and symbolism explained using Scripture to deduce and interpret its meaning.
