Gunn,2009-11-01 We are interested in subverting the notion of type when it comes to biblical characters We prefer instead to see the characters in Ruth as complex people not merely built around a single primary trait like loyalty altruism or generosity People may exhibit conflicting traits and are often different people There is no reason why the same should not be true of literary characters Accordingly we have tried not to define the selves of this narrative too tightly and if we have over determined them we recognize that as a fault In short the characters of this story have far more diverse possibilities of life in the minds of readers than we can ever give them from the Introduction Eyewitness to Redemption: Ruth Mindy
