Redwood Railways A History Of The North:

Logging Railroads of Humboldt and Mendocino Counties Katy M. Tahja, 2013 Locomotive steam whistles echo no more in the forests of the north California coast A century ago Humboldt and Mendocino Counties had more than 40 railroads bringing logs out of the forest to mills at the water s edge Only one single railroad ever connected to the outside world and it too is gone One railroad survives as the Skunk Train in Mendocino County and it carries tourists today instead of lumber Redwood and tan oak bark were the two products moved by rail and very little else was hauled other than lumberjacks and an occasional picnic excursion for loggers families Economic depressions and the advent of trucking saw railroads vanish like a puff of steam from the landscape

Encyclopedia of Western Railroad History Donald B. Robertson, 1986 Distributed by the University of Nebraska Press for Caxton Press This book includes 368 pages of maps photographs and technical data on the history of railroading in California There are detailed reports on dates of operation mergers miles of track maximum grade gauge and rail weight It also includes the histories of thousands of locomotives
