West Virginia where he bought about two hundred young steers and drove them back to our home in the valley I must have been blessed with an unfailing memory over fifty years have passed since that my first trip from home yet I remember it vividly can recall conversations between my father and the sellers as they haggled over the cattle I remember the money gold and silver with which to pay for the steers was carried by my father in ordinary saddle bags thrown across his saddle As occasion demanded frequently the funds were carried by a negro man of ours and at night when among acquaintances the heavy saddle bags were thrown into a corner every one aware of their contents Reed Anthony.
