Merciful Journey Marsden Hordern, 2017-04-20 In 1939 Marsden Hordern's mother refused to sign the paper allowing her seventeen year old son to fight overseas with the Royal Australian Air Force I did not rear you to be killed in an aeroplane she said Join the navy He took her advice and in doing so determined his future In small patrol boats Fairmiles and a Harbour Defence Motor Launch he patrolled the shores of Japanese held territory assisted beleaguered commandos in Timor and was finally caught up in the drama of collecting Japanese prisoners of war from the islands A Merciful Journey presents a vivid and compelling account of Hordern's life from a happy childhood growing up in Sydney during the Great Depression to his years serving in the Royal Australian Navy from 1942 to 1947 Drawing on the letters and journals he wrote at the time Hordern engagingly recounts his triumphs and disasters as a naval officer detailing his rise from a young and callow sub lieutenant to a lieutenant in command of his own ship He recalls his hopes and fears and in the face of the horrors of war

reveals an appealing enthusiasm for new experiences and a growing love of the sea A Merciful Journey is a delightful memoir of a young man's coming of age in wartime Four Brothers in the Pacific War Chris Pratt, 2022-02-21 Dave Ray Morris and Alex Rohrlach were Australian Lutherans of German descent who served in the Australian Army and Navy in the Pacific during World War Two In a fascinating biography of the brothers Chris Pratt chronicles the events of their lives before during and in the aftermath of war Dave a Lutheran missionary in New Guinea captained his mission schooner to rescue defeated Australian soldiers from New Britain in the opening months of the war Ray served in a motorised infantry unit before enduring a year in an isolated malarial outpost in Dutch New Guinea Morris struggled through two amphibious landings in Japanese occupied Borneo Alex survived kamikaze attacks and a battle with a Japanese fleet in the Philippines to witness from an Australian heavy cruiser the signing of the Japanese surrender in Tokyo Bay Included are historical maps and photographs provided by the family Hospital Ships Rupert Goodman, 2016-01-08 The story of hospital ships is a fascinating one indeed about which little has been written except for isolated tragedies such as the sinking of the Centaur off the Australian coast in 1943 Australian Transport Literature Information System ,1983 Memoirs of the Queensland Museum ,2004 Vessel-Source Pollution and Coastal State Jurisdiction Erik Franckx, 2021-09-06 After seven years of work the Committee on Coastal State Jurisdiction Relating to Marine Pollution of the International Law Association concluded its work by submitting its final report for discussion at the occasion of the London conference July 25 29 2000 This book brings together the different official reports submitted by this Committee at the 1996 Helsinki 1998 Taipei and 2000 London conferences as well as some preparatory documents necessary for the correct understanding of these just mentioned reports The Committee concentrated its work on vessel source pollution and made it a central objective of its work to produce results which could facilitate the interpretation of the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea During its work it became moreover apparent that an accurate assessment of state practice proved more than once problematic either because of problems relating to interpretation or simply because the basic information was missing For that reason the present book contains a special section where different members of the Committee prepared detailed national reports written according to a strict outline worked out for this purpose in order to shed additional light on the specific issues dealt with by the Committee Together with the conclusions arrived at by the Committee these additional national reports represent a valuable statement of the present day status iuris questionis Memoirs of the Queensland Museum Queensland Museum, 1993 The Bulletin ,1982-07 Who's who of Australian Writers ,1995 Managing Marine Environments R. A. Kenchington, 1990 This text introduces readers to contemporary issues of multiple use planning and management of marine environments and natural resources It draws heavily on the experience of the first ten years of Australia's Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Key issues of marine environment and resource management are discussed The author points out the advantages and limitations of the multiple use management approach to marine environment issues

Requirements for implementation and co ordination of national regional and international marine approaches to multiple use management are also suggested Technical Papers, 7th Australian Cartographic Conference ,1988 APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service ,1982 Vol for 1963 includes section Current Australian serials a subject list Marine Pollution Laws of the Australasian Region M.
