Daily Painting Carol Marine, 2014-11-04 A unique system for jump starting artistic creativity encouraging experimentation and growth and increasing sales for artists of all levels from novices to professionals Have you landed in a frustrating rut Are you having trouble selling paintings in galleries getting bogged down by projects you can't seem to finish or abandon or finding excuses to avoid working in the studio Author Carol Marine knows exactly how you feel she herself suffered from painter's block until she discovered daily painting The idea is simple do art usually small often how often is up to you and if you'd like post and sell it online Soon you'll find that your block dissolves and your re-painting work you love and more of it than you ever thought possible With her encouraging tone and useful exercises Marine teaches you to Master composition and value Become confident in any medium including oil painting acrylic painting watercolors and other media Choose subjects wisely Stay fresh and loose Photograph post and sell your art online Become connected to the growing movement of daily painters around the world Science for All Robert Brown (M.A., Ph.D.), 1877 How to Draw Choppers Like a Pro Thom Taylor, 2005 Sunflower Sky Jack Hayes, 2017-08-25 Sunflower Sky is the third concluding volume of the trilogy begun with Crow on the Wire continued with The High Lonesome Sound This volume is also a poetic journal covering the summer early fall mostly set in Portland Oregon Although Sunflower Sky is connected to the earlier volumes each can be read enjoyed separately There's a distinct focus on time mortality the respite found in love compassion in these poems The Monthly Evening Sky Map, 1909 Paul Cézanne 1839-1906 Anna Barskaya, Yevgenia Georgievskaya, 2011-07-01 Since his death 200 years ago Cézanne has become the most famous painter of the nineteenth century He was born in Aix-en-Provence in 1839 and the happiest period of his life was his early youth in Provence in company with Emile Zola another Italian Following Zola's example Cézanne went to Paris in his twenty-first year During the Franco-Prussian war he deserted the military dividing his time between open-air painting and the studio He said to Vollard an art dealer I'm only a painter Parisian wit gives me a pain Painting nudes on the banks of the Arc a river near Aix is all I could ask for Encouraged by Renoir one of the first to appreciate him he exhibited with the impressionists in 1874 and in 1877 He was received with derision which deeply hurt him Cézanne's ambition in his own words was to make out of Impressionism something as solid and durable as the paintings of the museums His aim was to achieve the monumental in a modern language of glowing vibrating tones Cézanne wanted to retain the natural colour of an object and to harmonise it with the various influences of light and shade trying to destroy it to work out a scale of tones expressing the mass and character of the form Cézanne loved to paint fruit because it afforded him obedient models and he was a slow worker He did not intend to simply copy an apple He kept the dominant colour and the character of the fruit but heightened the emotional appeal of the form by a scheme of rich and concordant tones In his paintings of still life he is a master His fruit and vegetable compositions are truly dramatic they have the weight the nobility the style of immortal forms No other painter ever brought to a red apple a conviction so heated sympathy so genuinely spiritual or an observation so protracted No other painter of equal ability ever reserved for still life his strongest impulses Cézanne restored to painting the pre-eminence of knowledge the most essential quality to all creative effort The death of his father in 1886 made him a rich man but he made no change in his abstemious mode of living Soon afterwards Cézanne retired permanently to his estate in Provence He was probably the loneliest of painters of his day At times a curious melancholy attacked him a black hopelessness He grew more savage and exacting destroying canvases throwing them out of his studio into the trees abandoning them in the fields and giving them to his son to cut into puzzles or to the people of Aix At the beginning of the century when Vollard arrived in Provence with intentions of buying on speculation all the C zannes he could get hold of the peasantry hearing that a fool from Paris was actually handing out money for old linen produced from barns a considerable number of still lifes and landscapes The old master of Aix was overcome with joy but recognition came too late In 1906 he died from a fever contracted while painting in a downpour of rain
