Reflections For Organ:

The Organ As a Mirror of Its Time : North European Reflections, 1610-2000 Text & CD University of Rochester Kerala J. Snyder Professor Emerita of Musicology at The Eastman School of Music, 2002-06-28 Because it has always represented a rich collaboration of the music art architecture handicraft and science of its day the organ more than any other instrument continues to reflect the spirit of the age in which it was built The Organ as a Mirror of its Time the first book to consider this instrument s historical and cultural significance reflects the efforts of twenty leading scholars of the organ The book chronicles the history of six organs in Scandinavia and Northern Germany at least one specimen for every century from 1600 to the present By considering their original contexts and their histories since they were built as well as the extraordinary coincidences that link them together the book offers a unique perspective on the cultural history of northern Europe A CD with appropriate repertoire played on each of the six instruments accompanies the book Reflecties Carel Brons, 1966

Sadian Reflections Yoav Rinon, 2005 This study encompasses many aspects of Sade s work the role of the gaze and its importance food in Sade s world connections between literary genres and the Sadian worldview interrelations of writing and masturbation the link between sexuality and philosophy especially in homosexual and lesbian contexts the Sadian chain of violence liberty and happiness and finally a discussion of love and its place in the savage and free world that Sade tried to create In addition the book bridges the gap between Sade s world and ours in a discussion of works by Lacan and Derrida thus expressing hidden strata of Sadian notions and their critical role in shaping and constructing contemporary thought

BOOK JACKET Reflections James O. Jeffers, 2003-06-29 The book chronicles James Jeffers life from about age two but it purposefully falls short of being either memoirs or autobiography With this work he has attempted to simply record for his children grandchildren and others the wonderful events of his life as he experienced them The book covers thousands of miles of travel along with living and working with peoples of differing cultures on three continents and in the Caribbean five foreign countries and fifteen different states spanning the nation from coast to coast to coast Organ Transplantation in

Religious, Ethical, and Social Context William DeLong, 2014-01-14 Enter the world of organ transplantation and develop a new understanding of processes and techniques for working effectively with patients in this increasing medical population This multidisciplinary overview of organ transplantation contains chapters by major figures in the medical arena internationally known bioethics writers and experienced chaplains from the clinical setting of transplantation as well as respected pastoral theologians The authors who include Art Caplan Donald Capps and Jack Copeland explain transplantation completely for the nonmedical person and delve into the myriad ethical and religious issues and controversies surrounding organ donation and transplantation Enlightening chapters clarify issues and help readers better understand the transplantation process making them more effective in their work with transplant patients Organ Transplantation in Religious Ethical and Social Context is divided into three sections The first emphasizes transplantation as a team effort

Chapters focus on the various roles of chaplains and other team members Section two addresses ethical questions which arise from transplantation and organ donation and includes interfaith perspectives The third section is dedicated to theological and pastoral views concerning transplantation Some specific topics discussed in this book include a surgeon's perspective of the role of the chaplain influence of psychosocial factors in the heart transplantation decision process ministry to organ recipients and their families the special relationship between the transplant coordinator and the transplant patient Catholic and interfaith perspectives on organ donation using the Psalms as a pastoral resource with transplant patients Hospital chaplains transplant social workers transplant coordinators and other professionals interested or involved in the process of organ transplantation will find this book to be full of interesting and thought provoking insights and information
