The Pillars of the House; Or, Under Wode, Under Rode Charlotte Mary Yonge,1893 Seneca's Characters Erica M. Bexley,2022-07-07 Seneca s Characters addresses one of the most enduring and least theorised elements of literature fictional character and its relationship to actual human selfhood Where does the boundary between character and person lie While the characters we encounter in texts are obviously not real people they still possess person like qualities that stimulate our attention and engagement How is this relationship formulated in contexts of theatrical performance where characters are set in motion by actual people actual bodies and voices This book addresses such questions by focusing on issues of coherence imitation appearance and autonomous action It argues for the plays sophisticated treatment of character their acknowledgement of its purely fictional ontology alongside deep and often dark appreciation of its quasi human qualities Seneca s Characters offers a fresh perspective on the playwright s powerful tragic aesthetics that will stimulate scholars and students alike

Breakfast Chaos of Love and Trust Nigel Alan Barry Jordan,2024-03-01 A black Holden Caulfield reminisces on a life filled with emotional turmoil from a childhood scarred by hardship to an adulthood tangled in complex relationships He reflects on the systemic barriers and coping mechanisms that coloured his world across decades the pain and vulnerability trust issues and raw humanity There was love yet it never fully conquered the chaos This fictional memoir gives words to the underrepresented following an underdog who refuses to give up It explores the immigrant experience of working tirelessly to overcome discrimination The narrator clings to his father s advice to study and gain knowledge as power As he pets his bulldogs he contemplates a past that shaped him for better or worse This is the story of one man s perseverance through life s unpredictable journey The Almanac of British Politics Byron Criddle,2005-08-19 This new edition of The Almanac of British Politics has been thoroughly revised and updated since the second successive Labour election victory in 2001 It is firmly established as the definitive guide to the political map of the United Kingdom covering in detail each of the constituencies sending representatives to the House of Commons It also contains insightful biographical sketches of every single Member of Parliament The Almanac gives a comprehensive seat by seat analysis of all parliamentary constituencies describing their social economic and political characteristics This edition also includes new statistics for each seat including electorate and turnout average property values per constituency unemployment premature mortality index and rank order financial deprivation This is the essential reference work on British politics for students academics journalists and psephologists Monthly Packet ,1872 The Churchman ,1903 On Rest and Pain John Hilton,1879 The Trial of Lord Cochrane James Beresford Atlay,1897 Dictionary of National Biography ,1889 The Dictionary of National Biography, Founded in 1882 by George Smith ,1922 Dictionary of national biography, ed. by L. Stephen (and S. Lee). [With] Suppl. 3 vols.;Index and epitome [and] Errata Dictionary,1889 Recollections of a Long Life John Stoughton,2021-05-18 In Recollections of a Long Life John Stoughton offers a richly textured memoir that weaves together personal anecdotes social observations and reflections on theological and philosophical themes Written in a candid yet elegant manner Stoughton s narrative traverses various epochs of his existence illustrating the profound shifts in 19th century British society His eloquent prose not only captures the zeitgeist of his era but also invites readers to contemplate their own life experiences amid the broader tapestry of history The work is interspersed with insights derived from his religious vocation infusing a spiritual dimension that enriches the memoir s significance in both literary and theological contexts Stoughton a prominent figure in the Victorian ecclesiastical landscape was deeply influenced by the religious and intellectual currents of his time His background as a minister and scholar not only shaped his worldview but also fostered a deep commitment to exploring the intersections of faith culture and personal experience Through this autobiography he reflects on his journey marked by an enduring quest for truth and understanding which undoubtedly informs the thoughtful and introspective tone of the text Recollections of a Long Life is an essential read for those interested in the complexities of human experience against the backdrop of history and faith Its lyrical style and profound insights make it a valuable addition to both memoir literature and theological discourse Readers seeking a deep reflective exploration of life through the eyes of a committed thinker will find Stoughton s work both enlightening and inspiring The Spectator ,1893 Ireland, France, and the Atlantic in a Time of War Thomas M. Truxes,2017-04-21 In March 1757 early in the Seven Years War a British privateer intercepted an Irish ship the Two Sisters of Dublin as it returned home from Bordeaux with a cargo of wine and French luxury goods Amongst the cargo seized were 125 letters from members of the Irish expatriate community which were to lay undisturbed in the British archives for the next 250 years Re discovered in 2011 by Dr Truxes this cache of mostly unopened letters provides a colorful intimate and revealing glimpse into the lives of ordinary people caught up in momentous events Taking this correspondence published by the British Academy in 2013 as a shared starting point the ten essays in this volume are not so much about the Bordeaux Dublin letters themselves but rather reflect upon themes perspectives and questions embedded within the mail of ordinary men women and children cut off from home by war The volume s

introduction situates these essays within a broad Atlantic context allowing the succeeding chapters to explore a range of topics at the cutting edge of early modern British and Irish historical scholarship including women in the early modern world the consequences of war across all classes in society the eighteenth century penal laws and their impact and Irish expatriate communities on the European continent Leavening these broad themes with the personal snapshots of life provided by the Bordeaux Dublin letters this edited collection enlarges complicates and challenges our understanding of the mid eighteenth century Atlantic world Vintage and Vogue Kelly Fireside, Tana Fireside, 2023-06-13 Wealthy tech whiz Sena Abrigo has deep roots in the Arizona Mexico borderlands But when she marches into Owen Station on red soled stilettos like she just walked off the cover of Vogue she plans to pull this little town into the future And she is used to getting exactly what she wants First she has to get past Hazel Butler The proud granddaughter of Irish immigrant miners Hazel loves her job at the library her spooky cat her opinionated friends vintage Mary Janes and the little house she inherited And she is determined to protect the historic legacy of her town In spite of their differences and because of them sparks fly and love isn't far behind But Sena's arrival doesn't just turn Hazel's life upside down in the most wonderful of ways It sets off an explosive series of events exposing an ugly truth lying just beneath the town's surface threatening their chance at love and their lives On My Way There Jaycie Morrison, 2023-06-13 Maxine Terrell lurches into adulthood madly in love with a woman and her child Unfortunately Daphne Polk is someone else's wife and her daughter Lena is someone else's child But Daphne's been there for her ever since Max and her father weathered a terrible tragedy one that's still whispered about in their small Texas town After years of hope and heartbreak and too many lies to count Max seems poised to settle for the various friends with benefits she encounters Unexpectedly wealthy after her father's death and emotionally adrift with no idea what she really wants from life Max decides to take to the road and signs up to become a truck driver During her training in Lubbock she meets Trillian Thrill and manages to screw things up from the start After another chance encounter and a sweet kiss she can't forget Max begins to rethink not only what but who she really wants As Max traverses the open road her journey of impossible love loss and courage mirrors her voyage of self discovery But before she can look to the future she must come to terms with the history she'd rather forget
