Raining Love & Murder Edie Ramer,2016-06-21 The Darien Chronicles: Objects for Reflection, A Journey into Love: Part Three—Moving Into the Light Steven Howard,2019-01-24 Born into a broken home Darien started life on the wrong foot Luckily he finds his spirit guide in Sundeep a friend protector and teacher who has been with Darien since before his birth Darien struggles with an inner war that plunges him into addiction as he eventually approaches a point of no return Desperate for healing he makes a confession Darien confronts his boss and admits to his alcoholism Despite his hesitation in getting better he is determined to fix his broken life This is a journey into recovery as Darien strives to live without doubt He slowly opens up to spiritual truths and a renewed awareness of Sundeep who guides him to new understandings In order to be free of addiction Darien must face buried fears and defy his need for alcohol and drugs to mask those fears Slowly he discovers the healing wonders of shedding light on darkness He transforms as he aligns his life with his true identity and fulfills his soul's purpose even beyond this earthly realm Reflections in Place Donna Deyhle,2009-10-15 Woven together in Donna Deyhle's ethnohistory are three generations and twenty five years of friendship interviews and rich experience with Navajo women Through a skillful blending of sources Deyhle illuminates the devastating cultural consequences of racial stereotyping in the context of education Longstanding racial tension in southeastern Utah frames this cross generational set of portraits that together depict all aspects of this specifically American Indian struggle Deyhle cites the lefthanded compliment Navajos work well with their hands which she indicates represents the limiting and all too common appraisal of American Indian learning potential that she vehemently disputes and seeks to disprove As a recognized authority on the subject qualified by multiple degrees in racial and American Indian studies Deyhle is able to chronicle the lives and survivance of three Navajo women in a way that is simultaneously ethnographic and moving Her critique of the U S education system s underlying yet very real tendency toward structural discrimination takes shape in elegant prose that moves freely into and out of time and place The combination of substantive sources and touching personal experience forms a profound and enduring narrative of critical and current importance While this book stands as a powerful contribution to American Indian studies its compelling human elements will extend its appeal to anyone concerned with the ongoing plight of American Indians in the education system      Reflection Andrew Neiderman,2023-05-09 In this suspense novel by the bestselling author of The Devil s Advocate a Catskills realtor s life begins to unravel after discovering her doppelganger
