Educational Theory in the 21st Century Yusuf Alpaydın,Cihad Demirli,2022-05-30 This open access book reviews the effects of the twenty first century scientific technological and social developments on the educational theory The first part handles the subject focusing on technology and educational philosophy In the second part the implications of new human and social conceptions towards the education paradigms are examined In the chapters of the last part of the book more practical dimensions of education are discussed Transforming school designs school management learning teaching approaches and teacher competencies are discussed in the context of broader social cultural and technological changes Higher Education and the Challenge of Sustainability Peter Blaze Corcoran,Arjen E.J. Wals,2007-05-08 Sustainability challenges universities around the world to rethink their missions and to re structure their courses research programs and life on campus Graduates are increasingly exposed to notions of sustainability which are emotionally politically ethically and scientifically charged They must be able to deal with conflicting norms and values uncertain outcomes and futures and a changing knowledge base At the same time they will need to be able to contextualize knowledge in an increasingly globalized society This book provides a variety of valuable theoretical and practical resources for students teachers researchers and administrators who seek to integrate sustainability in higher education Sustainability is not only explored as both an outcome and a process of learning but as a catalyst for educational change and institutional innovation The book raises the various problematics related to this inchoate field and provides an intellectual history and critical assessment of the prospects for institutionalizing sustainability in higher education Inspiring Faith in Schools Marius Felderhof,2016-05-23 Inspiring Faith in Schools addresses the privileging of secularism that appears to affect RE in countries influenced by modern western thought The authors argue that a more engaging form of RE would emerge if religious life were to inhabit centre stage Currently religious faith is made to hover in the wings awaiting the call to face the inquisitorial challenge of the modern day enquirer The consequent relationship between pupil and the Divine as the purpose of study is then already intrinsically irreligious as indicated in the Book of Job by putting God in the dock whereas it is the pupil who should be cross examining his or her life What are the ways of exciting and engaging the young so that they begin to entertain the possibility of religious life as a genuine option for themselves Leading scholars in philosophy and theology from the UK Australia Canada and the USA come together to address these questions together with RE experts Marius Felderhof writes an Afterword summing up the challenges faced by such a re visioning of RE

Understanding Cities Alexander R. Cuthbert, 2011 Understanding Cities is richly textured complex and challenging It creates the vital link between urban design theory and praxis and opens the required methodological gateway to a new and unified field of urban design Using spatial political economy as his most important reference point Alexander Cuthbert both interrogates and challenges mainstream urban design and provides an alternative and viable comprehensive framework for a new synthesis He rejects the idea of yet another theory in urban design and chooses instead to construct the necessary intellectual and conceptual scaffolding for what he terms The New Urban Design Building both on Michel de Certeau's concept of heterology thinking about thinking and on the framework of his previous books Designing Cities and The Form of Cities Cuthbert uses his prior adopted framework history philosophy politics culture gender environment aesthetics typologies and pragmatics to create three integrated texts Overall the trilogy allows a new field of urban design to emerge Pre existing and new knowledge are integrated across all three volumes of which Understanding Cities is the culminating text

The University of Crisis, 2021-10-18 This book began as a collection of papers presented at a conference entitled The Future Business of Higher Education held at Oxford University The contributions range from those who grapple with the question of what a University should do through those concerned with making Higher Education more efficient to some who were already planning for some technologically inevitable virtual future These disparate leanings led to inevitable conflict and a challenge in editing into book form In compiling and editing the chapters the editor has tried to preserve some of the diversity of opinion presented at Oxford By doing so it is apparent that some individual contributors would find unacceptable much of what others in the book have to say The traditionalists clash with the modernizers the Left with the Right Public with Private and the theorists with the practitioners It is this very divergence of philosophical opinion as to the future of Higher Education that makes this book such an enjoyable and stimulating read Epistemologies and Ethics in Adult Education and Lifelong Learning Richard G. Bagnall, Steven Hodge, 2022-02-17 This book presents and advocates for a framework of competing epistemologies and conceptions of ethics as a way of understanding modernist lifelong learning These epistemologies are grounded in a recognition of the normative nature of knowledge that informs lifelong learning each being framed by a different account of the sort of knowledge that is most valued and therefore foregrounded in lifelong learning policy provision and engagement informed by the epistemology Each epistemology is also characterised by its constituent conception of ethics Four such epistemologies and conceptions of ethics are here recognised as having been important in the lifelong learning movement to date disciplinary developmental emancipatory and design The authors argue that assumptions about knowledge and moral positions constitute a powerful but not well understood feature of such arguments awareness of these assumptions and positions could serve to powerfully advance the overall understanding of what is at stake in lifelong learning and adult education at all levels Being an Academic Joëlle Fanghanel,2011-08-26

Susan Ellsmore, 2005 In the world of screen culture teachers are unfailingly represented as charismatic figures able to tackle the deprivations their students face and to form special relationships with them that none of their staff colleagues can But how realistic are such representations and more importantly what do real world teachers think about their reel world counterparts This book takes a closer look at the charismatic teacher as portrayed in films such as Blackboard Jungle To Sir With Love and Dead Poets Society and in television series such as Teachers It considers the eccentric resilient or romantic but always charismatic teacher in inner city schools private or public schools and contrasts them with the views of practising teachers Carry on Teachers will be essential to media and cultural studies courses but is designed as much for teachers and those coming into the profession      Doing Foucault in Early Childhood Studies Glenda MacNaughton, 2005-04-29 Using case studies and real situations this book highlights the important contribution that Foucault and other post structural theorists can make to research and practice in early childhood services      The Blackwell Guide to the Philosophy of Education Nigel Blake, Paul Smeyers, Richard D.
