Letters to the Field Boni Wozolek, Walter S. Gershon, Roland Mitchell, 2024-12-30 Letters to the Field Curriculum Scholars Stories for Future Generations encapsulates a generation of scholars who revitalized the field of Curriculum Studies across North America in the mid 1970s as well as the generations of scholars who immediately followed all of whom are now themselves senior scholars Rather than another edited work of reprints or new monographs this volume seeks to do something special by providing an opportunity for this group of scholars to speak to their field about understandings they believe to be of significance The strength of this book generally resides in two overarching factors First there is the depth and strength of this well rounded highly regarded group of scholars whose work speaks to the heart of the interdisciplinary nature of curriculum studies and curriculum theorizing Second as you might imagine this is a significant moment in the United States when the very foundation of curriculum theory critical inquiry and often an engagement with questions of race queerness disability and the like continues to be under attack in K 12 schools and universities across the United States Contributors speak to the foundations of the field and the contemporary challenges that the field and schools of education more broadly must survive Contributions to this important work are five to seven handwritten or in the case of scholars who are unable to write typed pages There are also chapters that have accompanying photos and drawings The reproduction of actual letters in the book lend authenticity and will appeal to readers by giving an intimate view into the thoughts and wishes of these scholars We also understand that similar to the challenge folks might face when handwriting a document some writing might not be legible to all readers Therefore stable QR codes and or hyperlinks to typed versions of handwritten chapters are included so that readers can easily look at typed versions alongside the handwritten work online Letters to the Field makes an invaluable contribution to Curriculum Studies By providing a history of the rationale used to revitalize the field it will prove a valuable addition to the libraries of educators in a variety of disciplines
