To anyone at all acquainted with the place which the Dutch Reformed Church in London has occupied during the centuries it will not cause surprise to hear that I hesitated for a moment before accepting the invitation from its Council to relate the history of the Church on the occasion of its four hundredth anniversary Not much time was left and the material was voluminous Only few church communities possess such a wealth of written documents bearing on their past history or have been the centre to the same extent of so many varied activities However there were considerations on the other side which made me decide to undertake the work The extensive archives of the Church are well arranged and well preserved The most important part the voluminous correspondence consisting mainly of letters addressed to the Church Council has been made available in a highly meritorious manner by J H Hessels publication Ec clesiae LondinoBatavae Archivum Only a small part of the often very detailed minutes of the Council meetings has been published but these pUblications by Dr A Kuyper and Dr A A van Schelven cover two very important periods in the history of the Church In addition there are the pUblications of the Marnix Society viz Ruytinck s Gheschiedenissen Hi story and its sequels and the Acta of the Colloquia of the Dutch church communities in England Early History of the Reformed Church in Pennsylvania Daniel Miller,1906 Journal of the United Reformed Church History Society United Reformed Church History Society,1992 The Patristic Roots of Reformed Worship Hughes Oliphant Old,2023-12-29 The first part of this work describes the development of Reformed Worship from 1500 1542 The story begins with liturgical reforms of the Christian Humanists in Alsace continues through the establishment of the first Protestant worship services in the Swiss cities of Zurich and Basel joins with the currents of French evangelical thought flowing from Meaux and finally reaches Geneva with the publication of Calvin s first psalter Reformed worship is presented as the fruit of an inner church liturgical renewal movement begun well before the Reformation which was then cultivated by the Rhineland Protestant Reformers In order that we might be clear about how patristic literature affected this process we turn next to discover what the Reformers knew about the church fathers We show evidence of the impressive patristic knowledge of such men as Zwingli Brucer Hedio Oecolampadius and Calvin An extensive bibliography of patristic editions known and used by the Reformers concludes the second part of the book Finally we analyze each element of Reformed worship to show its development and to indicate its scriptural and particularly its patristic roots The Prayer of Confession the Prayer of Intercession the Communion Invocation and the Benediction are studied to show their liturgical purpose How the Reformers understood their use of the lectionary the sermon psalmody and hymnody is presented in the light of their understanding of the practice of the ancient church
