Rituals A Novel:

Rituals of Literature Gian Balsamo, 2004-06 Balsamo's Rituals of Literature is devoted to Joyce's and Dante's special contributions to the tradition of Christian epics born out of Biblical stories and Homeric poems. By highlighting the integrated nature of its typical tropes, Joyce and Dante establish the historical identity of the Christian epic as a distinct literary genre.

Rituals Cees Nooteboom, 1983 Rituals - Rhapsody of Blood, Volume One Roz Kaveney, 2012 Two women and the workings of Time and Fate. In a time too long ago for most human memory, a god asked Mara what she most wanted. She got her wish to protect the weak against the strong. For millennia she has avenged that god and her dead sisters against anyone who uses the Rituals of Blood to become a god through mass murder. And there are few who can stand against her. A sudden shocking incident proves to Emma that the modern world is not what she thought it was: that there are demons and gods and elves and vampires. Her weapon is knowledge and she pursues it wherever it leads her. The one thing she does not know is who she and her ghostly lover Caroline are working for. RHAPSODY OF BLOOD is a four-part epic fantasy, not quite like anything you've read before: a helter-skelter ride through history and legend from Tenochtitlan to Los Angeles, from Atlantis to London. It is a story of death, love, and the end of worlds and of dangerous, witty women. The Ritual Adam

Nevill, 2012-02-14 A horror debut by one of Britain's most celebrated up-and-coming writers in which four friends get lost in a forest in Sweden to find their lives are in mortal peril as something evil lurks. Creating Rituals Jim Clarke, 2011 Life is full of ups and downs. Whether we like it or not, we are on a constant roller coaster of successes and failures, major life changes, losses, and transitions. For our happiness and inner peace, we often need help in negotiating these passages through turbulent times. We in the North American culture have forgotten the magic our ancestors knew how to use: rituals for a successful life journey. This book will teach you the secrets of how to create personal, family, and communal rituals that will change your life. Through this book, readers will learn how to create rituals for life stages and transitions, how to heal and transform relationships, the differences between ceremony and ritual, the important elements of an effective ritual, the skills to move forward through times of loss and change, how to repair ritual failures. Last Rituals Yrsa Sigurdardottir, 2007-10-02 An

Icelandic novel of secret symbols, medieval witchcraft, and modern murder. Ritual Violence and the Maternal in the British Novel, 1740-1820 Raymond F. Hilliard, 2010 This challenging book brings to light a mythic dimension of seventeen important eighteenth and early nineteenth-century narratives that revolve around the persecution of one or more important female characters and offers original readings of novels by Richardson, Fielding, Burney, Radcliffe, Godwin, Austen, Scott, and others. The myth in question, which Raymond Hilliard calls the myth of persecution and reparation, serves as a major vehicle for the early novel's preoccupation with the mother, a mythic figure distinct from the historical mother or from the mother as she is represented in eighteenth and early nineteenth-century maternal ideology. Hilliard argues that the myth of persecution and reparation derives from the topos of female sacrifice in the romance tradition and shows that this topos is central to several kinds of novels realist Gothic Jacobin feminist and historical Hilliard contends that the narrative of persecution and reparation anticipates the twentieth century maternal myth associated with the work of Melanie Klein and other relational model psychoanalytic theorists and he thus also examines the psychosexual significance of the mother Hilliard explores the relation of psychosexual themes to social representations and delineates a new theory of plot both tragic and comic plots in the early novel Book Jacket The Soviet Novel, Third Edition Katerina Clark,2000-08-22 A new Afterword brings the history of Socialist Realism to its end at the close of the 20th century Rituals, Consumption, and Marketing Cele Otnes,Tina M. macabre And on the third day things did not get better The rain fell hard and cold the white sun never broke through the low grey cloud and they were lost But it was the dead thing they found hanging from a tree that changed the trip beyond recognition When four old University friends set off into the Scandinavian wilderness of the Arctic Circle they aim to briefly escape the problems of their lives and reconnect with one another But when Luke the only man still single and living a precarious existence finds he has little left in common with his well heeled friends tensions rise With limited fitness and experience between them a shortcut meant to ease their hike turns into a nightmare scenario that could cost them their lives Lost hungry and surrounded by forest untouched for millennia Luke figures things couldn't possibly get any worse But then they stumble across an old habitation

Ritual, Family and Therapy in Anglophone Literatures Lars Heiler, 2025-03-10 This book investigates the triadic constellations between ritual family and therapy in literature in English Many rituals so called rites of passage in particular are strongly associated with the changing status of individuals as members of a family unit Traditional healing rituals were often designed to have a therapeutic effect sometimes mentally but also physically whereas modern psychotherapies often include ritual elements in order to enhance the efficacy of their treatment Families on the other hand can be the site of therapeutic activity by providing protection stability and emotional comfort yet difficult family constellations may also be the origin of emotional distress and the reason why a person needs counselling and therapeutic support in the first place Modern therapies such as family systems therapy have expanded their range of interest and influence in order to look at the whole family unit not just the symptomatic individual as client This study discusses nine literary texts six novels one literary memoir and two plays in which the three dimensions intersect and mutually influence each other

The Genesis of Fiction Terry R. Wright, 2016-03-09 This book considers a range of twentieth century novelists who practise a creative mode of reading the Bible exploring aspects of the Book of Genesis which more conventional biblical criticism sometimes ignores Each chapter considers some of the interpretive challenges of the relevant story in Genesis especially those noted by rabbinic midrash which serves as a model for such creative rewriting of the biblical text All the novelists considered from Mark Twain John Steinbeck and Thomas Mann to Jeanette Winterson Anita Diamant and Jenny Diski are shown to have been aware of the midrashic tradition and in some cases to have incorporated significant elements from it into their own writing The questions these modern and postmodern writers ask of the Bible however go beyond those permitted by the rabbis and by other believing interpretive communities Each chapter therefore attempts to chart intertextually where the writers are coming from what principles govern their mode of reading and rewriting Genesis and what conclusions can be drawn about the ways in which it remains possible to relate to the Bible

Choices and Conflicts Hans van Stralen, 2005 This book approaches literary existentialism 1935 1960 from a philosophical point of view and provides a semantic frame through which the primary works of this movement can be interpreted Readings of Sartre S bato Camus B ll De Beauvoir Nooteboom and others emphasize the place and themes specific to each writer within literary existentialism as a whole One of the most original features of this study is its focus on the central notion of engagement after 1960 Having highlighted its waning in postmodernism van Stralen then demonstrates the vigorous resurgence of this pivotal concept in postcolonial discourses
