*Author of MORTAL LESSONS and CONFESSIONS OF A KNIFE, uses the same skill that is expected of him in his profession — that of a surgeon. The searing gut-probing, spilling effect of them convolutes the imagination and disquiets the sensibilities in an uncannily pleasing way. **

Rituals Of Surgery Short Stories:

Rituals of Surgery Richard Selzer,1974-01-01 Selzer s first collection of stories published in 1974 weaves together the fantastic and grotesque with surgical precision He brings to light the horrors of surgery while displaying overwhelming compassion for his characters creating a provocative commentary on the human condition The Surgery of Ritual

Circumcision Jacob Snowman,2022-09-04 In The Surgery of Ritual Circumcision Jacob Snowman meticulously examines the intertwining of medical practice and cultural rites surrounding circumcision The text artfully combines anthropological insight with a narrative rich in historical context shedding light on the complex socio religious implications of this ritual Employing a blend of descriptive prose and analytical rigor Snowman navigates through various cultural practices and medical considerations illustrating how ritualistic elements shape surgical methods and vice versa This scholarly work delves into the intersections of bodily autonomy religious observance and ethical considerations making it essential reading for those interested in the anthropology of medicine and religious studies Jacob Snowman a noted medical anthropologist with a robust background in both clinical medicine and human culture brings a unique perspective to this often debated subject His extensive research and experience in diverse cultural contexts have informed his exploration of the delicate balance between tradition and modernity in ritual circumcision Snowman s previous works have established him as a figure committed to understanding the nuanced ways in which medical practices inform and are informed by cultural narratives This book is a compelling read for scholars medical professionals and anyone with an interest in the intersections of health and culture By engaging with this text readers will gain a deeper appreciation for the complexities of circumcision as both a medical procedure and a sacred rite ultimately prompting critical reflection on broader ethical issues in healthcare and cultural identity The Secularization of Medicine Nathan Carlin,Director of the McGovern Center for Humanities and Ethics Samuel Karff Chair Nathan Carlin,2025-08-29

While it is true that medicine and religion once had overt connections that have since declined The Secularization of Medicine argues that religion as a social force in medicine has not been extinguished Instead religious material or ideas have migrated to non religious or secular spaces and have been absorbed by the surrounding culture Medicine is not as secular as we might imagine it to be and this has implications for the well being of physicians Rituals of Surgery Richard Selzer,2001 Selzer s first collection of short stories originally published in 1974

weaves together the fantastic and grotesque with surgical precision The sense that death lurks around every corner is heightened by dark irony and wit He brings to light the horrors of surgery while displaying overwhelming compassion for his characters creating a provocative commentary on the human condition Touchstone Anthology of Contemporary Creative Nonfiction Lex Williford,Michael Martone,2007-12-11 From memoir to journalism personal essays to cultural criticism this indispensable anthology brings together works from all genres of creative nonfiction with pieces by fifty contemporary writers including Cheryl Strayed David Sedaris Barbara Kingsolver and more Selected by five hundred writers English

Death and Dying in America Andrea Fontana, Jennifer Reid Keene, 2009-07-20 This engaging new book takes a fresh approach to the major topics surrounding the processes and rituals of death and dying in the United States It emphasizes individual experiences and personal reactions to death as well as placing mortality within a wider social context drawing on theoretical frameworks empirical research and popular culture Throughout the text the authors highlight the importance of two key factors in American society which determine who dies and under what circumstances persistent social inequality and the American consumerist ethic These features are explored through a discussion of topics ranging from debates about euthanasia to deaths resulting from war and terrorism from the death of a child to children s experience of grieving and bereavement and from beliefs about life after death to more practical issues such as the disposal of the dead body Drawing on sociological anthropological philosophical and historical research the authors present the salient features of death and dying for upper level students across the social sciences For anyone interested in learning more about the end of life this book will provide a useful and accessible perspective on the uniquely American understanding of death and dying

Abaton - Issue Four,

The Broadview Reader - Third Edition Jane Flick, Herbert Rosengarten, 1998-02-16 This new edition includes most of the essays that have made The Broadview Reader one of the most popular first year textbooks in Canada and adds 18 fresh selections As before essays are gathered into groups by topic but the editors also provide alternative tables of contents by rhetorical patterns and devices and by chronology Each selection is followed by a wide range of questions and suggestions for discussions and the reader also includes a glossary and biographical notes Most of the new selections are of recent vintage but in recognition of the degree to which modern issues often have a long and honourable history the editors have also added several selections by nineteenth century writers Also the reader now includes a full section on Women in Society The book s balance of Canadian and non Canadian writers has been maintained as has the range of different styles and different essay lengths that are included In all the new edition includes 80 selections

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms Short Story Index, Collections Indexed 1900-1978 Juliette Yaakov,1979 This vol is a complete listing of the 8 355 collections indexed in the cumulated vols of Short Story Index for the years 1900 1978 Literature and Aging Martin Kohn,Carol C. Donley,Delese Wear,1992 Some of the world s greatest literature is devoted to expressing the joys and sorrows humans experience as they grow old New opportunities and challenges appear retirement a special closeness with the family failing health the recognition of personal mortality prejudice against the elderly and grief over the losses of loved ones and places This collection of more than 60 short stories poems and plays addresses these issues primarily through the works of modern American writers including Bernard Malamud Eudora Welty Saul Bellow Edward Albee Robert Frost Denise Levertov William Carlos Williams Ernest Hemingway Alice Walker Kurt Vonnegut and others The selections represent the experience of aging from the perspective of persons of diverse color ethnicity and background and are complemented by illustrator Elizabeth Layton s wry and perceptive prints A Richard Selzer Reader Kevin Kerrane,2017-07-31 A Richard Selzer Reader Blood and Ink is a career spanning collection including major short stories and essays by the renowned doctor author In the 1960s while practicing as a general surgeon and teaching surgery at the Yale School of Medicine Richard Selzer began publishing unique creative work in magazines such as Harper s and Esquire By 1985 when he retired as a physician to devote himself completely to writing Selzer was already recognized as a pioneer in the field of medical humanities When he died in 2016 as the author of 13 books his influence was acknowledged by a younger generation of doctor writers like Abraham Verghese and Atul Gawande Selzer s unusual style fuses scientific and poetic language Drawing on favorite readings from the King James Bible to the tales of Edgar Allen Poe he used this style to convey a sense of awe at the beauty and complexity of the human body even in the midst of suffering While describing himself as an atheist Selzer always searched for sacramental moments of courtesy courage and grace in medical encounters Because he often looked critically at the failure of doctors to regard the full humanity of their patients Selzer s work has become required reading in many medical training programs A Richard Selzer Reader includes several of the author s most famous essays and stories as well as two dozen selections that have not been collected in his previous books Chronologically the material ranges from apprenticeship stories as far back as a high school composition to two odd self portraits that remained unpublished at the time of Selzer s death Topically the material ranges from meditations on the body and on human mortality to reflections on both medicine and writing as serious vocations Along the way Selzer celebrates the work of other doctor writers like Thomas Browne and Anton Chekhov and in a series of previously unpublished diary entries he discusses the joys of nature art and family as bulwarks against the difficulties of growing old Fiction,

1876-1983: Titles R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, R.R. Bowker Company. Publications Systems Department, 1983     The Short Fiction of William H. Coles 2001-2011 William H. Coles, 2011-09-30 Award winning short stories of characters facing moral decisions that stretch their lives to mirror who they are and what they might become And a novella set in New Orleans that pits and adulterous deeply in love couple against society family and themselves as they struggle to regain self respect and acceptance among threats of violent revenge     "I Choose Life" Maureen Trudelle Schwarz, 2014-10-20 How Navajos navigate the complex world of medicine Surgery blood transfusions CPR and organ transplantation are common biomedical procedures for treating trauma and disease But for Navajo Indians these treatments can conflict with their traditional understanding of health and well being This book investigates how Navajos navigate their medically and religiously pluralistic world while coping with illness Focusing on Navajo attitudes toward invasive procedures Maureen Trudelle Schwarz reveals the ideological conflicts experienced by Navajo patients and the reasons behind the choices they make to promote their own health and healing Schwarz has conducted extensive interviews with patients traditional herbalists and ceremonial practitioners and members of Native American Church and Christian denominations to reveal the variety of perspectives toward biomedicine that prevail on the reservation and to show how each group within the tribe copes with health related issues She describes how Navajos interpret numerous health issues in terms of local understanding drawing on both their own and biomedical or Christian traditions She also provides insight into how Navajos use ceremonial practice and prayer to deal with the consequences of amputation or transplantation     What Makes Women Sick? Susan Starr Sered, 2000 An eye opening look at Israeli women s life expectancy and health     Sacrifice in Modernity: Community, Ritual, Identity , 2016-09-27 In Sacrifice in Modernity Community Ritual Identity it is demonstrated how sacrificial themes remain an essential element in our post modern society     The Writer's Stance Dorothy U. Seyler, 1988     Levinas and the Other in Narratives of Facial Disfigurement Gudrun Grabher, 2019-04-30 Offering readings of a range of fictional and biographical texts including work by Richard Selzer Nathaniel Hawthorne Gaston Leroux Willa Cather Natalie Kusz and Lucy Grealy this book examines reactions to facially disfigured people on the basis of Emmanuel Levinas ethics of the face Drawing on Levinas concern with the holistic dimension of the face as an encounter with the other s whole person and the sense of moral obligation that this instills in us a sense that disfigurement disrupts by drawing our attention to the disfigurement as a spectacle and threatening to limit our view of that individual the author explores how we react to the facially disfigured and how we ought to react     Diagnosis Narratives and the Healing Ritual in Western Medicine James Meza, 2018-07-17 The dominance of illness narratives in narrative healing studies has tended to mean that the focus centers around the healing of the individual Meza proposes that this emphasis is misplaced and the true focus of cultural healing should lie in managing the disruption of disease and death cultural or biological to the individual s relationship with society By explicating narrative theory through the lens of cognitive anthropology Meza

reframes the epistemology of narrative and healing moving it from relativism to a philosophical perspective of pragmatic realism Using a novel combination of narrative theory and cognitive anthropology to represent the ethnographic data Meza s ethnography is a valuable contribution in a field where ethnographic records related to medical clinical encounters are scarce The book will be of interest to scholars of medical anthropology and those interested in narrative history and narrative medicine
