River Crossings Voices Of The Diaspora An Anthology On The International Black Experience:

River Crossings C. Jerome Woods, 1994-01-01 THE JOURNEY Niama Leslie Williams, Ph.D., 2008-07-11 What does it mean to be young Black female intelligent gifted with second sight on your way to a Ph D and in love for the first time The Journey presents us with exactly this young woman The pivotal question becomes is she sane and he deceitful or has she lost her mind The answer is both Not an easy cohesive ride the narrative thread of an African American female mystic falling deeply in love with a white psychiatrist is complicated by a gently suggested history of abuse graduate school and the subtle racism of still largely white academia The Journey strokes the American psyche from within a very personal story of love and vision she is in love he is not but he leads her in a merry dance never quite revealing what emotion lies behind his warm brown eyes African-American Literature Paul Q. Tilden, 2003 Having its origins in the slave narratives and the folktales transmitted orally during that period the literature of the African American has been rich and varied Beginning with the first published work of fiction Clotel Or the President s Daughter in 1853 continuing under the influence of W E B Du Bois during the first part of this century and reaching a flowering during the Harlem Renaissance major contributions have been made to American literature Today African American writers such as Toni Morrison Alex Haley and Maya Angelou are recognised as among the most significant and popular authors in this country This new book presents an important overview of African American literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography with easy access provided by title subject and author indexes The Cumulative Book Index , 1996 A world list of books in the English language Guide to Multicultural Resources Alex Boyd, 1995 Abstracts of the Annual Meeting -- American Anthropological Association American Anthropological Association, 1993 Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association, 1993

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, 2011-04-27 Now in its fourth edition this handbook is an essential resource for those interested in all aspects of qualitative research and has been extensively revised and updated to cover new topics including applied ethnography queer theory and auto ethnography Whitaker's Books in Print , 1998 Sisterhood, Feminisms, and Power Obioma Nnaemeka, 1998 This volume which gathers prominent scholars feminists womanists and creative writers from Africa and the African Diaspora engages with candor and vigor issues and conflicts in feminism and black women studies feminism and womanism debates sisterhood and power struggles research and documentation questions elite and grassroots women relationship urban and rural dichotomy African and the African Diaspora relationship Focusing on the pluralism of feminisms these essays address the conflict between indigenous African feminisms and the radicalism of variants of Western feminism with their emphasis on sexuality and seeming oppositions to motherhood They collectively argue that the African environment specifically should provide the context for any meaningful analysis of feminisms on the continent The volume weaves theoretical questions personal and collective engagements into a complex tapestry that spans Africa and the African Diaspora from women organizing for change in South Africa and women's insurgency against colonialism in Nigeria to the problems of doing research on women in Uganda and building of a sisterhood in Memphis Tennessee Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Crossing Waters, Crossing Worlds Tiya Miles,Sharon Patricia Holland,2006 Combines histories of the complex interactions between blacks and Natives in North America with examples and readings of art that has emerged from those exchanges New Frontiers in the Study of the Global African Diaspora Rita Kiki Edozie,Glenn A. Chambers,Tama Hamilton-Wray,2018-10-01 This anthology presents a new study of the worldwide African diaspora by bringing together diverse multidisciplinary scholarship to address the connectedness of Black subject identities experiences issues themes and topics applying them dynamically to diverse locations of the Blackworld Latin America the Caribbean Africa and the United States The book underscores three dimensions of African diaspora study First is a global approach to the African diaspora showing how globalism underscores the distinctive role that Africa plays in contributing to world history Second is the extension of African diaspora study in a geographical scope to more robust inclusions of not only the African continent but also to uncharted paths and discoveries of lesser known diaspora experiences and identities in Latin America and the Caribbean Third is the illustration of universal unwritten cultural representations of humanities in the African diasporas that show the distinctive humanities disciplinary representations of Black diaspora imaginaries and subjectivities The contributing authors inductively apply these themes to focus the reader's attention on contemporary localized issues and historical arenas of the African diaspora They engage their findings to critically analyze the broader norms and dimensions that characterize a given set of interrelated criteria that have come to establish parameters that increasingly standardize African diaspora studies The New African Diaspora Isidore Okpewho,Nkiru Nzegwu,2009-08-26 The New York Times reports that since 1990 more Africans have voluntarily relocated to the United States and Canada than had been forcibly brought here before the slave trade ended in 1807 The key reason for these migrations has been the collapse of social political economic and educational structures in their home countries which has driven Africans to seek security and self realization in the West This lively and timely collection of essays takes a look at the new immigrant experience It traces the immigrants progress from expatriation to arrival and covers the successes as well as problems they have encountered as they establish their lives in a new country The contributors most immigrants themselves use their firsthand experiences to add clarity honesty and sensitivity to their discussions of the new African diaspora Mapping the New African Diaspora in China Shanshan Lan,2017-04-07 When one thinks of African diasporas it is likely that their mind will automatically drift to locations such as Europe and America But how much is known about the African diaspora in East Asia and in particular within China where race is such a politically sensitive topic Based on multi sited ethnographic research in China and Nigeria Mapping the New African Diaspora in China explores a new wave of African migration to South China in the context of the expansion of Sino African trade relations and the global circulation of racial knowledge Indeed grassroots perspectives of China Africa trade relations are foregrounded through the examination of daily interactions between Africans and rural to urban Chinese migrants in various informal trade spaces in Guangzhou These Afro Chinese encounters have the potential to not only help reveal the negotiated process of mutual racial learning but also to subvert hegemonic discourses such as Sino African friendship and white supremacy in subtle ways However as Lan demonstrates within this enlightening volume the transformative power of such cross cultural interactions is severely limited by language barrier cultural differences and the Chinese state s stringent immigration control policies This book will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of China Africa relations race and ethnic studies globalization and transnational migration and urban China studies as well as those from other social science disciplines such as political science international relations urban geography Asian Studies African studies sociology development studies and cross cultural communication studies It may also appeal to policymakers and non profit organizations involved in providing services and assistance to migrant populations

Crossing Boundaries Darlene Clark Hine, Jacqueline McLeod, 1999 The essays assembled in Crossing Boundaries reflect the international dimensions commonalities and discontinuities in the histories of diasporan communities of colour People of African descent in the New World the United States Latin America and the Caribbean share a common set of experiences domination and resistance slavery and emancipation the pursuit of freedom and struggle against racism No unitary explanation can capture the varied experiences of black people in diaspora Knowledge of individual societies is illuminated by the study and comparison of other cultural histories This volume growing out of the Comparative History of Black People in Diaspora Symposium held at Michigan State University elaborates the profound relationship between curriculum and pedagogy Crossing Boundaries embraces the challenge to probe differences embedded in Black ethnicities and helps to discover and to weave into a new understanding the threads of experience culture and identity across diasporas Contributors include Thomas Holt George Fredrickson Jack P Green David Barry Gaspar Earl Lewis Elliott Skinner Frederick Cooper Allison Blakely Kim Butler and Rosalyn Terborg Penn

African-Caribbean Women Interrogating Diaspora/Post-Diaspora Suzanne Scafe, Leith Dunn, 2022-02-23 This anthology originated as papers presented at a conference held in London July 2018 entitled Caribbean Women Post Diaspora African Caribbean Interconnections The chapters focus on issues of women s agency and on the potential for transformation produced by the experience of migration and the networks and communities fashioned by African Caribbean women in diasporic spaces They cover a range of disciplines including the study of visual art auto ethnographic analysis in addition to socio cultural and literary analyses The work included in this anthology inserts as central to its focus considerations of gender and specifically the experiences of women in processes of migration community formation and resistance In its focus on concepts of diaspora and post diaspora the book investigates the potential of these theoretical terms to address the complexity of the diasporic experience Concepts of post diaspora have emerged in recent scholarship as a response to the challenges to traditional understandings of diaspora raised by the increase and speed of globalisation and by the rise of transnationalism both as a focus of academic study and as an everyday experience Post diaspora like transnationalism emphasises the fluidity of the migration process post diasporic identities emerge from the shifting formations of intra and international communities The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal African and Black Diaspora The New African Diaspora in the United States Toyin Falola,Adebayo Oyeibade,2016-07-01 Fast growing in population African immigrants in the United States have become a significant force to the point that the idea of a new African diaspora is now a reality This thriving community has opened new arenas of scholarly discourse on Black Atlantic history beyond the trans Atlantic slave trade and its legacies This book investigates the complex dynamic forces that have shaped and continue to shape this new diaspora In eleven original essays the volume examines pertinent themes such as immigration integration dilemmas identity construction brain drain remittances expanding African religious space and how these dynamics impact and intersect with the African homeland With contributors from both sides of the Atlantic that represent a diverse range of academic disciplines this book offers a broad perspective on emerging themes in contemporary African diasporan experiences The book will be of interest to scholars and students of African and African American Studies Sociology and History
