Expecting the unexpected is a way of life in Grace Valley, and the community is overflowing with gossip right now. Who is the secret paramour June's aunt Myrna is hiding? Does the town's poker-playing pastor have too many aces up his sleeve? But when dangers from man and nature rise up with a vengeance to threaten June and the town, this community pulls together and shows what it's made of. And Jim discovers the true meaning of happiness here in Grace Valley: there really is no place like home.

The novella, as the editors of this volume explain, is in many ways the native habitat of modern Chinese literary production: the ideal fictional form for revealing the various facets of contemporary Chinese culture. The seven novellas collected here resoundingly support their claim. Featuring works by award winners and rising stars, women and men, By the River presents a confluence of some of the most compelling voices in China today. Together, their narratives reflect the rich diversity of Chinese experience in the modern era. These novellas are stories of coming of age in the countryside, of romance in the shadow of an electrical power station, or in the watery landscape of a lost love, of a daughter's epic journey to find her estranged mother. Whether telling of love or loss, of work or play, along the river of experience, the narratives are replete with details that bring literary depth to the everyday, the mark of the novella. These details, and the novellas into which they are woven, defy simple answers to moral and political questions about modern life, leaving readers with the feeling that their world has been made larger than they have seen through different eyes for a moment, if not forever. Reflecting modern Chinese life in the city and in the country and among diverse regional cultures, By the River showcases the best of contemporary Chinese long-form fiction.

A faded photograph leads a woman to a ruined French castle where she will discover the truth of her own identity and the enduring mystery of love. Traveling to France on business, Alexandra Dawson has decided to seize the opportunity to explore a mysterious piece of her own heritage: a half-burnt picture of a woman who looks eerily like her, taken more than a hundred years ago in a local castle. In the charming rural village of Chandeniers, she discovers something else too: the gruff, ruggedly good looking heir of the crumbled chateau Eric Lagnel is completely uninterested in Alex's queries until he realizes that she may have stumbled on a way to save the building Their unlikely partnership is a surprise But as Alex slowly unravels the secrets of her great great grandmother's photograph and the true history of the chateau she begins to understand that no one is ever prepared for the ways love can heal old wounds and open the hardest hearts Flood Control on the Mississippi River United States.
