River Murray Mary:

River Murray Mary Colin Thiele, 1979      River Murray Mary Thiele & Ingpen,      River Murray Mary Colin Thiele, 2013-05-01 River Murray Mary is a delightful book for younger readers from Australia's master storyteller Mary lives on a farm on the banks of the mighty Murray. Her many adventures include some hair-raising encounters with tiger snakes saving her beloved dog when he is bitten and exciting trips on the river with her friend Abel Stenross skipper of the paddle steamer Blackwater Bessie. When the river floods Mary needs to bring a doctor to her injured mother and it's Blackwater Bessie to the rescue.      The Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, Maryland Joshua Dorsey Warfield, 1905

Cleveland City Directory, 1877      The Cleveland Directory Co.'s Cleveland (Cuyahoga County, Ohio) City Directory, 1874      New South Wales Government Gazette, 1928      River Murray Mary Colin Thiele, 1986      Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature Helen Frank, 2014-04-08 Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature offers a detailed and innovative model of analysis for examining the complexities of translating children's literature and sheds light on the interpretive choices at work in moving texts from one culture to another. The core of the study addresses the issue of how images of a nation, locale or country are constructed in translated children's literature with the translation of Australian children's fiction into French serving as a case study. Issues examined include the selection of books for translation, the relationship between children's books and the national and international publishing industry, the packaging of translations and the importance of titles, blurbs and covers, the linguistic and stylistic features specific to translating for children, intertextual references, the function of the translation in the target culture, didactic and pedagogical aims, euphemistic language and explicitation and literariness in translated texts. The findings of the case study suggest that the most common constructs of Australia in French translations reveal a preponderance of traditional Eurocentric signifiers that identify Australia with the outback, the antipodes, the exotic, the wild, the unknown, the void, the end of the world, the young and innocent nation and the Far West. Contemporary signifiers that construct Australia as urban, multicultural, Aboriginal, worldly and inharmonious are seriously under-represented. The study also shows that French translations are conventional, conservative and didactic, showing preference for an exotic rather than local specificity with systematic manipulation of Australian referents betraying a perception of Australia as antipodean rural exoticism. The significance of the study lies in underscoring the manner in which a given culture is constructed in another cultural milieu, especially through translated children's literature.      The Rochester Directory, 1879      Southwords Philip Butterss, 1995 The thirteen essays in Southwords written by and about some of the country's top writers celebrate the diversity of South Australia's literary past and present, confront uneasy questions and entertain and delight in their explorations of South Australia's contributions to Australian and global literature.      Catalog Kansas State Teachers College of Emporia, 1910      The Statutes at Large, the United States from ... United States, 1925      Public Accounts Prince Edward Island.
