River Teeth:

River Teeth David James Duncan, 1996-06-01 In his passionate luminous novels David James Duncan has won the devotion of countless critics and readers earning comparisons to Harper Lee Tom Robbins and J D Salinger to name just a few Now Duncan distills his remarkable powers of observation into this unique collection of short stories and essays At the heart of Duncan's tales are characters undergoing the complex and violent process of transformation with results both painful and wondrous Equally affecting are his nonfiction reminiscences the river teeth of the title He likens his memories to the remains of old growth trees that fall into Northwestern rivers and are sculpted by time and water These experiences shaped by his own river of time are related with the art and grace of a master storyteller In River Teeth a uniquely gifted American writer blends two forms taking us into the rivers of truth and make believe and all that lies in between River Teeth Joe Mackall, Daniel W. Lehman, 2020-02-15 To celebrate twenty years of introducing talented new writers to readers and publishing great nonfiction the founding editors Joe Mackall and Daniel W Lehman have selected their all time favorite essays published in River Teeth in this stunning collection River Teeth, 2008 Disequilibria Robert Lunday, 2023-02-15 Winner of the River Teeth Literary Nonfiction Prize Disequilibria Meditations on Missingness is a hybrid memoir that recounts the 1982 disappearance of the author's stepfather James Edward Lewis a pilot and Vietnam veteran Recounting his family's experiences in searching for answers Lunday interrogates the broader cultural and conceptual responses to the phenomenon of missingness by connecting his stepfather's case to other true life disappearances as well as those portrayed in fiction poetry and film In doing so Disequilibria explores the transience in modern life considering the military dependent experience the corrosive effects of war and the struggle to find closure and comfort as time goes by without answers Shambhala & the Caregiving Heart of the World Verity Jenkins, 2021-05-01 Grandsy's eyes light up for just a few moments and then the sparkle dies out I'm too tired to go out for food she said No big deal Ray replies But it is a big deal Grandsy is in some kind of funk Something IS really wrong although no one is being direct about it Later Ray discovers that Grandsy has been diagnosed with Alzheimer's Dementia How can Ray battle this insidious disease and bring her beloved Grandsy back to life Ray has learned the power of the sacred Quest and if there ever was a need for one it is now Fa had told Ray stories of the Elixir of Immortality residing in Shambhala a hidden kingdom accessible only through the sacred Quest Using clues Fa left in a storage locker Ray plays on her Mum's own desire to find Fa In the darkest and most exciting Ray Adventure yet Ray reaches new heights of deception and misdirection that launch them on a journey into an ancient dystopian world hidden beneath Nepal Little do they know it but Ray and her Mother have arrived at the most turbulent moment in the political history of Nepal Ray's Mum is invited on a double date with a member of Nepal's royal family Flattered and fed up with Ray's double dealing her Mum goes on her own adventure That very night the royal family is massacred and Ray's Mum is taken hostage Ray enlists the help of Devi a trained protector of Shambhala and a Gurkha pilot who has a surprising knack of blacking out to avoid going against a direct order Ray lands the float plane in a narrow canyon on the Kali Gandaki river Together they succeed in rescuing her Mother from the well guarded Ranighat palace Returning to her Quest for Shambhala Ray parachutes into the Yalbang Monastery literally running into the Buddha in the courtyard There she meets the caregiver for Alexandra David Neel the greatest adventurer of the inner and outer realms who shares with Ray the long kept secret location to the entrance of Shambhala The action ratchets up a notch at a Bon Po ceremony attended by scores of wrathful deities Ray and Devi enter a tum mo competition that reveals to them the hidden powers of the breath and mind Ray learns she can melt ice on a frozen lake through her body heat alone Following the ceremony an enigmatic Bon Po shaman leads Ray to the entrance of Shambhala Once inside she discovers it s a false Shambhala that traps people for many lifetimes addicting them to hallucinatory local honey Are the Elixir of Immortality Shambhala false hopes Could it be that she had the answer to her Quest all along

The Muses Among Us Kim Stafford,2012-03-15 The Muses Among Us is an inviting encouraging book for writers at any stage of their development In a series of first person letters essays manifestos and notes to the reader Kim Stafford shows what might happen at the creative boundary he calls what we almost know On the boundary s far side is our story our poem our song On this side are the resonant hunches griefs secrets and confusions from which our writing will emerge Guiding us from such glimmerings through to a finished piece are a wealth of experiments assignments and tricks of the trade that Stafford has perfected over thirty years of classes workshops and other gatherings of writers Informing The Muses Among Us are Stafford s own convictions about writing principles to which he returns again and again We must Stafford says honor the fragments utterances and half discovered truths voiced around us for their speakers are the prophets to whom writers are scribes Such filaments of wisdom either by themselves or alloyed with others give rise to our poems stories and essays In addition as Stafford writes all pleasure in writing begins with a sense of abundance rich knowledge and boundless curiosity By recommending ways for students to seek beyond the self for material Stafford demystifies the process of writing and claims for it a Whitmanesque quality of participation and community

Conversations with American Writers Dale Brown,2008-04-14 For years Dale Brown has interviewed American writers listening particularly for what they have to say about wrestling with the sacred in their writing In this book a follow up to his earlier collection Of Fiction and Faith Brown gives readers the opportunity to listen in on his thoughtful conversations with ten contemporary writers While many of these authors shy away from being labeled Christian writers they all have much truth to tell through their work as they struggle with expressing both faith and doubt The conversations recorded here offer a fresh dialogue on the power of art to sustain faith in unexpected ways Interviews with Eleanor Taylor Bland David James Duncan Terence Faherty Ernest Gaines Philip Gulley Ron Hansen Silas House Jan Karon Sheri Reynolds Lee Smith

Fish and Game ,1896 Romances with Schools John I. Goodlad,2016-07-18 John I Goodlad has been an unflagging voice for humanistic ideals in education for more than six decades and has helped reframe the modern discourse on the role and function of schools For Goodlad the goal of public education is to help children become free and full participants in a democratic society by instilling them with a love of learning and a sense of civic responsibility goals that are incompatible with our present system of schooling that teaches to standardized tests In Romances with Schools John Goodlad steps out from behind the public persona of distinguished scholar and advocate for public schooling to offer a moving personal account of a life devoted to educating the young He deftly interweaves fascinating personal details with reflections on many of the larger issues in education that he has explored throughout his career John s early encounters with formal schooling began just before the Great Depression in Canada with the humble North Star School From there we are taken through sixty plus years in education starting with John s first teaching job as the sole instructor of a one room schoolhouse through his years as an education activist dean of the UCLA Graduate School of Education and national voice for educational renewal Along the way he treats us to vivid characterizations of the men women and above all children who shaped him as a person and inspired his thinking on education Romances with Schools is both a poignant memoir and a persuasive argument for the need to renew public education to fit the demands of a free society Stephen Goodlad John s son has written a moving Prologue to the book that provides behind the scenes insight into John s life An Epilogue by Roger Soder a long time colleague places John s work of school renewal in the context of political change Less is More Kimberly Campbell,2007 Less Is More is full of powerful ideas for teaching with short provocative text This book broadens and extends our available teaching tools and materials and can help engage all students It is a valuable resource for language arts teachers Cris Tovani Language arts teachers want all of their students to love literature and embrace the novels they assign The classroom reality is that many students are not ready or motivated to immerse themselves in an entire novel In order to reach and engage all students teachers need to look beyond novels alone and embrace a richer variety of literature In Less Is More Kimberly Hill Campbell draws on research as well as her own classroom experiences to show how short texts engage a wide range of middle and high school students She shares her discovery of the power of short texts to support her students skills as readers writers and students of literature Kimberly shows how short texts can be integrated into the curriculum without sacrificing required novels Chapters examine different genres of short text such as short stories essays memoir and graphic novels Each chapter provides reading writing and response strategies as well as a broad selection of short text resources that have proven effective with a wide range of students Sketches in Natural History ,1849 The Early Poetry of Charles Wright Robert D. Denham,2009-01-27 This companion covers Charles Wright s first two trilogies Country Music 1982 and The World of the Ten Thousand Things 1990 providing biographical details information on Wright s sources and influences and historical notes It pays special attention to the way that Wright s poems work together and the links that are formed between them While each poem is given its own commentary the author argues that they work together in a concentrated whole to document a man's spiritual journey Rough Crossing Rosemary McGuire, 2017-03 Both an adult coming of age tale and a candid look at the Alaskan fishing industry this is the story of a woman in a man's world Collected Poems 1950-1993 Vernon Scannell, 2013-07-04 In 2002 Vernon Scannell wrote the following It has been my firm belief since I first began to attempt the art of poetry that the making of a poem should be as Yeats asserted a difficult business However I have always felt reservations about what seems to me the only partially true belief stated by both Eliot and Hopkins in their different ways that the meaning of a poem is of less significance than its structure and texture Eliot's nice bit of meat for the house dog Ideally the poem should be the perfection of expression of meaning inseparable from the methods by which that expression is achieved As Paul Valéry has said A man is a poet if the difficulties inherent in his art provide him with ideas he is not a poet if they deprive him of ideas That was an important statement his credo It can accurately be said that almost every poem in this collected volume bears testimony to it Although not covering the full span of his career Scannell didn't die until 2007 and was writing almost literally until the very end the body of his work is here and how impressive it is On immaculate display is a conspectus of poems embracing the narrative lyrical satirical and contemplative There are poems of pathos and comedy intelligence and passion whatever their form free verse or rhyming tenor or subject they are executed with unflinching craftsmanship In his obituary of Vernon Scannell Alan Brownjohn wrote What might have been considered unusual given a colourful even swashbuckling personality that spawned innumerable anecdotes was his fastidious procedure as a poet his unflinching focus on the age old themes of love war and death his concern for a real involvement with living experience Craft and care and for that matter clarity and accessibility were unquestionable necessities if you were serious about the art students on Scannell's creative writing courses were liable to be sat down hangover or not to write a sonnet after breakfast Scannell is one of what appears to be a vanishing breed a poet of technical accomplishment who understands that poetry like the other arts is a craft as well Charles Osborne Sunday Telegraph You actually want to go back and revisit the poems many times Their shrewd structures hold their elements firmly in place and they resonate also with the kind of humanity time is generous to Scannell has earned a place in the tradition of English poetry Paul Fussell Poetry Review accurate humane humorous often eloquent and always well made poems Anthony Thwaite Sunday Telegraph Crafting Wounaan Landscapes Julie Velásquez Runk, 2017-04-18 This book reveals how indigenous Wounaan practice conservation in the face of national and international environmental governance Provided by publisher Great Projects James Tobin, 2012-06-12 Since the earliest days of the republic great engineering projects have shaped American landscapes and expressed American dreams The ambition to build lies as close to the nation's heart as the belief in liberty We live in a built civilization connected one to another in an enormous web of technology Yet we have all too often overlooked the role of engineers and builders in American history With glorious photographs and epic narrative sweep Great Projects at last gives their story the prominence

it deserves Each of the eight projects featured in this masterful narrative was a milestone in its own right the flood control works of the lower Mississippi Hoover Dam Edison s lighting system the spread of electricity across the nation the great Croton Aqueduct the bridges of New York City Boston s revamped street system known as the Big Dig and the ever evolving communications network called the Internet Each project arose from a heroic vision Each encountered obstacles Each reveals a tale of genius and perseverance James Tobin winner of a National Book Critics Circle Award explains the four essential tasks of the engineer to protect people from the destructive force of water while harnessing it for the enormous good it can do to provide people with electricity the motive force of modern life to make great cities habitable and vital and to create the pathways that connect place to place and person to person Tobin focuses on the individuals behind our greatest structures of earth and concrete and steel James Buchanan Eads who walked on the floor of the Mississippi to learn the river s secrets Arthur Powell Davis and Frank Crowe who imagined a dam that could transform the West Thomas Edison who envisioned a new way to light the world Samuel Insull the organizational mastermind of the electrical revolution the long forgotten John Bloomfield Jervis who assured New York s future with the gift of clean water Othmar Ammann the modest Swiss American who fought his mentor to become the first engineer to bridge the lower Hudson River Fred Salvucci the antihighway rebel who transformed the face of Boston and J C R Licklider the obscure scientist who first imagined the Internet Here too are the workers who scorned hardship to turn the engineers dreams into reality deep underground and high in the sky through cold and heat and danger In Great Projects soon to be a major PBS television series by the Emmy Award winning Great Projects Film Company we share their dreams and witness their struggles we watch them create the modern world we walk through each day the city upon a hill that became our America

The Untouched Minutes Donald Morrill, 2004-01-01 What would you be willing to do to save someone perhaps someone you loved On a moment s notice for instance would you lunge between that person and an assailant s knife strike In that same situation what would you be willing to do for yourself And what if there were nothing ultimately to be done These and other such questions live in the untouched minutes questions most of us are fortunately never compelled to answer though the media exposes us daily to the stories of those who are In February 2001 on what started out as a typical Sunday afternoon Donald Morrill and his wife Lisa Birnbaum became the victims of a home invasion and found themselves faced with the specter of ultimate contingency In The Untouched Minutes Morrill recounts and examines the events of that day and its aftermath as well as the circumstances surrounding the murders of Dartmouth professors Half and Suzanne Zantop which occurred the same week Set against the unfolding drama of post 9 11 America The Untouched Minutes explores how violence and the threat of violence color and recast one s assumptions and can plot the course of people facing the unknown the unknowable the irredeemable Morrill presents a memorable portrait of what it means to take back the life that finally wasn t taken and in the process he offers a powerful meditation on terror and security home and travel art race luck and our individual places in the wider world
