Rivero,2017-12-20 Although fictional and often fantastic representations of nature have been a distinguishing feature of Latin American literature for centuries ecocriticism understood as the study of literature as it relates to depictions of the natural world environmental issues and the ways in which human beings interact and identify with their natural surroundings did not emerge as a field of scholarly interest in the region until the end of the twentieth century This volume employs an ecocritical lens in order to explore and question the use of the river imagery in Latino and Latin American literature from the colonial period to our modern world creating a space in which to examine both its literal and figurative meanings associated as much with processes of a personal nature as with those of the collective experience in the region The slow meandering streams of nostalgia the raging currents of conflict or the stagnant waters of social decay are just a few of the ways in which the river has become an important symbol and inspiration to many of the region s writers This book offers a diverse collection of writings that through a trans historical and trans geographical perspective allows us from the vantage point of the twenty first century to reflect on the rich and dynamic image of the river and by extension on the vital context of Latin o America its people and societies Weekly Record ,1980 Oh Threats of Hell and Hopes of Paradise John Fee Gibson,2013-07-08 A book of five short stories 1 Oh threats of hell and hopes of paradise 2 One thing at least is certain this life flies 3 One thing is certain and the rest is lies 4 The flower that once has blown forever dies 5 I sent my soul into the invisible some letter of the afterlife spell My stories five are told in the first person and inspired by the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam the twelfth century philosopher and Edgar Allen Poe They tell of rape murder a philandering preacher an engineer driven to the gates of insanity by his perfectionist ideals and a despondent professor attempting to leave his legacy by trying to prove Carl Jung s theory of the collective unconscious I have been writing on these stories for a few years as the spirit would move me to write When someone asks me what they are about or to summarize them my brain sort of goes into neutral and I really don t know where to start I generally try to change the subject since I can t summarize in 4000 characters or less what I had for breakfast this morning If the inquisitive person is persistent I simply offer to let them read the book and then they change the subject Actually after meditating upon the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam and wallowing his quatrains around in my mind for a while I generally end up writing a little I think I m much like Omar still trying to deduce what this thing we call life is all about My stories touch on things from the simple life of an Appalachian Mountains sharecropper a dubious country preacher rape murder an arduous and unnecessary flight from justice snakebites and miraculous healings the lynching of an innocent black man and subsistence farm life to the complicated motives of brainy engineers and chemists attempting to leave their legacy to science by proving knowledge can be transmitted genetically thereby proving Carl Jung s theory of the collective unconscious to be valid Keywords Fiction Short Stories Rubaiyat Omar Khayyam Carl Jung Life Murder Rape Preacher Engineer Seers, Witches and Psychics on Screen Karin Beeler,2014-01-10 This book addresses the pervasive representation of women with unique visionary abilities in postfeminist television series and films from the 1990s to the present These women mediate between the living and the dead or between different worlds of experience redefining what it means to be normal and challenging the traditional boundary between science and the inner world of visionary mystical experience Part 1 includes a discussion of modern day Cassandra figures including the witches and other seers of the television series Buffy the Vampire Slayer Angel Firefly Charmed Hex and Tru Calling Part 2 discusses modern television shows whose main characters represent a contemporary spin on Joan of Arc including Joan of Arcadia and the short lived Wonderfalls Finally Part 3 investigates female mediums and other psychic detectives in reality television series such as Psychic Investigators and Rescue Mediums the popular television dramas Medium Ghost Whisperer and Afterlife and contemporary films such as Ghost The Gift and Premonition
