Riverroot A Syzygy:

A Theology of Creation Thomas S. Hibbs, 2023-08-15 This book provides the first sustained philosophical treatment of Pope Francis's Laudato Si and articulates a theology of creation to recover our place within the cosmos. In the encyclical Laudato Si, Pope Francis discerns beneath the imminent threat of ecological catastrophe an existential affliction of the human person who is lost in the cosmos increasingly alienated from self, others, nature, and God. Pope Francis suggests that one must reimagine humanity's place in the created cosmos. In this ambitious and distinctive contribution to theological aesthetics, Thomas S. Hibbs provides the basis for just such a recovery, working from Laudato Si to develop a philosophical and theological diagnosis of our ecological dislocation, a narrative account of the sources of the crisis, and a vision of the way forward. Through a critical engagement with the artistic theory of Jacques Maritain, Hibbs shows how certain strains of modern art both capture our alienation and anticipate visions of recovered harmony among persons, nature, and God. In the second half of the book, in an attempt to fulfill Pope Francis's plea for an aesthetic education and to apply and test Maritain's theory, Hibbs examines the work of poets and painters. He analyzes the work of poets Robinson Jeffers and William Everson and considers painters Georges Rouault, a friend to Maritain, and Makoto Fujimura, whose notion of culture care overlaps in suggestive ways with Francis's notion of integral ecology. Throughout this tour de force, Hibbs calls for a commitment to an ecological poetics, a project that responds to the crisis of our times by taking poets and painters as seriously as philosophers and theologians.

River-root William Everson, 1976 Encyclopedia of Beat Literature Kurt Hemmer, 2010-05-12

Discusses the literary works and great authors of the Beat Generation Christian Mystics Matthew Fox, 2011 As Matthew Fox notes, when an aged Albert Einstein was asked if he had any regrets, he replied, "I wish I had read more of the mystics earlier in my life." The 365 writings here allow readers of all faiths and no faith to experience these readings.

The Blood of the Poet William Everson, 1994 Bill Everson has been a towering figure in my mind and heart. He is there in me, the poet of inner and outer magnificence. James Laughlin: From his earlier poems through his work as a pacifist anarchist printer-poet in the war years, the God-haunted poems, the meditative books, the late poems as fierce as ever about love, landscape, aging, the body of William Everson's work is the record of a continuously passionate encounter with poetry. Robert Hass: Everson transforms autobiography into Christian mythology. A celebration. Publishers Weekly.

The Postmoderns Donald Allen, George F. Butterick, 1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre-eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation's postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality. United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity, instantism, formal and syntactic flexibility, and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself, these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism. Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works Language, Eros, Being Elliot R.
