Jones,2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethes birth It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world The work records publications during the century not merely translations that originated during this period It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004 Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethes anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself Antique Trader Book Collector's Price Guide Richard Russell,2009-11-13 This new edition of Antique Trader Book Collector's Price Guide provides readers with the information and values to carve a niche for themselves in a market where rare first editions of Jane Austen's Emma and J K Rowling's Harry Potter and the Philosophers Stone recently sold at auction for 254 610 dollars and 40 355 dollars respectively Organized in 13 categories including Americana banned paranormal and mystery this guide discusses identifying and grading books and provides collectors with details for identifying and assessing books in 8 000 listings Sourcebook for Research in Music, Third Edition Allen Scott,2015-06-01 Since it was first published in 1993 the Sourcebook for Research in Music has become an invaluable resource in musical scholarship The balance between depth of content and brevity of format makes it ideal for use as a textbook for students a reference work for faculty and professional musicians and as an aid for librarians The introductory chapter includes a comprehensive list of bibliographical terms with definitions bibliographic terms in German French and Italian and the plan of the Library of Congress and the Dewey Decimal music classification systems Integrating helpful commentary to instruct the reader on the scope and usefulness of specific items this updated and expanded edition accounts for the rapid growth in new editions of standard works in fields such as ethnomusicology performance practice women in music popular music education business and music technology These enhancements to its already extensive bibliographies ensures that the Sourcebook will continue to be an indispensable reference for years to come Genetic Criticism Dirk Van Hulle,2022-02-24 In Genetic Criticism Dirk Van Hulle introduces the study of creative processes to an Anglophone audience As a method in the study of literary writing processes genetic criticism is also a reading strategy The idea behind this book is to introduce this strategy to a broader audience from interested readers and graduate students to early career researchers and literary critics In literary studies it is often obvious that a particular work somehow seems to hit a nerve but more challenging to pinpoint exactly why it works This book therefore starts from a clear basic assumption knowing how something was made can help us understand how and why it works This strategy is at the basis of many disciplines including art history By means of X ray technology or hyperspectral imaging it is possible to look at a painting as a multilayered object with not only spatial dimensions but also a temporal one This temporal dimension is the core of the reading strategy introduced in this book Note books marginalia manuscripts and typescripts even if one works with scans give a concrete dimension to literature which is a helpful reading strategy for many students On the one hand this involves concrete transferrable skills such as aspects of transcription and digital scholarly editing On the other hand it also involves more abstract theoretical issues relating to matters of authorship collaboration authority agency intention and intertextuality space.time.narrative Frank den Ouden, 2016-12-05 Making exhibitions is a collaborative art producing is a multi layered unity of ideas and objects of invention and manifestation of content and form However there is an antagonistic dimension to it because content and form are traditionally represented by the entirely different realms of curator and designer Future successful developments in exhibition making are dependent on whether this gap of antagonism can be bridged space time narrative calls for a paradigmatic shift of focus It puts forward a unique approach breaking down traditional barriers and offering a wide ranging theoretical context redefining and expanding the parameters and the dynamics of the exhibition format in terms of an open narrative environment which at its roots displays deep similarities with performance on stage or installation in urban and rural space The book breaks new ground by looking at the exhibition as a cultural format firstly within a great sweep of the arts in general weaving a web of philosophical museological linguistic and media theoretical references which expands the contextual field of the profession It then offers unique and important insights from within in extreme close up by bringing together interviews with six of the leading exhibition designers who discuss the dynamics of the medium its interactive dimensions the soft parameters of the exhibition and how to get to grips with the format as a complex narrative space in which the public takes part Curator and designer should reposition themselves professionally at the heart of the axis which divides or connects content and form The Art of Light on Stage Yaron Abulafia, 2015-07-16 The Art of Light on Stage is the first history of theatre lighting design to bring the story right up to date In this extraordinary volume award winning designer Yaron Abulafia explores the poetics of light charting the evolution of lighting design against the background of contemporary performance The book looks at the material and the conceptual the technological and the transcendental Never before has theatre design been so vividly and excitingly illuminated The book examines the evolution of lighting design in contemporary theatre through an exploration of two fundamental issues 1 What gave rise to the new directions in lighting design in contemporary theatre 2 How can these new directions be viewed within the context of lighting design history The study then focuses on the phenomenological and semiotic aspects of the medium for light the role of light as a performer as the medium of visual perception and as a stimulus for imaginative representations in selected contemporary theatre productions by Robert Wilson Romeo Castellucci Heiner Goebbels Jossi Wieler and David Zinder This ground breaking book will be required reading for anyone concerned with the future of performance Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 Contemporary Western European Feminism (RLE Feminist Theory) Gisela Kaplan, 2012-11-12 Contemporary Western European Feminism is a ground breaking history of feminism Gisela Kaplan invites a critical analysis of current ideas terms and assumptions about our modern world Written confidently and with compassion this is the story of a long revolution that has set out to change predominant attitudes and transform value hierarchies and human lifestyles By outlining the postwar histories of individual countries

Kaplan contextualises women's movements and documents a significant chapter of European social history. She poses questions about the interrelationship between the new movements and the parliamentary democracies in which they occurred while analysing the contradictions of living in modern capitalist countries. Contemporary Western European Feminism also tackles important contradictions such as those between the welfare state and the free market economy, industrialisation and religious value systems, social engineering and the production of wealth and dissent, and patrimonial systems of democracy. For those wanting to know more about Europe without the intimidating barriers of language and for those already experts in its social history, Contemporary Western European Feminism is essential reading. Books in Series, 1985. Vols for 1980 issued in three parts. Series Authors and Titles: Revisioning Beckett S. E. Gontarski, 2018-05-31. Revisioning Beckett reassesses Beckett's career and literary output, particularly his engagement with what might be called decadent modernism. Gontarski approaches Beckett from multiple viewpoints: from his running afoul of the Irish Censorship of Publications Acts in the 1930s through the 1950s; his preoccupations to find literature in the pornography or beneath the pornography; his battles with the Lord Chamberlain in the mid 1950s over London stagings of his first two plays; and his close professional and personal associations with publishers who celebrated the work of the demimonde. Much of that term encompasses an opening to the fullness of human experience denied in previous centuries and much of that has been sexual or decadent. As Gontarski shows, the aesthetics that emerges from such early career encounters and associations continues to inform Beckett's work and develops into experimental modes that upend literary models and middle class values; an aesthetics that furthermore has inspired any number of visual artists to re-vision Beckett. Run, River, Run Ann Zwinger, 1975. Running Times, 2007-01. Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes, coaches and scientists; rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview. National Union Catalog, 1983. Includes entries for maps and atlases.
