Rivers Tale A Year On The Mekong:

A River's Tale Edward A. Gargan, 2002 The River's Tale is a deeply informed personal chronicle of a remarkable journey down the Mekong River as it runs through China Tibet Burma Laos Thailand Cambodia and Vietnam In it Edward A Gargan tells a stirring tale of adventure that reveals the Mekong's many worlds Beginning in 1998 Gargan was at last able to pursue his long held dream of traveling the three thousand miles of the river and lingering where he wished He was in a sense coming to terms with places and peoples with which he had already linked his life His youthful opposition to the Vietnam War had been the first manifestation of his passionate interest in Asia where he subsequently spent much of his career as a New York Times correspondent His travels show us a kind of modernity settling uneasily on regions still mired in backwardness and poverty and shadows that linger so many years after the end of the Vietnam War We visit Internet cafes in dirt streeted towns near thatched hut villages without electricity The magnificent Angkor Wat a hub of tourism is surrounded by the ruins engendered by Pol Pot's genocidal reign We see plodding mule trains caravanning sacks of opium through Burma on their way to China to be processed and distributed to the West Tibetan horsemen adorned in silver and amber jewelry herd yaks across endless grasslands as their ancestors did though their culture is under siege by the Chinese Vietnamese salesmen scooter around Saigon hawking American soaps passing by outcast children fathered by American soldiers and left behind Buddhism flowers in a Laos ravaged by communism Sex tourism thrives in prosperous Thailand a trade chiefly involving teenagers who pay a deadly price And throughout there is the Mekong shaping landscapes linking cultures sustaining populations showcasing spectacular beauty Edward Gargan is an acutely observant sympathetic guide to a fascinating world and he has written a powerful and lyrical book When the Rivers Run Dry, Fully Revised and Updated Edition Fred Pearce, 2018-08-28 A new edition of the veteran science writer's groundbreaking work on the world's water crisis featuring all new reporting from the most recent global flashpoints Throughout history rivers have been our foremost source of fresh water for both agriculture and individual consumption but looming water scarcity threatens to cut global food production and cause conflict and unrest In this visionary book Fred Pearce takes readers around the world on a tour of the world's rivers to provide our most complete portrait yet of the growing global water crisis and its ramifications for us all With vivid on the ground reporting Pearce deftly weaves together the scientific economic and historic dimensions of the water crisis showing us its complex origins from waste to wrong headed engineering projects to high yield crop varieties that have saved developing countries from starvation but are now emptying their water reserves Pearce argues that the solution to the growing worldwide water shortage is more efficiency and a new water ethic based on managing the water cycle for maximum social benefit rather than narrow self interest Irrigation in Asia in Figures Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1999-01-01 This publication is the forth of a series of reports prepared within the framework of FAO's AQUASTAT programme aimed at presenting a comprehensive picture of water resources development and irrigation with emphasis on developing countries This volume presents the results of surveys performed in the countries of Asia in 1997 and 1998 relying on country based statistics A general summary presents a synopsis on water resources development irrigation and drainage in the region and country profiles describe the specific situation of each country Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing

International Relations in Southeast Asia Donald E. Weatherbee, Ralf Emmers, 2005 This balanced comprehensive guide to Southeast Asian politics offers a sensible but nondogmatic realist approach to the region's international relations Donald E Weatherbee lucidly explains the dynamics of the Southeast Asian subsystem as a struggle for autonomy in pursuit of national interests He explores three important questions the answers to which will shape the future Southeast Asia Will democratic regimes transform international relations in Southeast Asia Will national leaders succeed in reinventing ASEAN as a more effective collaborative mechanism Finally how will the evolving Chinese position balancing and perhaps displacing the United States as Asia's great power affect Southeast Asia's struggle for autonomy Book Lust to Go Nancy Pearl, 2010-06-01 Adventure is just a book away as bestselling author Nancy Pearl returns with recommended reading for more than 120 destinations both worldly and imagined around the globe From Las Vegas to the Land of Oz Naples to Nigeria Philadelphia to Provence Nancy Pearl guides readers to the very best fiction and nonfiction to read about each destination Even within one country she traverses decades to suggest titles that effortlessly capture the different eras that make up a region's unique history This enthusiastic literary globetrotting guide includes stops in Korea Sweden Afghanistan Albania Parma Patagonia Texas and Timbuktu Book Lust To Go connects the best fiction and nonfiction to particular destinations whether your bags are packed or your armchair is calling From fiction to memoir poetry to history Nancy Pearl's Book Lust to Go takes the reader on a globetrotting adventure no passport required

Freshwater Boundaries Revisited María Querol, 2016-11-07 In Freshwater Boundaries Revisited María Querol analyzes the different methods applied in the delimitation of international rivers and lakes and the recent developments in the field This monograph reassesses the diverse methods of boundary delimitation in view of the latest and abundant jurisprudence of the International Court of Justice and the tribunals under the aegis of the Permanent Court of Arbitration on the subject The author focuses on the influence of human considerations in the field under study and the legal consequences ensuing therefrom in addition to drawing some conclusions regarding freshwater boundaries Charlie Company Journeys Home Andrew Wiest,2019-10-31 Using countless interviews as well as original diaries and letters Andrew Wiest lays bare the horror of the Vietnam War for those left behind and the enduring battles they must continue to fight long after their loved ones have returned home The human experience of the Vietnam War is almost impossible to grasp the camaraderie the fear the smell the pain Men were transformed into soldiers and then into warriors These warriors had wives who loved them and shared in their transformations Some marriages were strengthened while for others there was all too often a dark side leaving men and their families emotionally and spiritually battered for years to come Focusing in on just one company s experience of war and its eventual homecoming Wiest shines a light on the shared experience of combat and both the darkness and resiliency of war s aftermath

When the Rivers Run Dry Fred Pearce,2006 It was with the Colorado River that engineers first learned to control great rivers But now the Colorados reservoirs are two thirds empty Great rivers like the Indus and the Nile the Rio Grande and the Yellow River are running on empty And economists say that by 2025 water scarcity will cut global food production by more than the current U S grain harvest Veteran science correspondent Fred Pearce traveled to more than thirty countries while researching When the Rivers Run Dry it is our most complete portrait yet of the growing world water crisis Deftly weaving together the complicated scientific economic and historical dimensions of the crisis he shows us its complex origins from waste to wrong headed engineering projects to high yield crop varieties that have kept developing countries from starvation but are now emptying their water reserves And Pearces vivid reportage reveals the personal stories behind failing rivers barren fields desertification water wars floods and even the death of cultures Finally Pearce argues that the solution to the growing worldwide water shortage is not more and bigger dams but greater efficiency and a new water ethic based on managing the water cycle for maximum social benefit rather than narrow self interest

The Lotus and the Dynamo Charles Dunford Rowley,1960 Irrigation in Southern and Eastern Asia in Figures Karen Frenken,2012 The AQUASTAT Programme was initiated with a view to presenting a comprehensive picture of water resources and irrigation in the countries of Africa Asia Latin America and the Caribbean and providing systematic up to date and reliable information on water for agriculture and rural development This report presents the results of the most recent survey carried out in the 22 countries of the Southern and Eastern Asia region and it analyzes the changes that have occurred in the ten years since the first survey Following the AQUASTAT methodology the survey relied as much as possible on country based statistics and information

Mekong—The Occluding River Ngo The Vinh,2010-07-14 Part travelogue part history and part environmental treatise Mekong The Occluding River is above all else an urgent warning that factors such as pollution ecological devastation and the depletion of natural resources are threatening the very existence of the Mekong River Author Ngo The Vinh combines his vivid travel notes and collection of photographs with a meticulously researched history of the environmental degradation of the Mekong River Translated from Vietnamese the best selling treatise outlines the myriad threats facing the river today From oil shipments feeding the industrial cities of southwestern China to gigantic hydroelectric dams known as the Mekong Cascades in Yunnan province China is the worst environmental offender though the other nations along Mekongs banks behave no better From Thailand to Laos to Vietnam hydroelectric dams that threaten the Mekong and its inhabitants are being built at an alarming rate To save the Mekong Ngo The Vinh calls upon all the nations that benefit from its life giving water to observe the Spirit of the Mekong in the implementation of all future development projects To achieve this end there must be a concerted and sustained commitment to cooperation and sustainability At this critical cross roads we should remind ourselves of the mantra from Sea World San Diego Extinction is forever Endangered means we still have time An Almanack... Joseph Whitaker,1909 An Almanack for the Year of Our Lord ... Joseph Whitaker,1908 Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society and monthly record of geography ,1881 The Journal of the Manchester Geographical Society ,1894 Education about Asia ,2002 Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society and Monthly Record of Geography Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1881 A Burmese Loneliness Colin Metcalfe Enriquez,1918 Water Resource Conflicts and International Security Dharendra K. Vajpeyi,2012-01-01

Water Resource Conflicts and International Security A Global Perspective is an edited collection by Dharendra K Vajpeyi which analyzes the increasing global demand for water in economic and social development and the dire need to efficiently manage this vital natural resource particularly in water scarce countries in the Middle East Asia and Africa Several environmental and human induced factors such as urbanization industrialization climate change and agricultural needs have created a near crisis situation in many countries Subsequently there is an increasingly intense competition to utilize available water resources in these most heavily affected regions transboundary rivers lakes and streams which are shared by more than one country pose potential for political conflict armed conflict and in the best of cases cooperation The contributors of Water Resource Conflicts and International Security present ten case studies in seven chapters highlighting the competition between countries in Asia Africa and the Middle East In his conclusion Dharendra K Vajpeyi suggests several policy measures that governments may implement in order to minimize the potential for conflict
