The Wesleys in Cornwall, 1743-1789 Samuel J. Rogal, 2015-10-29 In nearly a half century of missionary work throughout England Wales Scotland and Ireland brothers John and Charles Wesley found the southwestern county of Cornwall to be among their most serious theological and social challenges Eighteenth century Cornwall lacked population centers and small towns and villages were isolated by inadequate roads The adult population consisted mainly of miners fisherman and smugglers men more interested in the bulk of their pocketbooks than in the status of their souls And the clergy of the Church of England overwhelmingly opposed the Wesleys and their itinerant preachers encouraging Anglicans to disrupt the Wesleys outdoor services and to attack and burn Methodist preaching houses Although the Wesleys made some evangelical progress in Cornwall the question remained upon John Wesley s death in 1791 did the mission to Cornwall succeed or fail This book considers the mission with a close reading of the Wesleys writings and covers the overall history of 18th century British Methodism and its contribution to the religious and social history of the British Empire

The Objects and Textures of Everyday Life in Imperial Britain Janet C. Myers, Deirdre H. McMahon, 2017-05-15 Focusing on everyday life in nineteenth century Britain and its imperial possessions from preparing tea to cleaning the kitchen from packing for imperial adventures to arranging home decor the essays in this collection share a common focus on materiality the nitty gritty elements that helped give shape and meaning to British self definition during the period Each essay demonstrates how preoccupations with common household goods and habits fueled contemporary debates about cultural institutions ranging from personal matters of marriage and family to more overtly political issues of empire building While existing scholarship on material culture in the nineteenth century has centered on artifacts in museums and galleries this collection brings together disparate fields history of design landscape history childhood studies and feminist and postcolonial literary studies to focus on ordinary objects and practices with specific attention to how Britons of all classes established the tenets of domesticity as central to individual happiness national security and imperial hegemony
