Road To Jerusalem Glubb Pasha Palestine And The Jews:

The Road to Jerusalem Benny Morris, 2003-10-03 General Sir John Glubb was the last British pro Consul of the region and commander of the Arab Legion during the crucial years between 1936 and 1956 which were to witness the collapse of Palestine and the final foundation and establishment of the State of Israel As well as an analysis of Glubb's personal vision of the Middle East and its peoples a surprisingly racial vision that would condition his politics this book examines his reactions to the Arab Revolt in Palestine and the periodic plans to partition Palestine and establish a Jewish state It offers an in depth account of his thinking and actions during 1948 as he led his small army into Palestine and war against Israel

The History and Politics of the Bedouin Seraje Assi, 2018-04-27 This book examines contending visions on nomadism in modern Palestine with a special focus on the British Mandate period Extending from the late Ottoman period to the founding of the State of Israel it highlights both ruptures and continuities with the Ottoman past and the Israeli present to prove that nomadism was not invented by the British or the Zionists but is the shared legacy of Ottoman British Zionist Palestinian and most recently Israeli attitudes to the Bedouin of Palestine Drawing on primary sources in Arabic and Hebrew the book shows how native conceptions of nomadism have been reconstructed by colonial and national elites into new legal taxonomies rooted in modern European theories and praxis By undertaking a comparative approach it maintains that the introduction of these taxonomies transformed not only native Palestinian perceptions of nomadism but perceptions that characterized early Zionist literature The book breaks away from the Arab Jewish duality by offering a comparative and relational study of the main forces operating under the Mandate British colonialism Labor Zionism and Arab nationalism Special attention is paid to the British side which covers the first three chapters Each chapter represents a formative stage of British colonial enterprise in Palestine extending from the late Ottoman down to the postwar and the Mandate periods A major theme is the nexus of race and ethnography reshaping British perceptions of the Bedouin of Palestine before and during the early phases of the Mandate and the ways these perceptions guided the administrative division of the country along newly demarcated racial boundaries Using an interdisciplinary approach that combines new findings in the fields of history ethnic studies postcolonial theory and environmental studies this book contributes to understandings of the Israel Palestine conflict and current trends of displacement in the Middle East

The Lemon Tree Sandy Tolan, 2008-12-01 With a new afterword by the author and a sneak preview of Sandy Tolan s new book Children of the Stone In 1967 Bashir Al Khayri a Palestinian twenty five year old journeyed to Israel with the goal of seeing the beloved old stone house with the lemon tree behind it that he and his family had fled nineteen years earlier To his surprise when he found the house he was greeted by Dalia Ashkenazi Landau a nineteen year old Israeli college student whose family fled Europe for Israel following the Holocaust On the stoop of their shared home Dalia and Bashir began a rare friendship forged in the aftermath of war and tested over the next thirty five years in ways that neither could imagine on that summer day in 1967 Based on extensive research and springing from his enormously resonant documentary that aired on NPR s Fresh Air in 1998 Sandy Tolan brings the Israeli Palestinian conflict down to its most human level suggesting that even amid the bleakest political realities there exist stories of hope and reconciliation

The Holocaust, Rebirth, and the Nakba Yair Auron, 2017-10-04 Yair Auron s important innovative and instructive book relates critically to the narratives created by Israeli society regarding the events of 1948 the establishment of the State of Israel and the Palestinian Nakba Auron proposes a humanistic approach of dialogue to foster the brotherhood of the victims and an identification with each other's suffering replacing the current relations of force driving the two peoples to a disaster of terrifying international implications Photography and Making Bedouin

Histories in the Naqab, 1906-2013 Emilie Le Febvre, 2023-12-22 Introducing a novel anthropological study of photography in the Middle East Emilie Le Febvre takes us to the Naqab Desert where Bedouin use photographs to make and respond to their own histories She argues Bedouin presentations of the past are selective but increasingly reliant on archival documents such as photographs which spokespersons treat as evidence of their local histories amid escalating tensions in Israel These practices shape Bedouin visual historicity that is the diverse ways people produce their pasts in the present with images This book charts these processes through the afterlives of six photographs c 1906 2013 as they circulate between the Naqab's entangled visual economies a transregional landscape organised by cultural ideals of proximity and assemblages of Bedouin iconography Le Febvre illustrates how representational contentions associated with tribal civic and Palestinian Israeli politics influence how images do history work in this society She concludes Bedouin visual historicity is defined by acts of persuasion during which photographs authenticate alternating history projects Here Bedouin value photographs not because they evidence singular narratives of the past Rather the knowledges inscribed by photography are multifarious as they support diverse constructions of history and society with which members mediate a wide range of relationships in southern Israel This book bridges studies of anthropology photography Palestinian Israeli politics and Bedouin Middle East history

Jordan in Pictures Jeffrey Zuehlke, 2005-01-01 Describes the history government economy people geography and cultural life of Jordan Isaiah Berlin A. Britain and Jordan Tancred Bradshaw, 2012-03-30 In the wake of the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 it has often been alleged King Abdullah I of Jordan and the Zionist movements colluded to partition Mandate Palestine between them while Great Britain the retreating imperial power gave them tacit approval to do so Here Tancred Bradshaw challenges these allegations looking at the complex and often strained relations between the emerging states of Jordan Israel and the at first hegemonic and then crumbling British Empire Using a wide range of primary sources which have previously been largely ignored Britain and Jordan offers an essential re-examination of the relationships which were to shape the Middle East as it is today It thus contains vital analysis for anyone involved in the study of the Middle East its politics and history as well as the demise of Britain's empire in the region Global Security Watch—Jordan W. Andrew

Terrill, 2010-07-20 This insightful study explores how a small state with limited economic resources has played an important role in vital ongoing Middle Eastern political and security controversies Global Security Watch Jordan provides readers with an expert comprehensive overview of significant aspects of Jordan's security including its political diplomatic and alliance building dimensions Examining how Jordan emerged from a small Arab kingdom with arbitrary borders and no clear national identity to a confident and modernizing state the book shows how today's nation effectively copes with a variety of geopolitical challenges Jordan's close relations with the United States are examined with special attention paid to ongoing U.S. Jordanian cooperation in fighting al Qaeda and its terrorist allies The work also probes Jordan's involvement in many of the great conflicts in the contemporary Middle East for example that between the Israelis and Palestinians clarifying Jordanian policies while helping the reader understand many of the regional problems Jordan finds itself forced to address
