Cultural Political Economy of Small Cities Anne Lorentzen, Bas van Heur, 2012-02-13 The volume highlights ongoing changes in the political economy of small cities in relation to the field of culture and leisure Culture and leisure are focal points both to local entrepreneurship and to planning by city governments which means that these developments are subject to market dynamics as well as to political discourse and action Public private partnerships as well as conflicts of interests characterise the field and a major issue related to the strategic development of culture and leisure is the balance between market and welfare This field is gaining importance in most cities today in planning production and consumption but to the extent that these changes have drawn academic attention it has focused on large metropolitan areas and on creative clusters and flagship high culture projects Smaller cities and their often substantively different cultural strategies have been largely ignored thus leading to a huge gap in our knowledge on contemporary urban change By bringing together a number of case studies as well as theoretical reflections on the cultural political economy of small cities this volume contributes to an emerging small cities research agenda and to the development of policy relevant expertise that is sensitive to place specific cultural dynamics In taking this approach the volume hopes to contribute to emerging research on culture and leisure economies by developing a differentiated spatial dimension to it without which sustainable urban strategies cannot be developed This book integrates perspectives of economic development with questions of governance and equity in relation to the fields of culture and leisure planning and development This book should be of interest to students and researchers of Urban Studies and Planning Regional Studies and Economics as well as Sociology and Geography Words 'n' Action E. P. McKnight,2007-05-01 Words N Action is a book of poems that is perfect for valley moments in life It serves to accommodate every human experience Words N Action is motivational inspirational and educational It serves to lift the Human Spirit Words N Action was published in the Morning Star and Poetry Laureates Sustaining Rural Systems Holly R. Barcus,William G. Moseley,2023-03-21 This book examines the interplay between rural places and the competing narratives of globalization and nationalism Through case studies from Croatia Belgium Australia the USA Argentina Bolivia Ecuador Mexico Italy and Spain this volume highlights the contemporary status of rural change through the lens of sustainability and set within current competing narratives of globalization and economic nationalism The multiplicity of roles that rural communities play in economic and social systems are often overlooked in conversations about globalization and economic nationalism Yet rural communities economies and landscapes are closely tied to global industries migrant flows and markets while simultaneously subject to nationalist economic policies and strategies The chapters in this book seek to elucidate the nuanced ties between people and industries that are at once intensely local and simultaneously tied to regional and global processes The volume challenges us to critically examine oversimplified messaging of highly complex systems and provides insights into processes of change at local scales across major global regions Sustaining Rural Systems will be of great interest to upper level students researchers and scholars in the areas of rural sociology human geography and development studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Geographical Review Our Indifferent Universe Surazeus Astarius,2019-01-25 Our Indifferent Universe presents 903 poems written 2015 2017 by Surazeus that explore what it means to be a human in our indifferent universe Roads to the Unconscious Michael Joseph Hanes,1997-11 Lost in Transition Aaron D. Purcell,2023-09-29 In Lost in Transition Removing Resettling and Renewing Appalachia Aaron D Purcell presents a thematic and chronological exploration of twentieth century removal and resettlement projects across southern Appalachia The book shares complex stories of loss and recollection that have grown and evolved over time This edited volume contains seven case studies of public land removal actions in Virginia Kentucky the Carolinas and Tennessee from the 1930s through the 1960s Some of the removals include the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Norris Basin Shenandoah

National Park and the New River the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and the Keowee Toxaway Project in northwestern South Carolina Each essay asks key questions How did governmental entities throughout the twentieth century deal with land acquisition and removal of families and communities What do the oral histories of the families and communities particularly from different generations tell us about the legacies of these removals This collection reveals confrontations between past and present federal agencies and citizens and the original accounts of removal and resettlement and contemporary interpretations The result is a blending of practical historical concerns with contemporary nostalgia and romanticism which often deepen the complexity of Appalachian cultural life Lost in Transition provides a nuanced and insightful study of removal and resettlement projects that applies critical analysis of fact mythology and storytelling It illustrates the important role of place in southern Appalachian history This collection is a helpful resource to anthropologists folklorists and Appalachian studies scholars and a powerful volume of stories for all readers who reflect upon the importance of place and home
