were all born into one Most of us over the years have by choice or necessity molded ours into the much more familiar and predictable place we call home But strange lands are still out there everywhere By strange lands I mean those relationships teams organizations or foreign lands within which we must deal effectively with new peoples cultures places and technologies Increasingly we confront these lands abroad on global assignments for multinationals in foreign study or intercultural marriage or even as tourists We encounter them face to face or online as we participate more and more in geographically dispersed teams And of course we encounter them at home every time we wander into our culturally diverse office classroom or bar Presence in Strange Lands focuses most significantly on those literal new lands encountered on sojourns abroad though it deals significantly with these others as well Why do we journey to such lands That in a nutshell is what this book is about In spite of ecoshock frustration fatigue failure and sometimes danger what lures we sojourners from home to the road What causes us to journey to these strange lands for an assignment a career or a lifetime What keeps us there And what entices us back there again and again the job the money the adventure the people and cultures we find the challenges we encounter the stories we can later tell That is what this book is about It is also about the tools we need to take with us to be optimally effective in these lands But most particularly it explores the experience of a sense of presence the heightened immediacy broad awareness vividness responsiveness and clarity so commonly described by sojourners on these journeys It explores what a sense of presence is what induces it what nurtures it and its key role in helping us deal with the challenges to success encountered in these lands It introduces the presence seekers sometimes presence junkies for whom a heightened presence is the allure of a life on the road And it describes what happens as we return to that once familiar land we called home Presence in Strange Lands unfolds through the words of numerous sojourners on a broad variety of journeys to very diverse lands an excerpt from one such opens this prospectus These descriptions of a sense of presence were elicited through several research projects with methodologies ranging from informal interviews to focus groups to web based forums They are intertwined with interpretation based on current research and theory to guide readers to a better understanding of their own experiences and to better deal with the challenges encountered in their own strange lands Shopping for

Buddhas Jeff Greenwald, 2014-08-12 Jeff Greenwald's classic travelogue follows his quest for the perfect Buddha statue At turns hilarious and moving his quest features a cast of amazing characters from a passionate palmist to a flying lama who provide unforgettable glimpses into the daily life and culture of the former kingdom including a wild ride on Kathmandu's very first escalator Greenwald doesn't shy away from Shangri-la's darker side Along with colorful descriptions of Hindu and Buddhist mythology the book tells of the rampant corruption art smuggling assassination attempts and human rights abuses that would ignite Nepal's violent People Power Revolution in April 1990 A new afterword by the author recounts Nepal's tumultuous recent history including the massacre of the royal family in vivid detail And a new preface introduces this 25th anniversary edition with some thoughts about how Nepal and travel writing have evolved since the book's first publication

Shopping for Buddhas remains a must read for anyone who has visited or plans to visit Nepal      The Best Travel Writing 2009 Sean O'Reilly, 2010-12-30 This is the collection of the best travel writing of the year much of it never published before from big names in travel literature and emerging new writers The Best Travel Writing 2009 is the sixth volume in the annual Travelers Tales series launched in 2004 to celebrate the world's best travel writing from Nobel Prize winners to emerging new writers The points of view and perspectives are global and themes encompass high adventure spiritual growth romance hilarity and misadventure service to humanity and encounters with exotic cuisine Reading these stories is like sitting in a cafe filled with fellow travelers swapping tales about past adventures and ideas where to head next This edition takes readers on a harrowing raft ride off the coast of Panama on a whirlwind tour from Florence to Santorini into the wilds of Patagonia and to a colourful village in Ghana      Travelers' Tales Nepal Rajendra S.
