Bureau of Public Roads,1907      As Pilgrims Progress - Learning how Christians can walk hand in hand when they don't see eye to eye Stephen John March,David E. Bjork,2015-05-29 This book is for Roman Catholic and Evangelical Protestant lay people who wonder what relationship if any they might have with their friends who come from a different Christian faith tradition than their own The authors aim to address that question in a practical way They believe that while disagreements remain it is possible to preserve the integrity of the faith while relating positively to Christians who cherish other beliefs The opinions expressed in this book grew out of nearly thirty years of experience as evangelical protestant missionaries ministering in catholic parish communities in France The goal of the book is to move the readers beyond simply understanding each other to a place where they might begin using their diversity to stimulate and encourage each other in our common pursuit of obedient discipleship We know of no other book which targets ecumenical lay relations in this way      End of the Road William Riggs,2022-05-23 This book offers a unique look at streets as locations that can evolve to support the economic social cultural and natural aspects of cities It focuses on how the power of streets can be harnessed to shape more dynamic spaces for walking biking and living and stimulate urban vitality and community regeneration      The Street Railway Journal ,1904      African Identity Today in the Writings of John Maxwell Coetzee and Ben Silver Okri Heba Mohamed Abdelaziz,2024-12-15 African Identity Today in the Writings of John Maxwell Coetzee and Ben Silver Okri is a comparative study of the writings of the South African author John Maxwell Coetzee and the Nigerian author Ben Silver Okri It charts the thematic and technical presentation of cultural identity in the literary output of both authors with special reference to their respective trilogies namely Coetzee s Scenes from Provincial Life and Okri s The Famished Road Through examining these texts the book explores the dilemmas faced by many contemporary authors while discussing issues related to the construction of cultural identity in a postcolonial world Studying Coetzee s and Okri s texts from a postcolonial perspective reveals how their very different writings share a range of commonalities Both authors seek to find a middle ground between colonised and colonising cultures as they attempt to deconstruct the stereotypical images of the Other creating a world purified of racial influences      The Damascus Way (Acts of Faith Book #3) Janette Oke,Davis Bunn,2011-01-01 Julia has everything money can buy except for acceptance by either the Gentiles or the Jews Her Greek father already has a wife and family leaving Julia and her Hebrew mother second class citizens But when they are introduced to followers of the Way they become part of that community of believers Abigail s brother Jacob now a young man is attempting to discover his own place as a Christian He is concerned that being more serious about his faith means trading away the exhilaration of his current profession as a caravan guard Hired by Julia s father to protect the wealthy merchant s caravans on the secretive Frankincense Trail undercover transport of this highly valuable commodity Jacob also passes letters and messages between various communities of believers He is alarmed to find out that Julia hardly more than a girl is also a messenger Can their immediate mistrust be put aside to finally bring their
