Roads of the Heart Christopher Tilghman, 2004 A powerful story of a family has at its center a man's journey to understand, reconnect with his father, his family, his past, and himself

Lone Dog Road Kent Nerburn, 2025-05-20 A tale of compassion and redemption from an award-winning author whose writing Louise Erdrich has praised as storytelling with a greatness of heart. During the drought-stricken summer of 1950, two Lakota boys, ages eleven and six, huddle in a boxcar hurtling through the prairie at night as they run from a government agent sent to take the younger boy to an Indian boarding school. But what begins as a pursuit soon becomes a complex drama of intersecting lives as the boys make their way across the vast Dakota plains to the pipestone quarries of western Minnesota to replace their great grandfather's channunpa or sacred pipe that was broken by the agent. Alive with a rich tapestry of characters the boys meet along their journey, this riveting story is at once an exploration of the hidden corners of the human heart and a moving study of the way the land shapes the people who live, love, dream, and die upon it. Sprawling yet intimate, Lone Dog Road is destined to take its place in the grand tradition of great American road novels

The Road to Spiritual Freedom, Mahanta Transcripts, Book 17 Harold Klemp, 2019-04-15 Do you relish life? Is it an adventure of discovery, joy, and satisfaction? It can be. Harold Klemp confronts a world of limitations and offers startling possibilities. His wisdom and heart-opening stories of everyday people having extraordinary experiences tell of a secret truth at work in your life: there is divine purpose and meaning to every experience you have. Every single moment of your life is the handiwork of a higher cause. And you can know what it is. Hint: God's love is the key, and spiritual freedom is the goal. If you want true freedom from the limitations upon your heart, mind, and spirit, here's a chance to earn it. Be open to the inner voice of Soul, your true self, as you explore the revelations given within these pages. Pay attention to your dreams. Invite the wonder of the great unknown into your being. Are you ready to accept the freedom of a new state of consciousness? Then nothing can hold you back. Spiritual freedom can be yours. Eckankar is a modern-day spiritual teaching with ancient roots, founded in 1965 by Paul Twitchell. Harold Klemp is the current spiritual leader of Eckankar since 1981

With illus. by Phiz Charles Lever, 1894 Pilgrims of Christ on the Muslim Road Paul-Gordon Chandler, 2008-11-16 For publicity events and speaking engagements see <http://www.paulgordonchandler.com/schedule.htm> Today's tensions between the Islamic East and Christian West run high Here Paul Gordon Chandler presents fresh thinking in the area of Christian Muslim relations showing how Christ whom Islam reveres as a Prophet and Christianity worships as the divine Messiah can close the gap between the two religions Historically Christians have taken a confrontational or missionary approach toward Islam leading many Muslims to identify Christianity with the cultural prejudices and hegemonic ambitions of Westerners On the individual level Christ followers within Islam have traditionally been encouraged by Christians to break away from their Muslim communities Chandler boldly explores how these two major religions which share much common heritage can not only co exist but also enrich each other He illustrates his perspective with examples from the life of Syrian novelist Mazhar Mallouhi widely read in the Middle East Mallouhi a self identified Sufi Muslim follower of Christ seeks to bridge the chasm of misunderstanding between Muslims and Christians through his novels

Styles of Extinction: Cormac McCarthy's The Road Julian Murphet, Mark Steven, 2012-06-28 Styles of Extinction Cormac McCarthy's The Road brings together several leading literary scholars one major philosopher as well as a handful of emerging critical voices all of whom deploy their own specialist methods in order to think through this bestselling Zeitgeist defining event of contemporary literature There are two dominant modes of analysis gathered here the first performed by Julian Murphet Paul Sheehan and Mark Steven is to locate the novel within its political spiritual and economic climates the second whose exponents include Paul Patton Sean Pryor Chris Danta and Grace Hellyer deals with the formal dimensions of McCarthy's characteristically brilliant prose in relation to its sparse narrative By coupling historically sensitive analysis with incisive formal criticism the contributors not only account for the matchless form of this exemplary novel they also suggest that The Road has something unique to disclose about the world we inhabit Handbook of Polish, Czech, and Slovak Holocaust Fiction Elisa-Maria Hiemer, Jiří Holý, Agata Firlej, Hana Nichtburgerová, 2021-06-21 The Handbook of Polish Czech and Slovak Holocaust Fiction aims to increase the visibility and show the versatility of works from East Central European countries It is the first encyclopedic work to bridge the gap between the literary production of countries that are considered to be main sites of the Holocaust and their recognition in international academic and public discourse It contains over 100 entries offering not only facts about the content and motifs but also pointing out the characteristic fictional features of each work and its meaning for academic discourse and wider reception in the country of origin and abroad The publication will appeal to the academic and broader public interested in the representation of the Holocaust anti-Semitism and World War II in literature and the arts Besides prose it also considers poetry and theatrical plays from 1943 through 2018 An introduction to the historical events and cultural developments in Poland Czechoslovakia Czech and Slovak Republic and their impact on the artistic output helps to contextualise the motif changes and fictional strategies that authors have been applying for decades The publication is the result of long term scholarly cooperation of specialists from four countries and several dozen academic centres

The Figure of the Road Christopher D. Morris, 2007 The Figure of the Road examines the metaphor of the road way or path in works of representative humanities disciplines literature religion philosophy visual art popular culture to show how writers and artists anticipated the dilemma known to contemporary deconstruction as the aporia or pathless place This tradition exposes the solution advocated in Derrida's late thought the search for the tout autre as a negative theology and suppression of writing's freedom to allegorize these insoluble problems The Figure of the Road concludes by tracing the bleak Beckett like implications of this freedom for curriculum and ethics in a world understood as wholly figural new Madison River Romance After her husband's tragic death Ryann Marie Ashcroft's only remaining dream is to save her family's struggling mountain resort And the last person she wants to rely on is a brooding stranger with secrets of his own Nicknamed America's rock and roll pastor Shane Olson arrives in Montana after a viral video destroys his marriage his ministry and his reputation Working side by side on the banks of the Madison River he and Ryann get a second chance at love But not everyone wants to see their happily ever after Antebellum American Women Writers and the Road Susan L.

Roberson,2012-07-26 A study of American women's narratives of mobility and travel this book examines how geographic movement opened up other movements or mobilities for antebellum women at a time of great national expansion Concerned with issues of personal and national identity the study demonstrates how women not only went out on the open road but participated in public discussions of nationhood in the texts they wrote Roberson examines a variety of narratives and subjects including not only traditional travel narratives of voyages to the West or to foreign locales but also the ways travel and movement figured in autobiography spiritual and political narratives and domestic novels by women as they constructed their own politics of mobility These narratives by such women as Margaret Fuller Susan Warner and Harriet Beecher Stowe destabilize the male dominated stories of American travel and nation building as women claimed the public road as a domain in which they belonged bringing with them their own ideas about mobility self and nation The many women's stories of mobility also destabilize a singular view of women's history and broaden our outlook on geographic movement and its repercussions for other movements Looking at texts not usually labeled travel writing like the domestic novel brings to light social relations enacted on the road and the relation between story location and mobility A Road Unknown Barbara
