Méthod(e)s Jean-Bernard Ouédraogo, 2021-08-09 The bilingual French English journal M thod e s founded in 2015 is an African initiative with the objective to enlarge the methodological debates on the Global South The desire for a strong understanding of methodology is to situate it above academic trends thereby placing it in line with a universal history of the sciences Just as calling dominant paradigms into question leaves room for creative opportunities so does the comparison of theoretical approaches and technical models of data collection Questions related to methods are not purely technical or merely philosophical reflections The examination of the method used in scientific investigations necessarily leads us to question the validity and consequences of research results From this point of view the journal M thod e s is not a forum for simple discussions on the mechanics of research but a tool to question social interests influencing academic research and giving it a political function It is also intended to lead to a more critical look at the creation of theories dealing with the status of individuals and societies in Africa and the Global South. Methods aims to bring into question, connect and compare the theoretical, technical and political foundations of the social sciences as applied to human societies. Each contribution is followed by a summary in the respective other language. In order to ensure a broad intellectual reach, the editors reserve the right to include articles written in other languages. All the abstracts of the papers are also available in Arabic, Chinese and Spanish.

Seeking the Identity of Jesus Beverly Roberts Gaventa, Richard B. Hays, 2008-10-15. In view of the proliferation of conflicting images of Jesus in the church, in the academy and in popular culture, it is no wonder that his identity sometimes appears more elusive than ever. Seeking the Identity of Jesus brings together an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars from the fields of biblical studies, theology and church history to focus on the complex problems surrounding the quest for the historical Jesus. Their perspectives are richly informed by Scripture, testimony from the church's past and experience of the risen Jesus in the present. Contributors: Dale C. Allison Jr., Gary A. Anderson, Markus Bockmuehl, Sarah Coakley, Brian E. Daley, Beverly Roberts Gaventa, Katherine Grieb, Richard B. Hays, Robert W. Jenson, Joel Marcus, R. W. L. Moberly, William C. Placher, Katherine Sonderegger, David C. Steinmetz, Marianne Meye Thompson, Francis Watson.

Beyond Bumper Sticker Ethics Steve Wilkens, 2011-08-02. Steve Wilkens exposes the complex ethical systems lurking behind the most common slogans of our culture, offering a Christian evaluation of each. Freud, V.1 Paul E. Stepansky, 2015-01-28. A response to the veritable renaissance in Freud studies, Freud Appraisals and Reappraisals presents the readers with the fruits of recent scholarship on Freud, the man and scientist, and the origins and development of the psychoanalytic movement spawned by his work. The premier volume of this series offers three major essays embodying different tributaries of contemporary Freud research. Peter Swales, drawing on extensive archival research, reveals the identity and explores the life and times of the woman Freud terms his first teacher but presented to his readers only as the Frau Caecilie M. of the Studies on Hysteria. Barry Silverstein brings together complementary strands of textual analysis and psychobiographical reconstruction in his provocative reconsideration of the circumstances surrounding Freud's lost papers on metapsychology. Finally, Edwin Wallace's integrative review of Freud's scattered remarks on ethics and morality, combined with his appraisal of Freud's personal ethics, yield a measured and scholarly account of Freud as ethicist. Briefer essays on Freud and the oral tradition, Patrick Mahony's psychology of religion, Paul Stepansky's recent assessments of Freud's character, John Gedo's round out a volume that is destined for a place of distinction in the secondary literature on Freud. Collectively, these essays represent a most auspicious debut for the new series; they admirably bear out Paul Stepansky's intent of presenting readers with original articles that embody high scholarship and a thought provoking and imaginative use of the fruits of this scholarship

Lineages of the Global City Shibden Banerji, 2025-07-08 The forgotten history of the occult foundations of the early twentieth-century global city. War, revolution, genocide, rebellion, slump. The economic and political turmoil of the early twentieth century seemed destined to rip asunder the ties that bound colonizers and the colonized to one another. The upheaval represented an opportunity, not just to nationalists who imagined new homelands or to socialists who dreamed of international brotherhood. For modernists in the orbit of various occultisms, the crisis of empire also represented an opportunity to reveal humanity's fundamental unity and common fate. Lineages of the Global City recounts a continuous, if also contentious, transnational exchange among modernists and occultists across the Americas, Europe, South Asia, and Australia between 1905 and 1949. At stake were the feelings and affect of a new global subject who would perceive themselves as belonging to humanity as a unified whole and the urban environment that would foster their subjectivity. The interventions in this debate which drew in the period's most renowned modernists took the form of a succession of plans for cities suburbs and communes as well as experiments in building drawing printmaking filmmaking and writing Weaving together postcolonial feminist and Marxist insight on subject formation Shibden Banerji advances a new way of understanding modernist urban space as the design of subjective effects The Philosophy of Human Nature Zhu, Xi, 1922
