The Book of Proper Names Amélie Nothomb, 2004-08 The latest novel by France's literary lioness Elle Magazine tells the story of an orphan girl named haplessly Plectrude. Raised by an eccentric if loving aunt she is a dreamy child who is discovered to have enormous gifts as a dancer. Accepted at Paris's most prestigious ballet school Plectrude devotes herself to artistic perfection until the body can take no more.

The Cry of Vertières Jean-Pierre Le Glaunec, 2020-05-21 This book tells the story of the Battle of Vertières fought in 1803 between indigenous Haitian forces under the leadership of Jean Jacques Dessalines and a French expeditionary army commanded by Napoleon. The battle marked the culmination of a thirteen year revolutionary struggle to end slavery and the dawn of an independent Haiti. Yet despite its pivotal importance to the history of Haiti, France and the Americas the Battle of Vertières has been struck from the record. The Cry of Vertières is the first book length study of the battle drawing from an array of sources including military correspondence, Haitian literature, art and popular music. The event itself is recounted in vivid detail; it is a dramatic story of a volunteer army of former slaves seeking the promises of freedom and citizenship held out by the revolution, defeating a colonial power determined to re-enslave them. The book also examines why the history of the battle has been suppressed in France: an act of erasure of a humiliating defeat and why it remains fragile even in Haiti. Jean Pierre Le Glaunec explains that today Vertières is both a key lieu de mémoire that embodies reconciliation, pride and strength for the Haitian people and a figure of speech exploited by politicians to reinforce their power. Describing a decisive yet largely forgotten moment in the revolutionary history of the Americas, The Cry of Vertières makes an essential contribution to the complex subjects of race, memory, colonialism and cultural nationalism in present day France and Haiti.

The Dead Father Lila J. Kalinich, Stuart W. Taylor, 2008-10-27 What is the significance of the Father in psychoanalysis today? This book constructs a much needed framework to allow psychoanalysts to consider the difficulties of a generation without a solid anchor in the Father. The Dead Father: A Psychoanalytic Inquiry provides a necessary addition to decades of work on the role of the mother in development. The editors bring together world renowned scholars to discuss current observations in their fields in terms of the Father's changing but essential functions both in the lives of the individual and collective Divided into four parts chapters focus on The Lost Father The Father Embodied The Father in Theory Father Culture Exploring the role of the father in individual psychology everyday interpersonal and social experience and cultural phenomena writ large this book will be essential reading for psychoanalysts as well as psychologists social workers and scholars in the humanities

Culture and Identity in Belgian Francophone Writing Susan Bainbrigge, 2009 Few full length studies exist in English on French speaking authors from Belgium What if any are the particular features of francophone Belgian writing This book explores questions of cultural and literary identity and offers an overview of currents in critical debate regarding the place of francophone Belgian writing and its relationship to its larger neighbour but also engages with broader questions concerning the classification of francophone literature The study brings together well known and less well known modern and contemporary writers Suzanne Lilar Neel Doff Dominique Rolin Jacqueline Harpman Fran oise Mallet Joris Jean Muno Nicole Malinconi and Am lie Nothomb whose works share a number of recurring themes and features notably a preoccupation with questions of identity and alterity Overall the study highlights the diverse ways in which these questions of cultural identity and alterity emerge as a dominant theme throughout the corpus viewed through a series of literary and cultural frameworks which bring together perspectives both local and global Planning non existent dictionaries João Paulo Silvestre, Alina Villalva , 2015 There is an increasing number of dictionary types and lexical search tools designed to respond to an ever growing array of user needs The quest for innovation however is not over and this is what this book shall shed light on In the autumn of 2013 a conference entitled Planning non existent dictionaries was held at the University of Lisbon Scholars and lexicographers were invited to present and submit for discussion their research and practices focusing on aspects that are traditionally perceived as shortcomings by dictionary makers and dictionary users The topics for debate were intended to be provocative the identification of dictionary types that have never been developed for certain languages or for a given lexical domain as well as typological and linguistic problems that may compromise the development of lexicographic projects We hoped that the discussion would lead to the presentation of problem solving strategies especially those related to corpora documentation information technology and data presentation We received an incredible response and have had the opportunity to acknowledge several projects that are different in size novelty and degree of accomplishment Taking Aviation to New Heights Jacqueline Cardinal, Laurent Lapierre, 2013-11-19 To chart the inspiring journey of Pierre Jeanniot is to trace the remarkable development of the air transport industry In his youth Jeanniot survived the bombing of Rome the occupation of France and was a witness to the Resistance in the Jura Mountains In 1963 after the Sainte Th r se air tragedy and the threat of finding himself jobless Jeanniot was inspired to create the famous Black Box which has since become a pillar of aviation security Under his direction Air Canada chose the Airbus rather than the Boeing to renew its fleet in the midst of a highly visible political crisis Against all odds Jeanniot also orchestrated the successful privatization of the airline His visionary speech at Amman delivered when he was at the helm of the International Air Transport Association IATA laid out modern aviation s most urgent priorities regarding accident prevention protection of the environment and technological progress A master of logistics he successfully negotiated the impasse in the skies following the September 11 terrorist attacks and handled the many complications that came in their wake Pierre Jeanniot s influence has been felt far beyond the aviation world His longstanding desire to facilitate access to higher learning led him to participate actively in the founding of the Universit du Qu bec A skilled diplomat he also helped to resolve political problems in Iran Libya North Korea and the Middle East Taking Aviation to New Heights is the story of a great leader who has left an indelible mark on his milieu He has truly piloted aviation to new heights This book is published in English Cherchez la femme Erika Fülöp, 2011-05-25 Throughout history the most fundamental values at the basis of societal organization and culture were determined and sanctified almost exclusively by men including the values traditionally associated with women such as corporeal beauty purity motherhood or empathy However from ancient times and increasingly toward the end of the second millennium women have succeeded in finding ways to overcome such limits and have made their contributions to the revision of values and to the establishment of new ones Cherchez la femme offers a selection of essays inquiring into the nature of aesthetic linguistic cultural and social values created informed or reformed by women in the French speaking world as well as studies on how the discourse of male power used female figures to strengthen its own position With topics ranging in time from Semiramis s ancient legend to today and in space from Qu bec to Haiti metropolitan France and New Caledonia the volume shares the richness and fruitfulness of the female perspective in art culture theory and political action Middlebrow Matters Diana Holmes, 2018 This is the first book to study the middlebrow novel in France It asks what middlebrow means and applies the term positively to explore the poetics of the types of novel that have attracted ordinary fiction readers in their majority female since the end of the 19th century Eating Disorders in Contemporary French Women's Writing Lucille Cairns, 2023-05-15 Eating Disorders in Contemporary French Women s Writing examines the most common types of Eating Disorders EDs anorexia nervosa bulimia nervosa bulimarexia and binge eating disorder as represented in contemporary French women s literature The primary corpus comprises 40 autobiographical and very occasionally
