Robert Frank:

Robert Frank R. Frank,1994      Robert Frank Robert Frank,1976      Robert Frank Robert Frank,1994      Robert Frank Robert Frank,2016-09 This book is dedicated to Frank's film and video oeuvre. Containing film stills, essays, and summaries of each film as well as comprehensive bibliographic and technical data, it is the definitive companion to Frank's films. With essays by Michael Barchet, Philip Brookman, Stefan Grisseman, Kent Jones, Thomas Mie, Pia Neumann, Bert Rebhandl, Amy Taubin, Interview with Allen Ginsberg.      American Witness RJ Smith,2017-11-07 From the author of the acclaimed James Brown biography The One, comes the first in-depth biography of renowned photographer and filmmaker Robert Frank, best known for his landmark book The Americans. As well known as Robert Frank the photographer, few can say they really know Robert Frank the man. Born and raised in wartime Switzerland, Frank discovered the power and allure of photography at an early age and quickly learned that the art meant significantly more to him than the money, success, or fame. The art was all, and he intended to spend a lifetime pursuing it. American Witness is the first comprehensive look at the life of a man who's as mysterious and evasive as he is prolific and gifted. Leaving his rigid Switzerland for the more fluid United States in 1947, Frank found himself at the red-hot social center of bohemian New York in the 50s and 60s, becoming friends with everyone from Jack Kerouac, Allen Ginsberg, and Peter Orlovsky to photographer Walker Evans, actor Zero Mostel, painter Willem de Kooning, filmmaker Jonas Mekas, Bob Dylan, writer Rudy Wurlitzer, jazz musicians Ornette Coleman and Charles Mingus, and more. Frank roamed the country with his young family, taking roughly 27,000 photographs and collecting 83 of them into what is still his most famous work, The Americans. His was an America nobody had seen before, and if it was harshly criticized upon publication for its portrait of a divided country, the collection gradually grew to be recognized as a transformative American vision. And then he turned his back on certain success, giving up photography to reinvent himself as a film and video maker. Frank helped found the American independent cinema of the 1960s and made a legendary film with the Rolling Stones. Today, the nonagenarian is an embodiment of restless creativity and a symbol of what it costs to remain original in America; his life defined by never repeating himself, never being satisfied. American Witness is a portrait of a singular artist and the country that he saw.      Robert Frank - Part two, 2002      Robert Frank : the complete film works, 2008      Robert Frank Sigurd Ibsen,2023-07-18 A biography of Swiss photographer and filmmaker Robert Frank, known for his influential work The Americans. This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity, individual, or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work. Photographer Robert Frank is best known for his seminal 1958 book The Americans which was controversial when first published for its casual camerawork and bleak view of America. Frank is now widely recognized as having developed a distinct new art form the photo book. The Books So Far is an exquisite limited edition of 1500 hand made boxes containing all 17 of the photo books that Frank has made with Steidl since joining forces in 2004. They include The Americans, Portfolio Peru, Me and My Brother, One Hour Away, Black White and Things. Mabou New York to Nova Scotia Storylines Pull My Daisy Hold Still Keep Going Come Again Paris Polaroids Zero Mostel Reads a Book and London Wales. A remarkable object this collection is an exhaustive celebration of Frank's oeuvre and a record of the evolution of the photo book.

Photography and Jewish History Amos Morris-Reich, 2022-11-15 It is a sign of the accepted evidentiary status of photographs that historians regularly append them to their accounts. Amos Morris Reich observes Very often however these photographs are treated as mere illustrations simple documentations of the events that transpired. Scholars of photography on the other hand tend to prioritize the photographs themselves relegating the historical contexts to the background. For Morris Reich however photography exists within reality it partakes in and is very much a component of the history it records. Morris Reich examines how photography affects categories of history and experience how it is influenced by them and the ways in which our understanding of the relationship between history and photography can be theorized and reoriented. Morris Reich here turns to five twentieth century cases in which photography and Jewish history intersect. Albert Kahn's utopian attempt to establish a photographic archive in Paris in order to advance world peace the spectacular failed project of Helmar Lerski the most prominent photographer in British Mandate Jewish Palestine photography in the long career of Eugen Fischer a Nazi professor of genetics the street photography of Robert Frank and the first attempt to introduce photography into the study of Russian Jewry prior to World War I as seen from the post Holocaust perspective of the early twenty first century. Illustrated with nearly 100 images Photography and Jewish History moves beyond a focus on Jewish photographers or the photographic representation of Jews or Jewish visibility to plumb the deeper and more significant registers of twentieth century Jewish political history.

Robert Frank, 1985 Robert Frank's The Americans, 2009 Photography's Last Century Jeff L. Rosenheim, 2020-03-09 Beginning with Paul Strand's landmark From the Viaduct in 1916 and continuing through the present day Photography's Last Century examines defining moments in the history of the medium. Featuring nearly 100 masterworks from one of the most important private holdings of photography the book includes works by Diane Arbus Richard Avedon Walker Evans László Moholy-Nagy Man Ray and Cindy Sherman as well as a diverse group of important lesser known practitioners. A fascinating interview with Ann Tenenbaum provides a personal account of the works while the main

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

What Do Pictures Want? W. J. T. Mitchell, 2013-12-23 Why do we have such extraordinarily powerful responses toward the images and pictures we see in everyday life Why do we behave as if pictures were alive possessing the power to influence us to demand things from us to persuade us seduce us or even lead us astray According to W. J. T. Mitchell we need to reckon with images not just as inert objects that convey meaning but as animated beings with desires needs appetites demands and drives of their own What Do Pictures Want? explores this idea and highlights Mitchell's innovative and profoundly influential thinking on picture theory and the lives and loves of images Ranging across the visual arts literature and mass media Mitchell applies characteristically brilliant and wry analyses to Byzantine icons and cyberpunk films racial stereotypes and public monuments ancient idols and modern clones offensive images and found objects American photography and aboriginal painting Opening new vistas in iconology and the emergent field of visual culture he also considers the importance of Dolly the Sheep who as a clone fulfills the ancient dream of creating a living image and the destruction of the World Trade Center on 9/11 which among other things signifies a new and virulent form of iconoclasm What Do Pictures Want? offers an immensely rich and suggestive account of the interplay between the visible and the readable A work by one of our leading theorists of visual representation it will be a touchstone for art historians literary critics anthropologists and philosophers alike A treasury of episodes generally overlooked by art history and visual studies that turn on images that walk by themselves and exert their own power over the living Norman Bryson Artforum
