Selected and Edited by Constance and Jack Glenn*, 1988 Robert Motherwell, 2002 Robert Motherwell Mary Ann Caws, 2013-06-01 Robert Motherwell was by far the most intellectual and articulate of the Abstract Expressionists This book written by a friend of the artist the well known writer and critic Mary Ann Caws examines Motherwell's way of thinking and writing in relation to his paintings The artist American by birth yet simultaneously American and European in his way of visualizing and vocalizing artistic and philosophical traditions always worked between these two poles and it is this tension that imbues his work with its particular intensity The author bases her analysis of Motherwell on the artist's own writings and readings as well as on extensive conversations and interviews with him She considers his work and interests in relation to those of other Abstract Expressionists as well as to the work of the Surrealists Her book highlights his deep attraction to France and French literature and art and his concern with the idea of elegy and the tragedy of the Spanish Civil War His singularly American spirit provided him with a manner of painting and thinking unique among the Abstract Expressionists as well as with a distinctive and highly personal filter through which to interpret his fascination with European literature and history The Prints of Robert Motherwell Stephanie Terenzio, Robert Motherwell, Dorothy C. Robert Motherwell, 1999 Writings on art from 1941 to 1988 Minos and the Moderns Theodore Ziolkowski, 2008-07-17 Minos and the Moderns considers three mythological complexes that enjoyed a unique surge of interest in early twentieth century European art and literature Europa and the bull the minotaur and the labyrinth and Daedalus and Icarus All three are situated on the island of Crete and are linked by the figure of King Minos Drawing examples from fiction poetry drama painting sculpture opera and ballet Minos and the Moderns is the first book of its kind to treat the role of the Cretan myths in the modern imagination Beginning with the resurgence of Crete in the modern consciousness in 1900 following the excavations of Sir Arthur Evans Theodore Ziolkowski shows how the tale of Europa in poetry drama and art but also in cartoons advertising and currency was initially seized upon as a story of sexual awakening then as a vehicle for social and political satire and finally as a symbol of European unity In contrast the minotaur provided artists ranging from Picasso to Drenmatt with an image of the artist's sense of alienation while the labyrinth suggested to many writers the threatening sociopolitical world of the twentieth century Ziolkowski also considers the roles of such modern figures as Marx Nietzsche and Freud of travelers to Greece and Crete from Isadora Duncan to Henry Miller and of the theorists and writers including T

S Eliot and Thomas Mann who hailed the use of myth in modern literature Minos and the Moderns concludes with a summary of the manners in which the economic aesthetic psychological and anthropological revisions enabled precisely these myths to be taken up as a mirror of modern consciousness The book will appeal to all readers interested in the classical tradition and its continuing relevance and especially to scholars of Classics and modern literatures Joycean Cultures, Culturing Joyces Vincent John Cheng, Kimberly J. Devlin, Margot Norris, 1998 This volume presents a cultural criticism that analyzes the politics art fashion and constructions of the body inscribed and transcribed in the Joycean text The essays illustrate the dynamic interaction of art culture and criticism They simultaneously explore the impact that Joyce s own culture both high and low had on his art while assessing Joyce s reciprocal influence on our own contemporary culture Following the paths of a long and pluralistic tradition of Joyce criticism the new methodologies in this volume create or culture a new Joyce for the nineties Lines of Discovery Philip L. Brewer, Bruce W. Chambers, Columbus Museum (Columbus, Ga.), Marilyn Laufer, 2006 A major survey of American art from the Colonial period to the early 21st century Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1990 Robert Motherwell , 1973 Robert Motherwell , 1974 Robert Motherwell Robert Motherwell, Walker Art Center, 1986 The Life of Forms in Art Brandon Taylor, 2020-10-01 What is form in modern art How could a work of art achieve its organic life in a world increasingly dominated by mechanism by new technology In this new book Brandon Taylor proposes that biology and the life sciences themselves supplied many of the analogies and metaphors by which modern artists were guided For the creative giants of the period Picasso Mir Kandinsky Strzeminski Dal Arp Motherwell and Pollock as well as less known figures such as Taeuber Erni and Kobro questions of living form loomed large in studio conversation in the press and in the writings of the artists themselves In a book rich in new research and fresh thinking a well known art historian proposes six modalities of organic and vital life that pervade the radical experiments of modern art the organic the biomorphic the ambiguous the monstrous the dialectical and the liquid Art Journal , 1988
