Robert Lowell The Modern Writers Series:

Robert Lowell John Crick, 1974 Shades of Authority Stephen James, 2007-01-01 What is the relationship between poetry and power Should poetry be considered a mode of authority or an impotent medium And why is it that the modern poets most commonly regarded as authoritative are precisely those whose works wrestle with a sense of artistic inadequacy Such questions lie at the heart of Shades of Authority prompting fresh insights into three of the most important poets of recent decades Robert Lowell Geoffrey Hill and Seamus Heaney Through attentive close readings James shows how their responsiveness to matters of political and cultural import lends weight to the idea of poetry as authoritative utterance but also how each is exercised by a sense of the limitations and liabilities of language itself A Splendid Intelligence: The Life of Elizabeth Hardwick Cathy Curtis, 2021-11-16 The first biography of the extraordinary essayist critic and short story writer Elizabeth Hardwick author of the semiautobiographical novel Sleepless Nights Born in Kentucky Elizabeth Hardwick left for New York City on a Greyhound bus in 1939 and quickly made a name for herself as a formidable member of the intellectual elite Her eventful life included stretches of dire poverty romantic escapades and dustups with authors she eviscerated in The New York Review of Books of which she was a cofounder She formed lasting friendships with literary notables including Mary McCarthy Adrienne Rich and Susan Sontag who appreciated her sharp wit and relish for gossip progressive politics and great literature Hardwick's life and writing were shaped by a turbulent marriage to the poet Robert Lowell whom she adored standing by faithfully through his episodes of bipolar illness Lowell's decision to publish excerpts from her private letters in The Dolphin greatly distressed Hardwick and ignited a major literary controversy Hardwick emerged from the scandal with the clarity and wisdom that illuminate her brilliant work most notably Sleepless Nights a daring lyrical and keenly perceptive collage of reflections and glimpses of people encountered as they stumble through lives of deprivation or privilege A Splendid Intelligence finally gives Hardwick her due as one of the great postwar cultural critics Ranging over a broad territory from the depiction of women in classic novels to the civil rights movement from theater in New York to life in Brazil Kentucky and Maine Hardwick's essays remain strikingly original fiercely opinionated and exquisitely wrought In this lively and illuminating biography Cathy Curtis offers an intimate portrait of an exceptional woman who vigorously forged her own identity on and off the page Reading the Middle Generation Anew Eric Haralson, 2006-04 Ten original essays by advanced scholars and well published poets address the middle generation of American poets including the familiar Robert Lowell Elizabeth Bishop Randall Jarrell and John Berryman and various important contemporaries Delmore Schwartz Theodore Roethke Robert Hayden and Lorine Niedecker This was a famously troubled cohort of writers for reasons both personal and cultural and collectively their poems give us powerful moving insights into American social life in the transforming decades of the 1940s through the 1960s In addition to having worked during the broad middle of the last century these poets constitute the center of twentieth century American poetry in the larger sense refuting invidious

connotations of middle as coming after the great moderns and being superseded by a proliferating postmodern experimentation This middle generation mediates the so called American century and its prodigious body of poetry even as it complicates historical and aesthetic categorizations Taking diverse formal and thematic angles on these poets biographical historical deconstructionist and more formalist accounts this book re examines their between ness and ambivalence their various positionings and repositionings in aesthetic political and personal matters The essays study the interplay between these writers and such shifting formations as religious discourse consumerism militarism and war the ideology of America as nature s nation and U S race relations and ethnic conflicts Reading the Middle Generation Anew also shows the legacy of the middle generation the ways in which their lives and writings continue to be a shaping force in American poetry This fresh and invigorating collection will be of great interest to literary scholars and poets

The American Love Lyric After Auschwitz and Hiroshima B. Estrin, 2016-04-30 Citing the massive horrors of the Nazi death camps and the domestic violence behind a woman s suicide Adrienne Rich challenges a fellow poet would it relieve you to decide Poetry doesn t make this happen In this provocative reassessment of the modern American love lyric Barbara L Estrin chronicles the return of three major American poets Wallace Stevens in the late forties and fifties Robert Lowell in the Seventies and Adrienne Rich in the nineties to the mid century catastrophes that gave rise to such thorny questions Through close readings of individual poems and drawing upon the gender and genre theories of Jean Fran ois Lyotard Judith Butler Melanie Klien and Jacques Lacan Estrin counters the usual presuppositions that the lyric remains sequestered in a political isolation and offers a new revisionist critique of American poetry

The Writer's Quotebook Jim Fisher,2006 If you have ever stared a page that remains stubbornly blank if you have ever wondered why writers write or whether good writers are born or made if you are a novelist playwright poet or journalist or simply delight in the written word The Writer s Quotebook is for you Whether you keep it in your office on your coffee table next to your keyboard or your bed this rich compendium of over one thousand quotations will inspire invigorate and illuminate the often challenging sometimes humorous but always fascinating task of those who bring words to life From William Faulkner and Ernest Hemingway to Doris Lessing and Joyce Carol Oates more than five hundred published writers put pen to paper on what the literary life is all about Selections come from seasoned professionals as well as those just establishing their voice and they represent a variety of nationalities and genres The book is divided into three sections The first part is devoted to the creative process including thoughts on where writers get their ideas the role of inspiration what kind of people write and where talent comes from In part two the subject shifts to writing as a craft Here authors ponder the creation of protagonists and points of view the writing of dialogue setting and description creating plots and the anatomy of style The final third of the book deals with the challenges and rewards that come with the writing life Subjects in this section include the economic realities of writing classes conferences and workshops dealing with rejection and bad reviews writing habits and rituals despair alcohol suicide and fame Articulated with elegant metaphor in straightforward prose or with wry wit the carefully selected and thoughtfully organized quotations come together to form a narrative that entertains informs and in the case of aspiring writers shows the way to better writing
