Havana Robert Polidori, Elizabeth Culbert, Eduardo Luis Rodríguez, 2001-01-01 Havana is a particularly rich setting for Polidori s inquiries The curves and columns that line the streets refer to past eras and speak of the political social and economic forces that have driven the city to its present condition

Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent, 2018-09-22 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City engages in alternative ways of reading foreign visual representations of Havana through analysis of advertising images documentary films and photographic texts It explores key narratives relating to the projection of different Havana imaginaries and focuses on a range of themes including pre revolutionary Cuba the dream of revolution and the metaphor of the city frozen in time The book also synthesizes contemporary debates regarding the notion of Havana as a real and imagined city space and fleshes out its theoretical insights with a series of stand alone important case studies linked to the representation of the Cuban capital in the Western imaginary The interpretations in the book bring into focus a range of critical historical moments in Cuban history including the Cuban Revolution and the Special Period and consider the ways in which they have been projected in advertising documentary film and photography outside the island

Inside Havana , 2002-07 Having enjoyed four years of unprecedented access to the private interiors of Cuba s capital Moore has created an unrivaled portrait of both its legendary historic architecture and the city s inner life 80 color photos

Robert Polidori Robert Polidori, 2005 A wide ranging collection of images by renowned photographer Robert

Polidori is showcased to great effect in this Stern Portfolio Haunting cityscapes of Shanghai and Brasilia are included along with photographs that reveal the social life beneath the patina of Havana's old quarter and imbue the city with its distinctive identity. Also included are Polidori's disturbing yet stunning pictures from the abandoned region around Chernobyl 15 years after the nuclear plant was destroyed there. By contrast the chapter on Versailles highlights the restoration of faded aristocratic elegance. On the surface this Canadian born New York based photographer's subjects are buildings but his real interest is habitat. He focuses his camera on the remnants and traces of the living he finds left in backrooms in solitary corridors and worn on naked facades to set up surprising contrasts and unique perspectives. In doing so he succeeds in capturing the true essence of a place and in his masterful compositions the inner lives of people and their memories spring to life and unfold before our eyes. ILLUSTRATIONS 46 photos Chronophagia Robert Polidori, 2014. From his images of the Chateau of Versailles under restoration to the faded grandeur of Havana to scenes of devastation from Chernobyl after the nuclear explosion and a New Orleans ravaged by Hurricane Katrina Robert Polidori is drawn to detritus shattered worlds and elegant ruin. Often considered an architectural photographer Polidori captures more than buildings his highly detailed views of interiors evoke both the intimate and the mysterious wherein the humanity of these photos is felt in its very absence in the traces left behind in vacant spaces once inhabited. This book is a sampling of Polidori's many famous projects created from the artist's own selection of more than one hundred photographs. The result is a compendium of Polidori's twenty eight year career and a visual exploration of the liminal space between past and present of worlds on the brink of disappearance.

Beyond the Supersquare Antonio Sergio Bessa, 2014-07-01. Beyond the Supersquare Art and Architecture in Latin America after Modernism which developed from a symposium presented by the Bronx Museum of the Arts in 2011 showcases original essays by distinguished Latin American architects historians and curators whose research examines architecture and urban design practices in the region during a significant period of the twentieth century. Drawing from the exuberant architectural projects of the 1940s to the 1960s as well as from critically engaged artistic practices of the present day the essays in this collection reveal how the heroic visions and utopian ideals popular in architectural discourse during the modernist era bore complicated legacies for Latin America the consequences of which are evident in the vastly uneven economic conditions and socially disparate societies found throughout the region today. The innovative contributions in this volume address how the modernist movement came into being in Latin America and compellingly explore how it continues to resonate in today's cultural discourse. Beyond the Supersquare takes themes traditionally examined within the strict field of urbanism and architecture and explores them against a broader range of disciplines including the global economy political science gender visual arts philosophy and urban planning. Containing a breadth of scholarship this book offers a compelling and distinctive view of contemporary life in Latin America. Among the topics explored are the circulation of national cultural identities through architectural media the intersection of contemporary art and urban social politics and the recovery of

Grande, 2019-10-15 In Art Space Ecology internationally renowned curator and critic John K Grande interviews twenty major contemporary artists whose works engage with the natural environment Whether their medium is sculpture nature interventions performance body art or installation these discussions complemented by eighty stunning photographs reveal the artists diverse backgrounds and methods expressions and realizations Ultimately the natural world serves as a canvas to explore the intersections of art space and the environment thereby raising questions about our relationship with landscape itself The essence of the art form is a dynamic interactivity and the dialogues between Grande and the artists mirror the encounter of object and environment artist and audience society and nature This work is rounded out with an engaging introduction by writer and curator Edward Lucie Smith who sets the stage for some of the most insightful and compelling discussions on art to be found The Photograph Collector, 2001 Surface Giuliana Bruno, 2014-06-09 What is the place of materiality the expression or condition of physical substance in our visual age of rapidly changing materials and media How is it fashioned in the arts or manifested in virtual forms In Surface cultural critic and theorist Giuliana Bruno deftly explores these questions seeking to understand materiality in the contemporary world Arguing that materiality is not a question of the materials themselves but rather the substance of material relations Bruno investigates the space of those relations examining how they appear on the surface of different media on film and video screens in gallery installations or on the skins of buildings and people The object of visual studies she contends goes well beyond the image and engages the surface as a place of contact between people and art objects As Bruno threads through these surface encounters she unveils the fabrics of the visual the textural qualities of works of art whether manifested on canvas wall or screen Illuminating the modern surface condition she notes how fa ades are becoming virtual screens and the art of projection is reinvented on gallery walls She traverses the light spaces of artists Robert Irwin James Turrell Tacita Dean and Anthony McCall touches on the textured surfaces of Isaac Julien s and Wong Kar wai s filmic screens and travels across the surface materiality in the architectural practices of Diller Scofidio Renfro and Herzog de Meuron to the art of Doris Salcedo and Rachel Whiteread where the surface tension of media becomes concrete In performing these critical operations on the surface she articulates it as a site in which different forms of mediation memory and transformation can take place Surveying object relations across art architecture fashion design film and new media
