Roberto Marquez:

Márquez Edward J. Sullivan, 1994 Meet Me For Murder Don Lasseter, Ronald E. Bowers, 2014-11-14 The true story of the predator who lured young women with promises of fame from the national bestselling author of the riveting Honeymoon with a Killer Publishers Weekly Hopeful beauty Kristi Johnson twenty one thought she was auditioning to model for a James Bond promotion Following the directions of the man who approached her in a shopping mall she drove to a mansion in the Hollywood Hills with a black mini skirt and stiletto heels Weeks later Kristi's body was finally photographed by the county coroner Her partially clad body had been found on a slope off Skyline Drive Not one iota of forensic evidence was recovered All investigators had was another Hollywood dream gone nightmare But what seemed like a dead end soon found its lucky break Responding to news reports about Kristi's murder calls from women came pouring in all of them victims of bogus modeling gigs One composite sketch later Victor Paleologus forty already on parole for sexual assault was taken into custody Halfway through his sensational trial Paleologus stunned everyone by entering a guilty plea and was sentenced to twenty five years to life The Cuba Reader Aviva Chomsky, Barry Carr, Alfredo Prieto, Pamela Maria Smorkaloff, 2019-05-17 Tracking Cuban history from 1492 to the present The Cuba Reader includes more than one hundred selections that present myriad perspectives on Cuba's history culture and politics The volume foregrounds the experience of Cubans from all walks of life including slaves prostitutes doctors activists and historians Combining songs poetry fiction journalism political speeches and many other types of documents this revised and updated second edition of The Cuba Reader contains over twenty new selections that explore the changes and continuities in Cuba since Fidel Castro stepped down from power in 2006 For students travelers and all those who want to know more about the island nation just ninety miles south of Florida The Cuba Reader is an invaluable introduction Sonia Sotomayor Antonia Felix, 2011-09-06 Necessary reading Booklist from a New York Times bestselling biographer Drawing on in depth interviews with Sonia Sotomayor's former colleagues family friends and teachers New York Times bestselling biographer Antonia Felix explores Sotomayor's childhood the values her parents instilled in her and the events that propelled her to the highest court in the land With insight and thoughtful analysis Felix paints a revealing portrait of the woman who would come to meet President Obama's rigorous criteria for a Supreme Court justice examining how Sotomayor's experiences shed light on her Supreme Court rulings and how she will continue to write her great American legacy Uniting Blacks in a Raceless Nation Miguel Arnedo-Gómez, 2016-05-12 The Cuban writer Nicol's Guill'n has traditionally been considered a poet of mestizaje a term that whilst denoting racial mixture also refers to a homogenizing nationalist discourse that proclaims the harmonious nature of Cuban identity Yet many aspects of Guill'n's work enhance black Cuban and Afro-Cuban identities Miguel Arnedo-Gómez explores this paradox in Guill'n's pre-Cuban Revolution writings placing them alongside contemporaneous intellectual discourses that feigned adherence to the homogenizing ideology whilst upholding black interests On the basis of links with these and other 1930s Cuban discourses

Arnedo Gomez shows Guillén's work to contain a message of black unity aimed at the black middle classes. Furthermore, against a tendency to seek a single authorial consciousness, be it mulatto or based on a North American construction of blackness, Guillén's prose and poetry are also characterized as a struggle for a viable identity in a socio-culturally heterogeneous society. The African Presence and Influence on the Cultures of the Americas Brenda M. Greene, 2010-05-11

The African Presence and Influence on the Cultures of the Americas, an interdisciplinary collection of essays by scholars and writers whose disciplines include but are not limited to literature, languages, linguistics, history, sociology, and psychology, reflects the complexity and diversity of the historical and cultural legacy of the African diasporic reality and provides a critical perspective for examining the persistence of African cultural traditions in the Americas. These writers and scholars explore the ways in which people connected by moments in history and the common legacies of racism, classism, colonialism, and imperialism have used literature, music, dance, religion, and cultural rites and rituals to survive and resist. The poetry and prose of Afro-Cuban icon Nicolás Guillén and Afro-American literary legend Gwendolyn Brooks provide a context for exploring these themes. Guillén and Brooks symbolize the triumph of the human spirit and the Africanisms present amongst people who share a common legacy originating in Africa. Building on the themes in the work of these poets, the scholars and writers in The African Presence and Influence on the Cultures of the Americas examine the nature, persistence, and impact of these themes in literature, language, music, dance, and religion. The scholarship generated in this collection has implications for the ways in which we read, study, and teach cultural studies, literature, history, language, African American Studies, Caribbean Studies, and Africana Studies. Boricua Muslims Ken Chitwood, 2025-10-14

The stories and struggles of Puerto Rican Muslims in modern-day America. Among Puerto Rican converts to Islam, marginalization is a fact of daily life. Their authenticity is questioned by other Muslims and by fellow Boricua on the island and in the United States. At the same time, they exist under the shadow of US colonization and as Muslims in the context of American empire. To be a Puerto Rican Muslim then is to negotiate identity at numerous intersections of diversity and difference. Drawing on years of ethnographic research and more than a hundred interviews conducted in Puerto Rico, New York, Florida, Texas, New Jersey, and online, Ken Chitwood tells the story of Puerto Rican Muslims as they construct a shared sense of peoplehood through everyday practices. Boricua Muslims thus provides a study of cosmopolitanism not as a political ideal but as a mundane social reality, a reality that complicates scholarly and public conversations about race, ethnicity, and religion in the Americas. Expanding the geography of global Islam and recasting the relationship between religion and Puerto Rican culture, Boricua Muslims is an insightful reckoning with the manifold entanglements of identity amid late modern globalization. Writing in Limbo Simon Gikandi, 2018-03-15

In Simon Gikandi's view, Caribbean literature and postcolonial literature more generally negotiate an uneasy relationship with the concepts of modernism and modernity, a relationship in which the Caribbean writer, unable to escape a history encoded by Europe, accepts the challenge of rewriting it. Drawing on contemporary deconstructionist theory,

Gikandi looks at how such Caribbean writers as George Lamming Samuel Selvon Alejo Carpentier C L R James Paule Marshall Merle Hodge Zee Edgell and Michelle Cliff have attempted to confront European modernism

I Am My Own Path Vanessa Pérez-Rosario, 2025-10-14 A definitive bilingual selection of poetry essays and letters by one of Puerto Rico's most beloved poets Julia de Burgos 1914-1953 is best known for her poetry but she is also an important cultural figure famous for her commitment to social justice feminist ideas and the independence of Puerto Rico Admirers cultivated her legacy to bring to light the real Julia de Burgos the woman behind the public figure which this remarkable collection further illuminates by supplying a complex portrait using her own powerful and imaginative words Beginning with a critical introduction to Burgos's life and work Vanessa Pérez-Rosario then presents a selection of poems essays and letters that offer a glimpse into this formidable talent and intellect Burgos left Puerto Rico spending the 1940s in both New York City and Havana where she cultivated a new kind of identity refracted through her pathbreaking work as a poet and journalist Both poetry and prose are alive with politically charged insights into the struggle of national liberation literary creation and being a woman in a patriarchal society I Am My Own Path is essential reading for anyone interested in Puerto Rican literature and culture as well as a foundational text of Latinx literature and culture in the United States

Letras Secretas Julien Vandenberg, 2020-10-18 Dugal Mike's a celebrated actor says goodbye to all that and withdraws to his favourite island with his better half herself a famed diva Eager for a bit of peace and quiet Dugal is not prepared to stumble upon a slew of passionate letters written by the previous proprietor of his retirement estate Archidux LS a notorious maverick and universal spirit In homage Dugal publishes his find not expecting backlash but that's what he receives Now this once idyllic spot becomes a grim setting as various zealots howl over the desecration of their icon and threaten Dugal's life and reputation Dugal does not understand why this discovered stash of letters seemingly harmless old manuscripts could cause such uproar Do these written declarations of love actually hide a cryptic message that threatens to subvert established values The more Dugal falls under the spell of his predecessor the deeper he gets entangled in a power struggle for the man's spiritual heritage while wrestling with his own perspectives and self-perception

Do the Americas Have a Common Literature? Gustavo Pérez Firmat, 1990 This volume takes an important step toward the discovery of a common critical heritage that joins the diverse literatures of North America and Latin America Traditionally literary criticism has treated the literature of the Americas as New World literature examining it in relation to its Old World usually European counterparts This collection of essays redirects the Eurocentric focus of earlier scholarship and identifies a distinctive pan-American consciousness The essays here place the literature of the Americas in a hemispheric context by drawing on approaches derived from various schools of contemporary critical thought Marxism feminism culture studies semiotics reception aesthetics and poststructuralism As part of their search for a distinctly New World literary idiom the contributors engage not only the major North American and Spanish American writers but also such marginal or minor literatures as Chicano African American
