Say Kids What Time Is It:

Rebirth James Alan Anderson, 2021-07-20 Like a phoenix the twins Kevin and Robert and their younger brother Jonah experience a rebirth after they barely survive the catastrophic house fire that killed their father and older brother Now is their chance to start fresh in a new town with a loving adoptive family The boys thrive in their new home and they experience many of the typical ups and downs of a normal childhood in the 1950s They are free of the abuses and draconian restrictions that their late father visited upon them after he became obsessed with the fanatical doctrines of the Radio Church of God Kevin soon makes a desperate attempt to prevent a large family from falling victim to that abusive religious cult The brothers can now freely pursue their own interests the most alluring of which are fledgling romantic relationships Kevin gets bitten by the technology bug and he starts building a number of electronic projects including a vacuum tube shortwave transmitter But the boys new life is tarnished when ominous vaguely written letters start to arrive at their new home that seemingly blame them for the house fire that resulted in the deaths of their father and older sibling Although the boys bravely try to get on with their lives their world soon comes crashing down when an unknown enemy decides it is time to take retribution on them for a sin they did not commit Rebirth is the second book in the Threefold Cord series that follows the lives of the three young brothers who have developed an unbreakable bond with one another A combination of nostalgia youthful adventures misadventures and intrigue this book is a delightful mix of genres that will keep readers entertained and enthralled until the last page

1950s Television Advertising Vincent Terrace, 2025-01-02 Winston tastes good like a cigarette should and You ll wonder where the yellow went when you brush your teeth with Pepsodent are only two of the many slogans associated with advertising on television in the 1950s There were celebrities like Marilyn Monroe Barbara Eden and Peter Lorre who performed in commercials there were shows built around a single product e g The Texaco Star Theater and The Colgate Comedy Hour there were numerous premiums offered to children e g The Sky King Detecto Microscope The Mickey Mouse Club Magazine and gimmicks used by sponsors to attract viewers to their shows e g Win a Wagon Train Pony and The Howdy Doody Smile Contest This is the first and only book of its kind it is a nostalgic trivia filled history presented through the actual programs and commercials of the 1950s In addition to two extensively detailed sections which have never been released online or in any other book Sponsor and Program and Program and Sponsor rare television theme songs with their original sponsor tags products mentioned in the theme songs are also presented It all began on July 1 1941 when WNBT the NBC affiliate in New York City televised the first commercial a ten second spot for Bulova Watches

Literacy, Media, Technology Becky Parry, Cathy Burnett, Guy Merchant, 2016-12-01 Literacy Media Technology considers the continued significance of popular culture forms such as postcards film television games virtual worlds and social media for educators Following multiple pathways through technological innovation the contributors reflect on the way in which digital and portable devices lead to new and emerging forms of reading participating and creating Rejecting linear conceptualisations of progression they explore how time is not linear as technological advances are experienced in multiple ways linked to different personal social political and economic trajectories The contributors describe a range of practices from formal and informal education spaces and interrogate some of the continuities and discontinuities associated with literacy media and technology at a time when rapidly evolving communicative practices often meet intransigence in educational systems The chapters adopt diverse forms historical perspectives personal story and reflection project reports document analysis critical reviews of resources ethnographic accounts and analyses of meaning making within and beyond educational institutions Together they provide multiple insights into the diverse and fluid relationships between literacy media technology and everyday life and the many ways in which these relationships are significant to educational research and practice
