University,1903 Plutarch's Essays and Miscellanies Plutarch,2020-09-28 Epicurus s great confidant and familiar Colotes set forth a book with this title to it that according to the tenets of the other philosophers it is impossible to live Now what occurred to me then to say against him in the defence of those philosophers hath been already put into writing by me But since upon breaking up of our lecture several things have happened to be spoken afterwards in the walks in further opposition to his party I thought it not amiss to recollect them also if for no other reason yet for this one that those who will needs be contradicting other men may see that they ought not to run cursorily over the discourses and writings of those they would disprove nor by tearing out one word here and another there or by falling foul upon particular passages without the books to impose upon the ignorant and unlearned Now as we were leaving the school to take a walk as our manner is in the gymnasium Zeuxippus began to us In my opinion said he the debate was managed on our side with more softness and less freedom than was fitting I am sure Heraclides went away disgusted with us for handling Epicurus and Metrodorus more roughly than they deserved Yet you may remember replied Theon how you told them that Colotes himself compared with the rhetoric of those two gentlemen would appear the complaisantest man alive for when they have raked together the lowliest terms of ignominy the tongue of man ever used as buffooneries trollings arrogancies whorings assassinations whining counterfeits black guards and blockheads they faintly throw them in the faces of Aristotle Socrates Pythagoras Protagoras Theophrastus Heraclides Hipparchus and which not even of the best and most celebrated authorities So that should they pass for very knowing men upon all other accounts yet their very calumnies and reviling language would bespeak them at the greatest distance from philosophy imaginable For emulation can never enter that godlike consort nor such fretfulness as wants resolution to conceal its own resentments Aristodemus then subjoined Heraclides you know is a great philologist and that may be the reason why he made Epicurus amend for the poetic din so that party style poetry and for the fooleries of Homer or else it may be it was because Metrodorus had libelled that poet in so many books But let us let these gentlemen pass at present Zeuxippus and rather return to what was charged upon the philosophers in the beginning of our discourse that it is impossible to live according to their tenets
